

SCIENTISTS at the University of VOLUME 63. of California have developed a drug they claim may be powerful enough to enable smaller people to grow. If successful it ought to be a boom to some Hollywood stars-giving their bodies a chance to grow big enough to go with their heads!

BETTY JANE VALEE, 3-month bride of the popular Rudy, made a very odd comment in applying for a "The strange thing," divorce. said, "is that we still love each other, and I'm sure we'll continue to go together." Guess she just married him to find out if she loved him enough to keep steady company after divorcing him!

our food we say "To hell with 'em!" Grassflat, near Philipsburg.

own words!

AN M. P. corporal called his camp recovered until some time Saturday, flames swirled around him he left (Ft. Sheridan) explaining he'd be more than 24 hours after the fire. loose. The mother collapsed when late because he was showing his girl Bones and only two small masses she reached the doorway and neighhow to put on handcuffs and then couldn't remove them from his own hands. It could have been worsehe might have gotten married.

JAVANESE school teachers have been forbidden by the Japs to wear Sarongs at class. Guess they don't want the native kids to see anything to look forward to!

AN AMERICAN army sergeant, with a wife in Pittsburgh, just became the father of quadruplets born to another gal in England. Just shows you how far ahead that country is in production!

INCIDENTALLY when his wife found out about her hubby hitting the jackpot, the latter really found out why they call Pittsburgh "the Smokey City!"

A KANSAS burglar wasn't too mad about being caught for stealing two suits from a dry cleaning plant. What burned him up was that one of the suits was his own. This'll be one time where a guy won't get a suit with two pairs of pants-he'll get two pairs of pants with one suit a law suit.

MRS LA BLANE of Saugus, Me., was hugged so hard by her son after his return from 16 months in the South Pacific, she almost won the purple heart. For he broke one of her ribs and she had to settle for black-and-blue side.

Victim Perished Only Three Feet From Safety; Mother Collapsed After Rescuing Two Other Children

A 3-year-old boy was burned to of badly burned flesh were all that THE city manager of Alberquerque death Friday and his mother and was left of the boy. (N. M.) has applied for meat ration younger brother were burned about Mrs. Erickson was in the house points to feed the city's rats. Where the face and hands when fire de- with the three children when the

we come from if the rats don't like stroyed the Gust Erickson home at fire was discovered. She carried 2year-old Larry in her left arm and The little victim, Ronald Erick- led 4-year-old Joyce in her right

MEANTIME our Senators have tried out a day of eating K-rations --which proved to be just as hard to digest as a Senator eating his way when he was stopped by the Ronald hung on until they were surging flames. His bones were not almost to the door and when the bors were unable to enter the badly burning building to reach the child. They were unaware, until his bones To Hold Revival were found, that he was that near the doorway. The home burned to the ground.

Nothing was saved from it except a washer which was kept on the back porch. Cause of the fire was not determined. Mrs. Erickson had fixed the kitchen fire only a short time before and everything appeared all right at that time, Mr. Erickson was at work in the mines when the tragedy occurred. Charles C. Greninger, 78, a native In default of $2,500 bail. Ralph M. The mother was burned about the face and hands and her hair was of Loganton and a former teacher Sechler. Jr., of Lewisburg, is being the crust and slid forward on the (Continued on page Two)

Barr, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Moran of Dunnstown,

Mrs. Kunes was born in Beech

Creek township and has lived all her life in that section, at present residing in town. Her 80 years sit very is Mrs. Kunes' great niece,

Beech Creek 'Girl' Is 80 Years Young street service news agency.

Aunt Alma' Kunes Does Her pital of a heart condition which de- Justice of the Peace M. E. Shaughveloped after he broke his ankle in nessy. Officer Kauffman, a veteran Own Work and Finds Time a fall in the pressroom of the Sun- member of the Lewisburg police For Hobbies Gazette last fall.

Born November 16, 1865 in Logan- evening, during a meeting of the Mrs. Alma Kunes, who is "Aunt ton, he was graduated from the Lo-borough council. countryside, celebrated her 89th Rebersburg Academy, and was grad birthday last Sunday by preparing uated from New Berlin College and and serving a dinner to a small the Potts Commercial College in group of relatives at her home. |Williamsport

After teaching in Clinton county

Harvey Reinstated

Plane Crash Landing at Duncansville Airport Board wearing a falseface."

Civil Air Patrol Pilots and Wives Wreck

Their Plane Beyond Repair

NEWS,

FEATURES

NUMBER 11

Random ltems DESCRIPTION

Former Judge M. Ward Fleming's colorful description of the Bellefonte Building Corporation-organization which built the new High School building-is "The School

EXPLANATION Forced Down by Bad Weather, Two Nevada

Columnist Walter Lippmann in a recent column explained a matter over which we have been puzzled for some time. The prime purpose of war is to disarm the enemy. The killing of men in battle is not the main idea-for if the enemy drops prisoner and, in the United States

Forced down by bad weather, two ping on its top, the wheels toward his arms and surrenders he is taken civil air patrol pilots and their wives the sky.

miraculously escaped death Friday The propeller was bent, the wings at least, is accorded the humane night when the cabin plane in which and rudder broken. The exact ex- treatment provided for at the Genthey were riding crash-landed at tent of the damage could not be def- eva Conference. If he chooses to Duncansville airport, in Blair coun- initely determined but there is a fight it out and is shot he loses his The plane struck a patch of possibility that the rib structure in- life because he refused to drop his crusted snow when landing, lurched side is also bent and in that case arms. Conversely, the person who over on its nose and finally settled the damage will be beyond repair, does the shooting and who himself on its top, damaging the plane the pilot stated.

probably beyond repair. The acci-The state police were called at in self-defense. The whole theory dent occurred about 7 o'clock. once and Sergeant C. E. Alexander, puts war on a kind of impersonal The plane owned by a rancher, with Private Joseph Mermelstein basis in which a soldier is caught George McGinnis of Valley Ranch, and Pvt. John Daceski went to the between three choices-to shoot, to Reno, Nev., was piloted by Charles scene to make an investigation. Agnes of R. D. 1, Reno, Nev., a former instructor in the air corps and ecently flying civil air patrol. Both the wives of Mr. McGinnis nd Mr. Agnes were with their hus ands and had taken off from Dayton, Ohio, planning to stop at the at Williamsport Assault on Officer Duncansville port enorute to New York City. The women continued their journey Friday night by rail Loganton Native Gained Wide Defendant Charged With As- and the men remained to dismante the ship. It was reported at the time that the Stinson plane was coming in slowly and when the wheels hit the snow on the field, they put through it rocked back and forth, finally flip-

For Mine Victims

Brothers Killed By Fall of Rock

Double funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon for the two mine accident victims. Peter and Albert Simms, who were killed Mon-

Carrying Lamp

Clothing of Aged Man Is

is Discovered be shot himself, or to surrender. The army which has the most men who choose to shoot is the army which usually wins the victories. MISGUIDED: of Pioneer Family See where 28 clergymen and writ-

is in danger of losing his life, fires

Alfred M. Wilson, Spanish-American War Veteran, Is 84 Years Old

Millheim Man Is

ers have lodged a protest against massed Allied raids in Europe, on the ground that such raids are not in keeping with Christian principles. Maybe we're on the dull side, but we still think it's a whole lot smarter to blast Hitler's war plants to Alfred Myers Wilson, who now smithereens than it would be to ves at Millheim, Centre county, have our men mowed down like celebrated his 84th birthday Tues- grass in the second front invasion day. March 7. A Spanish-American by the weapons we didn't destroy be-War veteran, he is a member of the cause we got soft-hearted at the pioneer Wilson family of Pine, Clin- wrong time. ton county, and is the son of John

Wilson, born 1810 and died May 7, ICE CREAM:

Did you hear about the Linn His grandfather, George Wilson, street woman who made ice cream fife player, soldier and scout in last week. She churned and churne American Army during the Rev- ed, then had a neighbor churn and lution was born in County Cork, churn, but the stuff wouldn't freeze Ireland, and died April 28, 1855 at Finally in desperation she opened Double Funeral Held For the age of 104 years and one day. mixture, It wasn't the ice cream's mixture, It wasn't the ice cream's found forgotten to put the the age of 104 years and one day. the freezer to cast out the offending fault. She had forgotten to put the in Wayne township. paddle in the can. An older brother of Alfred was killed and buried on Antietem bat- PICTURES:

tlefield in the Civil War. Sooner or later we've always sus-There are a number of interesting pected we'd get around to blackstories recounted about members of mail, and last week we found our this pioneer family. One concerns chance, While going through some the age of the grandfather, George old files we found a couple of pic-Pittsburgh Conference day of last week in a fall of rock Wilson, above. Lew Wilson, a grandat the Morrisdale Coal Company son now living at Pine, says there is tures you used to get in grade school

TODAY'S Gripe-line: Some Beef about Gas—Others Gas about Beef. A FRIEND of mine writes from Miami that he bought a delicious-tooking box of strawberries but the clerk wouldn't wrap them up unless the also bought a box of tomatoes the strawberries right there of the strawberries right there tive capacities in stores at Linder. Hole in Pittsburgh tees, Thursday, Edward Otts, Altoona, Oniciated at how "Old" George Wilson and a thereon. There is, for example, Pud the services and burial was made in before returning to the Williamsport. They are P. W. Hartsock, traffic Allport cemetery. Albert is survived by the following and a. G. Morris III, traffic man-sons and daughters; Earl and ager, Titan Metal Manufacturing by four daughters; Charlote, Mary Joseph Shank, a member of the Express by Louis by four daughters; For example, Pud thereon. There is, for example, Pud Kats new owner of the Kats store here, who was as cute a youngster back in fifth grade as you'd find anywhere. R. Cameron Heverly, now of Ravena, Ohio, made a rather of Williamsport. Mrs. Company.

inged in going through the flames. at Carroll and Loganton, died Fri- beld in Union county jail charged soft snow beneath, causing the plane day afternoon at Williamsport where with assault and battery with intent to go forward on its nose, where he has lived in recent years. Mr. to kill. The youth, aged 19, early Greninger was well known as a on Saturday struck Police Officer M newspaper boy" at the Sun-Gazette S. Quay Kauffman on Market stree uilding in Williamsport where for inflicting head injuries and tearing the past 15 years he had conducted the clothing from the officer.

Services Thursday

A hearing was held on Tuesday He died in the Williamsport hos- evening following his arrest, before eating the strawberries right there of the Baptist church in West of Ensign and Mrs. Leon Barr, who sons and then giving the manager the Frankfort. He has had experience as are making their home there with Charles, Jr., of Williamsport; Mrs., Company. a pastor as well as an evangelist, their mother while Ensign Barr razzberries by tossing the tomato and specializes in young peoples serves with the Navy. Despite the right in the puss. great difference between her age and

SPEAKING of Florida, it's Ass't work and in children's work. SPEAKING of Florida. It's Asso were solve and a sister will be attended by representatives birth date was apply in theirs, Aunt Alma is able to meet thers and a sister. William and Min-State Atty. H. Frost Balley, explains The services begin each evening the youngsters on their own level erva. Loganton, and Clayton, Rauch-of industry, agriculture and finance were sons of the late John and Mary Files Simms. The following brothers night while his dad was out calling be assisted by a chorus choir. There for the doctor. Frost probably moved will be special instrumental music to Florida to thaw out. as well as vocal music at the services. IT'S A relief to read that Tommy Manville is recuperating from an operation. You generally read he's Philipsburg Soldier Is recuperating from a ceremony.

A CHICAGO motorist, arrested for driving past a stoplight, got off Scott-free when he explained to the Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Pelka, of winters pass. She is in excellent of having received a call to enter cooperating with the railroads in the Judge that he had just paid his in- Philipsburg, received word last week health, her hearing is normal and military service, was rejected for promotion and maintenance of adecome tax and was still seeing red that their son, Lieut, Alfred Pelka she is a voracious reader. She does service and has resumed his post as quate transportation service and car when he got into his car and didn't is reported a prisoner of war of the all her own work and still finds time treasurer of the Bar Association. notice the light. The judge dismissed Germans, Lieut. Pelka, serving on a to make scrap books for favorite In his resignation it had been the case. "I know just what you Flying Fortress based in England, relatives, her most recent hobby, stipulated that in the event of his mean," he said, rubbing his eyes, "I was awarded an Army Air Medal be- Mrs. Kunes has made quilting her rejection he would be reinstated to just paid mine!" fore his B-17 was shot down over major hobby and it would not be his post as treasurer. William W

ODD AND CURIOUS

Never Mind the Coat

The following advertisement has out and that from the length of one, been placed in the Bristol Herald her husband was sure it was Alf. Courier, Tennessee; "If the who stole my coat on March 6 will look in the inside pocket of the coat 22 At Meeting of and mail my completed income tax return and attached check to the collector of internal revenue, he can come back and I will give him the vest and pants, no questions asked."

Good Alibi

night, at the home of Mrs. Hays W. from his home he was taken to the Explaining why the Liberty Coun-ty Times of Chester, Mont., was Mrs. Ray Noll, of Pleasant Gap, and a possible fracture of the right leg late, Publisher Tom Busey wrote: Mrs. G. A. Robison, of Bellefonte, and shock.

brary.

he is alive.

The only unofficial word the famfrom the wife of another officer who stated that the plane was blazing and that he saw six of the crew bail can't get one. This publisher has A report on the baby clinic sponowned typesetting machines for 25 sored by the club was read by Mrs. Pfc. Roy Wilfred Ottmer didn't years, but never learned how to op- Charles Martin, chairman of the get a furlough at Christmas, but erate one. hard way.

ferment, a Billings, Montana, mor- cases.

ing you plant ever comes up."

Hog Eats Car Plates

Day and Knight Wed

ture. The meeting closed with the sham, near Philadelphia. Add interesting information: Among the couples who recently ap- group singing of old-fashioned plied for a marriage license at songs,

"We haven't got a printer and we were co-hostesses.

LATE CHRISTMAS PARTY

With only a common school edu- year. He's learning now—the clinic committee. The report showed that doesn't mean he missed out on cation attained locally, he taught that during the month a total of 51 the family Christmas celebration. school in several different places, in Bellefonte, and during the next babies were brought to the clinic, 39 His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick and finally became an agent for a Local Mothers Club Mr. Mays had gotten off the bus

Twenty-two members and guests along the berm of highway 220 when attended a regular meeting of the Yeater's car hit him. The young man Bellefonte Mothers' Club, Thursday took the victim to his home and notified that their son was missing. Church of Christ at Blanchard and records.

They are now relieved to know that the Beech Creek P. O. S. of A.

ily has had concerning their son was Engineer Hit By

He's a Poor Planter babies were brought to the clinic, 39 His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick and finally became an agent for a de- babies were brought to the clinic, 39 His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick and finally became an agent for a de- of them being ones who had been of there before, and 12 of them new the Christmas tree all ready, the the law, he finally settled in Belle-presents tied in Yuletide fashion, fonte to complete his preparation tician wrote: "I am the biggest The club voted in favor of holding and all the holiday trimmings set for the Bar, to which he was ad-enterprise which was undertaken planter in the county." Replied the a card party early in April for the for their soldier-son's arrival Sun-board in denying his request: "Noth- benefit of the Centre County Li- day from a Wisconsin camp. He started practice

The club yold in my of them a wisconsin camp. Fary. Miss Helen Butler, home econom-ics extension representative for Cen-tre county, spoke on "Household Care and Cleaning," and demon-strated the making and use of home the fifth and sixth grades of the trated the making and use of home Hog Eats Car Plates A farmer of Scipio, Utah, left his truck complete with new license, Care and Cleaning," and demon-truck complete with new license, Care and Cleaning," and demon-truck complete with new license, Care and Cleaning," and demon-truck complete with new license, Care and Cleaning, and demon-truck complete with new license, ca standing in a livestock loading yard, strated the making and use of home When he returned a hog was finish-ing eating the plastic license plates. Miss Butler then distributed pamph-of teacher of art, music and arith-law to become the present with George M.

at the junction and was walking lets on household care prepared by metic in the sixth, seventh and law to become the great builder of the Penn State School of Agricul-eighth grades of the schools at Hor-He erected his residence on South

Spring street in 1865, which later became the "Markland Hotel" and is now the home of the V. F. W. In MINISTER ACCEPTS CALL plied for a marriage license at somes. Seattle, Wash., Walter J. Day and Agnes Knight. After carefully studying human beings for some years we are forced to conclude that there is no method of getting of the excessive profits that jump. MINISTER ACCEPTS CALL The April meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Leif A. Olsen, on West Curtin street. After carefully studying human beings for some years we are forced to conclude that there is no method of getting some of the excessive profits that are being made out of war work. MINISTER ACCEPTS CALL The Rev. Harry McGowan, pastor of the Dunmore Christian church of the Multiple and in 1868 erected with the practice of law. Renegotiation merely offers the government a method of getting some of the excessive profits that are being made out of war work.

DANIEL G. BUSH

Born 1826 in Bradford County

James Lamitina, Los Angeles; Ed-What is ahead for railroads and beth Mae.

MY SHOVEL IS TWICE AS BIG AS YOURS, SO ISHOVELED TWICE WHAT DO MEAN ?

YOU GET TWICE

AS MUCHAS IS

COM'ON THIS IS MY INNING

sault With Intent to Kill

force, resigned his post on Monday

Local Men Attend

100 /

AS MUCH SHOW. DIDNT 1 ?

BASEBALL

'Newsboy' 78, Dies Youth Held After

TODAY WAY

144 00

HAVE T

TAKE A

STOON FU EVERY

Popularity as Street

News Agent

HEAPINC

ward, Richard, Beverly and Ange- shippers during 1944 will dominate Peter was single. He was born line, all of Williamsport; two bro- the discussions at the meeting which March 31, 1901 at Munson. Albert's man, will preside. As Bar Treasurer regional boards covering the entire wife of Doyle Beveridge, Allport, Lewis Orvis Harvey, Bellefonte at- country, the Allegheny Regional Ad-

tightly on her and if one did not torney who recently tendered his visory Board is a voluntary organiza-Prisoner of Germans know her, one would never guess she resignation as treasurer of the Cen- tion of industrialists, farmers, bank Drops Dead While has seen so many summers and tre County Bar Association because ers and marketing and trade bodier

Baby Smothers To Death in Her Crib enemy territory on January 21. The exaggerating to say that she has Litke, who had been named as his family has been greatly concerned made dozens of quilts in her time. Successor, has returned to Mr. Har-since February 5 when they were She is a faithful member of the vey all the organization's books and Linda Jean Peters, four-months- rying a lighted coal oil lamp last old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thursday night, William Lyons the river, followed the Indian into C. Peters, smothered to death some Love, an aged Altoona colored man, the forest and soon returned with a 10th SON AWAITS CALL time early Sunday morning when was found seven hours later in the fresh scalp. The three then made Mrs. Annie Jordan of Boston be- her face became wedged between a hallway of his home, his clothing their way to safety. lieves she is the outstanding war pillow and the side of the bassinet smoldering after having become ig-mother of the current conflict. With in which she slept at the Peters nited from the burning oil.

Auto; Leg Injured nine sons already in the armed home in Altoona. Deputy Coroner Edgar M. Walls forces, five in the navy, three in the Surviving are the parents, one of Blair county said that the aged While walking to his home in army, and one in the marines, a brother, James, at home; the pa- man had died a natural death, but Greenwood, Friday night, Harry tenth son is awaiting his call for ternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. he could not understand why the Mays, 65, an engineer on the Pitts- induction soon. "I'm proud of them Arthur L. Peters, and maternal man's home had not gone up in burgh division, was struck and but it is pretty lonesome around the grandmother. Mrs. Pearl Smith, all flames. knocked down by a car driven by house," she confessed. of Altoona. Clarence D. Yeater, of Greenwood.

(By J. THOMAS MITCHELL)

OF CENTRE COUNTY

Ellen, Sara Jane, and Thelma Eliza- family writing from Honolulu, goes frightened looking youngster about like this: (Continued on Page Four)

Rescue Girl From Indians

Suffers Burns While

Wilson and Wetzel were on the Lock Haven Cars trail of the band of Indians, killing from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, Ellen Simms. The following brothers and scalping the guards one or two Virginia and West Virginia. E. C. and sisters survive: William, Corn- at a time at the darkest hour of the Reported Stolen Jepson, of Wheeling, general chair- ing. N. Y .: Christ, Philadelphia: night, until only three Indians were Wilbur, Munson; Elizabeth, wife of left alive with the girl. In a run-Third Attempt Results in Created in 1926 as one of 13 such of Rev. Edward Utts, Altoona; Ann, a long shot from Wetzel's rifle as chield

treatment.

Automobile he leaped out of the canoe, Another held the girl in front of him as a Lock Haven and vicinity had an epidemic of auto thefts over the

Wilson covered Wetzel while he weekend swam the river, and the third In-Lawrence F. Probst of the Griffin fian recognized the war-cry of Wetapartments, was returning from a zel, the dreaded "Death Wind" of call at the Lock Haven hospital the border. The Indian holding the about 9:20 p. m. Saturday evening Found Smoldering as Body girl, peeped over her head and Wilwhen he saw two boys who appeared son sighted his rifle just above her to be 16 or 17 years of age, taking head and killed the Indian with a his Plymouth coupe from his garshot between the eyes. In doing

He followed the two as they age. Dying of a heart attack while car- he cut off a lock of her hair. drove the coupe east on Water Wetzel reached the other side of street, and finally managed to force them to the curb.

They got out of the car and started running east. Mr. Probst after them, but finally got away. He says he could most likely identify the two if he saw them again.

Wrecking Mill Hall

At 3:55 a. m. Sunday Guy Allen Drying Wet Clothing of Mill Hall called the police to report his car had just been taken

His clothing catching fire Saturand was headed toward Lock Haven. day morning as he stood in front of At 4:35 o'clock. it was found near a locomotive firebox in the East Al- the paper mill, with damages to the toona roundhouse, John D. Lantz, 27. right front fender and the bumper.

was painfully burned. He was ad-G. M. McCormick, 200 East Bald mitted to the Altoona hospital for Eagle street, told the police his car was taken from in front of his home Lantz, a hostler, was coming down between midnight Saturday and 4 from the pit with an engine, when o'clock Sunday morning. The car of the victim was badly burned a hose stream soaked his clothing, was later recovered, badly damaged, Arriving at the turntable, he stood on Route 220 in Mill Hall. It had

Mr. Love had been under a phy- near the fire to dry himself. gone off the left side of the road. In some manner his overalls mounted the guard rail and traveled been engaged in trucking for some caught fire, the flames quickly eat-years, but had been retired and lived ing through to his undergarments. At home with a son, William, Jr. He tried to get the flames out, then

Putting these facts together, the at the turntable. Here he was told police believe the boys who tried to to roll in order to smother the steal the Probst car took the Mcflames; Some one threw a bucket of Cormick car, wrecked it, and then SHOWN SAFETY PROGRAM water on him before the flames were stole the Allen car, abandoning it after it was damaged in an unknown manner.

LONG CHURCH RECORDS SIMPLE TAX BILL

Mr. Taylor, secretary of the Cen-tre County Motor Club, accompanied for the same record.

UNUSUAL OPERATION Removal of a two-and-a-half-inch

Grove Mills and assisted him in showing the pictures. These moving pictures are avail-able for other schools which have not seen them and all inquiry should be directed to the secretary of the Centre County Motor Club for fu-ture appointments. Removal of a two-and-a-half-inch sewing needle from the ventricle of a woman's heart, the first case in medical history, and use of an elec-tronic finger which made the feat possible, was reported to the New York Surgical Society last week. The operation lasted more than two

'em starve

last week voted to buy the building of the former Snyder County Trust Company for $7,100 for a municip building. Passing of the ordinan building. Passing of the ordinance followed months of discussion.

COASTER BREAKS LEG

LeRoy Parker, 11, Orviston, suffer-Centre County Motor Club for fu-possible, was reported to the New ure appointments. Pacific strategy: Cut 'em off and hours during which the heart con-is a patient at the Lock Haven hostinued its work uninterrupted.

Bellefonte Academy, read law with James Macmanus, and was admitted

Pvt. Harry R. McKenna to Pine Grove Mills and assisted him in to our Bar in 1841. He spent two

When police and Mr. Walls arived they found the broken chimney of the lamp about a foot from the man's body and the glass-bowled BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES lamp empty of coal oil, it apparently having burned itself out. The body OF THE LIVES OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BAR

sician's care for his heart. He had dwellings on North Spring street at home with a son, William, Jr.

He is survived by five children, ran for aid to another man working and a brother and sister.

FERGUSON TWP. SCHOOL

The Centre County Motor Club, in cooperation with the Pennsylvania tions. He seems to have been inter-State Police, presented a most un-

were completed by him in the same