

OBITUARY

ERNEST D. BITNER

Ernest D. Bitner, 79, a retired butcher, died Monday morning at his home in Jersey Shore after a long illness. He was a native of Beech Creek. In addition to his wife and a daughter, he is survived by his sister, Mrs. Harry Best, of Lock Haven, and a brother, Grover, of Mill Hill. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at Jersey Shore.

ELLIS OSEWALT

Ellis Osewalt, who made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Dumbleton, of Osceola Mills, died at the Phillipsburg State hospital Friday night, aged 81 years. The deceased was born at Snow Shoe, May 29, 1862, a son of Reuben and Elizabeth Sarvey Osewalt. His wife, Hannah Osewalt, died three years ago. Surviving are the following children: Mrs. Elizabeth Dumbleton and George Osewalt, of Osceola Mills; Mrs. Elizabeth Meek, of Sandy Ridge; James Osewalt, of Osceola Mills; Mrs. Edna Jones, of Ramey; Ellis Jr., Mrs. Ida Brown, John and Samuel Osewalt, all of Osceola Mills; also one sister, Mrs. William Southard, of Phillipsburg, and forty-three grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Dumbleton, in charge of Rev. C. H. Goshorn, with Rev. Daniel Pitterson assisting. Burial followed in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

JOHN W. ZIMMERMAN

John W. Zimmerman, of Berwick, son of the late James and Susanna Zimmerman, for 23 years resident of Lamb street, Bellefonte, died at his home in Berwick about 2:30 o'clock Saturday morning, April 29, 1944. He was found dead in bed by the driver of a bread delivery truck, who notified neighbors and police. Officers broke the door of his residence, where he lived alone, and examination revealed that death had been caused by a heart attack. Had he lived until November 20, this year, he would have observed his 90th birthday. Surviving sisters are Mrs. Clara Butler, of Howard; Mrs. Mame Fisher, of State College; Mrs. Margaret Snyder, Bellefonte; Mrs. Edythe Reese, of Port Matilda. Mr. Zimmerman had resided at Berwick for the past forty years and formerly was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in the store department. He was a member of the Methodist church. Funeral services were held May 3 at a Berwick funeral home with Rev. E. B. Davidson officiating. Interment was made in the Pine Grove cemetery, Berwick, where his late wife is buried.

RAY C. GRIFFIN

Ray C. Griffin, 36, of Port Matilda, R. D., died at the Centre County Hospital at 4 p. m. Friday, May 5, 1944, of a heart ailment after a five months' illness. Born at Stormstown March 7, 1908, he was a son of Jacob and Olive Griffin. On April 9, 1937, he was married to the former Adeline Johnson, who survives. Funeral services for Mr. Griffin, a member of the Methodist church, were held at the Koch funeral home, State College, Sunday afternoon, with Rev. Henry H. Shissler officiating. Interment was made in Grays cemetery.

MRS. CATHERINE Y. JACK

Mrs. Catherine Yarworth Jack, 62, mother of Mrs. S. A. "Pete" Hoffman of DuBois, formerly of State College and Bellefonte, died at 8:56 p. m. Thursday, May 4, 1944, of a heart attack at her home in Colver, Cambria county. She was prominent in Eastern Star circles. She leaves her husband, Samuel H., and these children in addition to Mrs. Hoffman: James J. Butler; John D. Armagh, and Mrs. Cordelia Ross, Homer City. Funeral services were held at the home in Colver Sunday afternoon, with interment following in Ebensburg.

NATHANIEL GILL

Nathaniel Gill, of Pleasant Gap, died at 8 o'clock yesterday morning at the Clair Gates home in that community where he had resided for some time. Death came after an 11-day illness with a complication of diseases. Mr. Gill was a son of Isaac and Mary Ann Knoffsinger Gill and was born in Spring township on August 6, 1861, making his age at time of death 82 years, 9 months, and 2 days. Surviving brothers and sisters are: Jeremiah and Albert Gill, both of Pleasant Gap; Jasper N. Gill, Bellefonte; George Gill, Florida; Harry Gill, State College; and Mrs. Willis Gill, Bellefonte. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Gates home in Pleasant Gap with Rev. D. A. Downin officiating. Interment will be made in the Zion cemetery.

MRS. ELIZABETH C. MUSSER

Funeral services were held at the Neff funeral home at Millheim at 9 a. m. yesterday for Mrs. Elizabeth C. Musser, wife of Harvey Musser, of Akron, Ohio. Interment was made in the Reformed cemetery, Aaronsburg. Mrs. Musser, 86, Penna Valley native, died Sunday, May 7, 1944, in Akron.

INFANT GARRISON

Rodney Joseph Garrison, aged 4 months and 13 days, son of Donald and Gertrude Meyers Garrison, died at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, May 4, 1944, at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Louise Meyers, of East Logan street, Bellefonte. The infant was an only child. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery, Bellefonte, at 10 a. m. Monday.

JOHN MAURICE WINTERS

Funeral services were held at the Neff funeral home in Millheim yesterday afternoon for John Maurice Winters, 74, retired Philadelphia postal employee, who died Friday, May 5, 1944, at his home in Philadelphia. Rev. J. S. Shannon officiated. Interment was made in Rebersburg cemetery. Mr. Winters was born in Miles township, a son of Perry and Elizabeth Winters. A brother and sister, Samuel and Maude Winters, survive. The deceased was a member of the Odd Fellows of Rebersburg, Masonic Lodge No. 570, and the P. O. S. of A., both of Philadelphia. He retired in 1936 after 27 years in postal service in Philadelphia.

ADDITIONAL DEATHS ON PAGE SIX—SECOND SECTION

Methodist League Entertainment On Friday evening, May 12, at 7:30 o'clock, the Junior League of the Bellefonte Methodist church will give an entertainment in the lecture room of the church. Four plays will be given, entitled: "Minute Minstrel"; "You Can't Fool Us"; "Keeping Store"; and "The Telegram." The program will also include graduation exercises and a special service in honor of former league graduates who are now in the armed forces of our country. No admission charges but a silver offering is requested. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The effort to solve age-old problems of the world by resolution is futile.

Association Plans Next Convention

(Continued from page one) will serve supper at 5:30 for a 75 cent charge. A complete and detailed program will be made public soon.

Other business considered was the acceptance of the resignation of J. H. Williams, of Unionville as superintendent of Adults Division. A successor is already under consideration. Rev. Harry McGowan, pastor of the Church of Christ at Phillipsburg, has been appointed to be superintendent of Week Day Bible schools to succeed his predecessor, Rev. Thomas B. Shearer, who recently moved to a new pastorate at Kingston. Mrs. Edward R. Miller of State College, has been selected to become superintendent of the Children's Division work. The salary of the secretary was voted to be paid.

District conventions have been held in No. 7 at Bellefonte on April 23, and in No. 5 at Howard on April 16. John Craik, president of District No. 3, has planned for a convention at Port Matilda on Sunday afternoon, May 14, with Rev. W. Edward Watkins, pastor of the Methodist church at State College, as the speaker. District No. 1 convention will be held soon in Phillipsburg and District No. 9 has chosen Beasburg as its meeting place.

Mr. A. H. Stover, president of District No. 12, gave a brief report on some activities and accomplishments in his district, outstanding of which was the work of Sabbath school superintendents' conferences. Similar conferences of teachers are now being planned.

Plans for the next meeting will be made by the newly elected officers following the spring convention.

Issue Publication

A new publication called "Universal Tips," published for plants of the Universal Match Corporation, made its appearance recently. A section of the paper is devoted to news of the Bellefonte plant written by John Taylor. The paper is published at Ferguson, Mo., and will be printed monthly. It is a publication for six of the company's plants.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Nelson-Gammons

Miss Frances Elizabeth Gammons, attractive daughter of Mrs. Elsie Smith Gammons, of Reidsville, N. C., became the bride of Pvt. Edward Leroy Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson, of East Lamb street, Bellefonte, at a ceremony performed at 2:30 p. m. May 1, at the Army post at Greensboro, N. C., by Captain Robert Weaver, chaplain. The bride's attendants were her sisters, the Misses Hilda and Evelyn Gammons, Pfc. Edgar Lewis, of St. Louis, Mo., served as best man. The bride is a graduate of Doans Business College and Mayodon High School and for nearly two years has been employed by the American Tobacco Company at Reidsville, N. C. For the ceremony Mrs. Nelson wore a coat suit of navy blue with a light pin stripe, a blue hat with long veil, white collar and cuffs, white gloves, and carried a corsage of roses. Pvt. Nelson attended the Bellefonte schools for a number of years and was employed by the mechanical staff of the Centre Democrat. For some time prior to entering the Army on April 21, 1942, he was employed in a defense industry at Chester. After a wedding trip to Danville, Va., Pvt. and Mrs. Nelson returned to Reidsville, N. C., where they will make their home for the time being.

Brickley-Marden

The First Baptist church in Lock Haven was the scene of a beautiful candle-light wedding last Friday at 8 p. m. April 28, when Miss Betty Mae Marden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marden, of Jersey Shore, became the bride of J. Edwin Brickley, son of Mr. Lillian Mae Brickley, of Avis. Rev. Howard G. Young performed the ring ceremony. The bride, who was attended by Mrs. Kenneth Shady of Lock Haven, as her maid of honor, was attired in a three-piece suit of green gabardine with which she wore white hat, veil and gloves and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Shady also wore a three-piece suit of green gabardine, yellow accessories and a corsage of yellow rose buds. Mr. Shady was best man. Mrs. Paul Lomison, of Orviston, played the traditional wedding marches, and during the ceremony "O Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly." The bridegroom's mother wore navy and white and a corsage of white rose buds. The bridal party received their friends in the church after the ceremony, and later left for a wedding trip to Harrisburg. Both are employed by the Piper Aircraft Corp. and they will reside in Jersey Shore. Out of town guests present for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. William Bortolot, of West Virginia, and relatives and close friends from Avis, Jersey Shore, Williamsport, Lock Haven and Orviston.

Leitzell-Hayden

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Leitzell, of Port Matilda, announce the marriage of their son, Buddy H. Leitzell, to Cpl. Lucille Rosalie Hayden, daughter of Officer and Mrs. Charles B. Hayden, Kewanee, Ill. The bridegroom is a graduate of Port Matilda High School, class of 1937. From 1937 to 1940 he was in the U. S. Air Corps stationed at Langley Field, Va., and received an honorable discharge. Since he has been employed by Lycoming Motors, Williamsport, and is now a traveling representative for that company, being assigned to the territory from Albany, Ga., to Laurel, Miss. The bride was educated in the Parochial schools of the Visitation (Kewanee, Ill.) and graduated from grade and high school. After graduating from high school she entered St. Francis Hospital School of Nursing, and having completed three years and 6 months of training, specialized in child training. She also was supervisor of children's playgrounds under the guidance of Park Superintendent Bennett E. Rose of Kewanee, Ill. Before entering the service of the Army Air Forces, she was for 6 1/2 years surgical nurse and personal secretary to Dr. V. W. Newman, osteopathic surgeon. At present she is assistant to the Flight Surgeon, Major L. T. Minish, Station Hospital, Turner Air Field, Albany, Ga. She is surgical technician and optometrist for Cadet training, also specializes in heart and ear-ray. She is a member of the J. U. G. sorority and former member of the Business and Professional Woman's Club, Kewanee, Ill. The wedding took place in Atlanta, Ga., on the afternoon of March 20 in St. Mark's Methodist church by the Rev. Leon Smith. They now reside at Albany, Ga.

BHS Graduation Scheduled June 8

(Continued from page one) office was dropped when there was no second to the proposal. At the April meeting the board voted to do away with the special tax office.

Eight cases of chicken pox and ten of measles were reported by school nurse Miss Daisy Keichline. The Mothers' Club, in a letter to the board, expressed thanks for the use of the school cafeteria for a recent card party for the benefit of the County Library.

The resignation of Miss E. Madeline Deise, teacher of third grade in the Spring street building, was accepted and steps were made to secure another teacher for that post. The board is preparing to advertise for bids for coal for the coming winter. The school cafeteria was reported to be operating without any appreciable profits or loss in a financial way. An effort is made to keep the cafeteria on a non-profit but self-supporting basis.

Townsendites to Convene The annual state convention of Townsend clubs will be held at Lewistown, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, May 19, 20, 21. Headquarters will be at the Coleman hotel, Friday will be registration day with a big meeting in the evening, Saturday and Sunday men outstanding in the Townsend movement will be present and address the delegates and visitors from the 755 clubs in the state. Dr. Francis E. Townsend has been invited and may be present.

Primary Votes Cost 66 Cents

(Continued from page one) is light or heavy. The Primary election passed into history, Friday, when the board named to complete the official tabulation of the votes completed its task. Members of the board which worked under the supervision of Mark W. Williams of the Commissioners' office, were: Mrs. Nell Decker, Mrs. Edith Runkle, Mrs. Helen Bickett, and Mrs. Barbara Kline, all of Bellefonte.

The count showed no substantial changes in the totals compiled earlier in the unofficial newspaper tabulation. Of a total of 46 military ballots issued, 28 were returned in time to be counted. Of the 28 returned, 21 were Republican and 7 were Democratic ballots.

Taking Pre-Flight Training William M. Fye, 17, of Centre Hall, is one of the class of 258 from Pennsylvania who are receiving pre-flight courses at the San Antonio Aviation Cadet Center, Texas. The cadets begin pre-flight training as a single group. They are separated for specialized training as bombardiers, navigators and pilots midway through the ten-week course.
