but we're scraping bottom

Since the National Defense program began in 1940, the Bell System telephones in service have increased by over 41/2 million.

But there's no more new equipment now. The Army and Navy bave first call on that. That's why we can't fill civilian orders as fast as we'd like.

As we scrape the bottom of the barrel, we're trying hard best possible job by - make room for more lines and colls. · Making former one-party lines serve two or more families.

Stretching weitehboards to · Reconditioning all serviceable facilities and putting them to use.

Nobody likes to stand in line. But it's different when the line forms behind our fighting men.
