Announcement!

Hugh M. Quigley regrets to announce the resignation of Miss Mary M. Rankin as his agent and attorney-in-fact. Miss Rankin's resignation is necessitated by the demands on her time of her own agency, which she conducts in Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte, Pa. Hugh M. Quigley expresses his appreciation to Miss Rankin and to his clients for their cooperation during this period.

Miss Mary L. Iovine, Mr. Quigley's capable office assistant for the past four years, has been designated as agent and attorney-in-fact to conduct Mr. Quigley's insurance business at his office in Temple Court, where the same efficient and prompt service is available to his clients on all forms of insurance and surety bonds.

Your continued patronage and cooperation during this emergency are earnestly requested.

"Tell your rationing board you are cutting pulpwood"

LULPWOOD cutting has been listed as an essential occupation and those engaged in it should now include such activities in connection with any application for supplementary gasoline, tire, or automotive rations.

"If you are using gasoline-powered equipment in sawing, drawing or trucking pulpwood and it is absolutely necessary for you to have an additional allowance, you should report the fact to your local rationing board, giving full information as to the number of cords to be cut and the distance it must be trucked.

"Ceiling prices for pulpwood have been set by this office and are available upon application to your nearest OPA District Office. Pulpwood prices are now at a peak. There is no present intention of revising these prices."
