GROVER C. McAULAY

Death came suddenly to Grover Cleveland McAulay, 58, well known Howard resident and Piper Aircraft Corp. employe, who was stricken early Tuesday morning of last week with a cerebral hemorrhage and died six hours later, at 11 a. m., at his home. Mr. McAulay was born at Hublersburg, had resided for a number of years at Monmouth, and since 1936 had lived in Howard. He is survived by his wife, the former Helen M. Glesner, two daughters and a son, Mrs. Carl Leone, of Albany, N. Y.; Mrs. Donald Gardner, Jr., and Charles Eugene, of Howard; and two grandchildren. Services were held Saturday afternoon at the McAulay residence, with the Rev. R. L. Freat officiating. Interment was made in the Hublersburg cemetery.

HARRY THOMAS BEIGHTOL

Harry Thomas Beightol, of Howard, garage clerk and timekeeper at the state highway garage in Bellefonte for the past five years, died at 4:15 a. m. Friday, March 24, 1944, at his home of complications. Mr. Beightol, who suffered an attack of pneumonia three weeks ago, was a son of William and Oenah Harzen Beightol, and was born at Jacksonville on February 18, 1910, making his age at time of death 34 years, 1 month and 6 days. He never married. Surviving are his parents, living at Howard, and these brothers and sisters: Mrs. Robert Conaway, of Jacksonville; Mrs. John Dunkle, of Bellefonte; R. D. Cpl. Clair Beightol, of Camp Forrest, Tenn.; and Louise and Earl, at home. Also

Eat What You Want Nature Knows Best

Calories, vitamins and minerals are contained in the proper proportions in most of the foods the average family consumes daily. BUT—when over-indulgence, lack of fresh air and exercise begin to take their toll, indigestion and stomach disorders often appear. A satisfied user of World's Tonic says: "I find World's Tonic an excellent help to my condition and its laxative aid gives me a clean healthy stomach feeling." Your stomach may need cleansing, soothing and strengthening. That's what the famous World's Tonic does. World's Tonic (Trade Name) Not sold as a General Tonic but as a splendid laxative and stomachic. Used daily by thousands, it is an outstanding family medicine in many sections of the country today. surviving are his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harter, of Kylesburg. Deceased was a member of the Jacksonville Reformed church, Marion Grange, and the Howard Fire Company. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the home followed by services at the Jacksonville church, with Rev. John R. Gulick, assisted by Rev. L. Freat, officiating. Interment was made in the Evangelical cemetery, Jacksonville.

MRS. JOHN S. JONES

Mrs. Roxanna Jones, wife of John S. Jones, of Sandy Ridge, died suddenly Wednesday morning, March 22, of a cerebral hemorrhage. Surviving, along with her husband and mother, are the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Charles Resides, of Altoona; Thomas H. Jones, S. 2/c, Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Illinois; Pvt. Reese Jones, Fort Belvoir, Va.; Mrs. Boyd Monark, Riverdale Heights, Md.; Sgt. John P. Jones, Camp Howie, Texas; Rosanna Jones, at home. Six grandchildren survive, as well as the following brothers and sisters: Philip and William Hyde, of Sandy Ridge; Julius Hyde, of Clearfield; Mrs. Abe Poole, of Uniontown; Mrs. Jacob McLaren, of New Liberty. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon with interment in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Brishin.

MONUMENT

Revisal services are being conducted here this week through April 2nd by our pastor, Rev. Wilfred Booth. The meetings are well attended.

The fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Russell McCloskey was celebrated at their home on Thursday evening by holding an old-fashioned quilting bee, at which the following people were present: Mrs. Hazel Durkin, daughter Carol Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Mertis Schenck and family, Miss Geraldine McCloskey and Mrs. Ralph Fletcher, all of Monmouth. Refreshments were served and all had a jolly good time. Mrs. Hazel Durkin and daughter Carol Ann, and Dale McCloskey were weekend visitors at the Phillips home in Howard, R. D. 1, bringing Kenneth along home with them. Kenneth is not very well, suffering with a very bad cold.

Mrs. Ralph Fletcher visited with her husband in Renovo from Tuesday until Friday of last week. Mrs. Weldon Hanley is recovering nicely from an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McCloskey and family and Mrs. Ralph Fletcher were Sunday supper guests at the home of Mrs. McCloskey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips of Howard, R. D. 1. Miss Elene Merryman is on the sick list.

Mrs. Delmas McCloskey attended services in the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Visitors at Mackey's on Sunday were Allan Embick and Walter Condo, also Mrs. Francis McCloskey and Mrs. Helen Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mackey made a shopping trip to Lock Haven on Saturday, then called on Mrs. Mackey's father, Charles Dolan at Little Nittany.

WOODWARD

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, formerly of Lewisport, occupied the residence they recently purchased from Mrs. Harry Kessinger on Monday of last week.

We're glad to report that Arthur Boob, Jr., is improving in his eyesight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brindle received a telegram stating that the stork visited at the home of Cpl. and Mrs. Earl Brindle, leaving a 5-pound 14 ounce baby boy on March 22. Lois and infant are getting along fine. Grandpa and grandma are all elated over the new arrival. Cpl. Brindle is located at Ellington Field, Texas, about 15 miles from Houston. However, grandma is suffering with lumbago at the present time.

Cpl. Donald Reffner arrived home last Friday on a 15-day furlough. We were glad to see him.

Mrs. Earl (Florence) Motz was brought home from the Gelsinger hospital on Friday. She is slightly improved.

Saturday was a real spring day with the robins, cardinals and blackbirds singing. We were also informed of a flock of wild geese winged their way northward that same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stover of Middleburg, were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stover, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ard.

Harold Ard took a bus load of 28 worshippers of our locality to the evening services of the Evangelical church at Millheim on Sunday. We wish to say many thanks for this appreciable act of kindness.

John Eisenhuth was home over Sunday to be the guest of his family. He is employed at Mt. Pleasant near Pittsburgh.

Ammon Mingle, an active and a prosperous merchant of Roaring Spring, was the guest of his aged mother, Mrs. Lydia Mingle, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Musser, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curney Musser and family were Sunday dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Musser.

Miss Erma Guisevite, who is taking a nursing course at Williamsport, and Harry Crader, employed at Danville, were weekend guests at their respective homes.
