

Council Studies Zoning Ordinance

Mr. Hewitt said that in practice it is the purpose of zoning ordinances to give Council the right to control building and business activities to some extent, and that in operation every effort should be made to administer the law without working hardships on anyone.

could be named to administer the law. Appeals from decisions by the commission could be taken to Council, or, if necessary, to the county courts, he explained.

year, the zoning ordinance could prohibit them from resuming business. Council will not act on the ordinance until the Borough Solicitor has studied its legal aspects and submitted a report.

On the advice of the Borough Solicitor Council acted to ask the County Court for a declaratory judgment in the matter of Mrs. Bessie Kofman, some weeks ago was directed by Council to remove a storage shed built on her property on Wilson street.

Councilman Walter Eberhart was authorized by Council to attend a Borough Planning meeting held in Harrisburg Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

The police report submitted by Chief Harry Dukeman showed 66 cars tagged for parking violations, 1 larceny investigation, 1 accident investigation, an arrest for drunk and disorderly conduct, 1 arrest for non-support, 2 transients lodged in the lock-up, and 4 confidential reports.

Mr. Colver, a curb market dealer, appeared in Council to report that the space to which he has been assigned for a year, has been taken by another dealer, who refuses to surrender the space.

Plans for an addition to the Joseph Floek home on Burnside street were approved. The report of Health Officer Karl E. Kusse showed that all drug stores had been inspected, 20 health certificates issued, and that two homes in the borough are quarantined for scarlet fever.

It was reported that 60 persons are on the borough-operated garbage route, and borough officers were instructed by Council to determine whether the service is paying for itself.

Councilman Eberhart of the Special Committee reported that some parts for the new lime dust collector at the Warner plant have been shipped and that other parts are to be shipped in the next week of 50.

Three Sentenced At Special Court

almost to a halt on the road. Miss Armstrong, apparently unable to stop, veered to the right of the car ahead and the machine struck the Deitrick boy.

Edward Ellsworth Davis, 19, whose home is in Indiana county but who has been living with relatives at Howard, R. D. 2, entered a plea to a charge of stealing money from the cash drawer in the J. O. Brewer Coal Yard office on Duhiap street, Bellefonte.

Pvt. Eugene Barnie, of the Rockview sub-station State Police, prosecutor in the case, said Davis lifted cash out of the drawer on various occasions while he was employed at the Brewer yard, taking advantage of Mr. Brewer's absence from the office to rob the till.

Under questioning by Judge Walker, Davis admitted that the reason he came to Centre county was because the Judge of Indiana county had ordered him to get a job outside that county. The order was made after Davis had stolen a watch in Indiana county.

Donald Budd Horner, 21, of Centre Hall, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of burglary resulting from the theft of gasoline valued at $3 from a car in the William Taylor garage, Bush Addition, Bellefonte.

Pvt. Barnie, who was the prosecutor in the matter, said that on January 12 Horner and two other local youths whose cases were disposed of earlier at juvenile court, went to the Taylor garage and that the two younger boys entered the building and siphoned 9 gallons of gasoline out of the car's fuel tank.

Since this was Horner's first brush with the law, he was given a suspended sentence and was placed on probation for a year on the condition that he pay the costs of prosecution and make restitution for the fuel taken.

Announces Three Farm Meetings

ing along the Bald Eagle Valley to study the proper methods of installing drainage systems and observe drained areas.

All people having wet land are urged to attend this demonstration meeting. A ditch dynamiting demonstration has been arranged by County Agent R. C. Blaney for next Thursday, April 13.

In many cases, ditching dynamite can be used to clear ditches where they have filled up with sediment. The purpose of this meeting is to demonstrate this practice.

The Centre County Sheep and Wool Growers' Association announces a sheep shearing demonstration school to be held at the sheep barn, State College, next Friday, April 14, and Saturday, April 15, according to the president, E. H. Dale.

The Centre County Agricultural Extension Service under the direction of R. C. Blaney, county agent, will provide the instruction. Mr. W. B. Connell, livestock extension specialist from State College, will be present to teach the participants the proper shearing technique; also the best way to prepare the fleeces for market.

Anyone interested in learning to shear sheep is urged to contact the Agricultural Extension Office, Bellefonte, or Mr. W. C. Smetzer, Bellefonte, secretary of the association.

Recent Weddings. Alkey-Myers. Miss Clara Elizabeth Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Myers, of East Lamb street, Bellefonte, and Miles H. Alkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark N. Alkey, of Linn street, Bellefonte, were married at 4 p. m. Friday in the Bellefonte Methodist church with Rev. Harry C. Stenger, Jr., officiating. The double ring ceremony was used. Spring flowers and candles were used as decorations. A reception and luncheon was held at the bride's home after the ceremony. Mrs. Ellis Houser of Bellefonte, sister of the bridegroom, was her attendant, and Kenneth Chandler was best man. George Stecker of Milesburg, presented a 15-minute recital before the ceremony, playing traditional wedding marches as the wedding party entered and left the church. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gold color far distant from home, and ar- rangements had been made to give WAC enlistees their initial assignment in one of the various Army installations nearby. Positions are now open at Fort Story, Va., Camp Lee, Va., Camp Pickett, Va., Deshon General Hospital, Butler, Pa., Aberdeen, Md., and near an Indian town, "Gap," Sgt. Muellerstoeben stated. "Bellefonte and State College have many women in civilian employment who tomorrow should be serving in the WAC." Subject to Approval of Republican Voters at April 25th, 1944 Primary. EXPLANATION. In justice to several persons of similarity in names residing in Bellefonte it should be explained that the communication published last week in the "Letters to Editor" column, was written by Miss Mary Swartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde O. Swartz, of East Logan street, who is taking a course in journalism at Penn State College.

Local Anglers Hold Fish Fry. (Continued from page one) on the following persons for brief remarks and tales of their experiences while fishing: Rev. Thompson, Edward Omer, Fish Warden David Dahlgren of Phillipsburg, Jacob Hoy, David Washburn, Robert Valentine, former Judge James C. Furst, Thomas B. Beaver, Judge Ivan Walker, William T. O'Brian, William Smith, and Dr. E. H. Adams. Toastmaster Mosler declared that the principal speaker of the evening was to have been John Bugosh, well known resident of Clarence, but that because of Tuesday evening's snow storm Mr. Bugosh was unable to be present. Mahlon Hagerly of Phillipsburg was awarded a fishing rod given away by the Sportmen's Club. The evening's activities concluded with the showing of several reels of wildlife films by C. Ross Butler of Bellefonte, state fish culturist and well known amateur photographer. The keynote of the evening and of most of the "fish stories" told by the various speakers is aptly summed up in the following verse: BEHOLD THE FISHERMAN He riseth up early in the morning And disturbeth the whole household. Mighty are his preparations, He goeth forth full of hope And when the day is far spent, He returneth Smelling of strong drink And the Truth is not in him. -Anon.
