Mr. and Mrs. John Hassinger and daughter, Carrie of Northumberland, were Sunday guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Pultz. On Wednesday evening of last week this locality and westward to Wally's Chapel experienced one of the worst rain storms for years. It really was a cloud burst accompanied by heavy hail so heavy that they could be scooped up by the bushels. The wheat fields were so badly damaged that farmers can expect only half a crop. In a very short time Pine Creek had risen to about four feet. The hull was so heavy that window panes were broken. The little creek at Fiedler flooded Route 45 so that the water was as high as the running boards of the cars.

WINGATE

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bennett and Mrs. Sue Fisher transacted business in Lock Haven on Wednesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McLaughlin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Confer of Yarnell. Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Summers and daughter Mae, spent Sunday afternoon at Lewisport, visiting the former's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Summers. William Summers and Mrs. Roy Summers and Mrs. McKinley of Milesburg, were attendants at the Mother's Day service held on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. C. W. Blair and ten daughters, Misses Lok and Nancy, of Milesburg, were present and took an active part in rendering the program of the Mother's Day community mass meeting. Rev. Reid Courtney of Runville, held the devotion and also gave an inspiring address on "Our Mothers," which was uplifting to all who availed themselves of the opportunity of hearing it. A good sized congregation was present and different communities were represented. The sponsors of the gathering desire to thank all who took part and helped make it a decided success. All present received a letter to mail to some soldier in whose honor the meeting was held. Word was received of the death of Mrs. Cora Witherite of Runville, who had been making her home with her son, Arbutus Witherite of Osceola Mills, who has all their friends' deepest sympathy. Mrs. Witherite's maiden name was Clark, she being about ten years old when her father was called to service in the Civil War and died in action. Her mother, who was unable to maintain her, gave her to friends, and in her early years was with Christian aunts but after their demise she endured many hardships. She was united in marriage to Michael Witherite, son of John and Mary Witherite, and to them was born a son who alone is left to mourn his loss. Her original home was around Milroy where she had some loyal friends. She was a devoted Christian and her life a benediction for good with whomsoever she came in contact. She never knew her exact natal day, but if ten years ago at the time of the Civil War she would be somewhere in her nineties. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fisher and family of Howard, R. D., and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Lowery and son John, of Hubersburg, spent part of last week with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McLaughlin.

MARTHIA

EVERY CORD OF PEELED PULPWOOD COUNTS WE know you've done a lot to help win the war. We know this is your busy season and you are busy every minute. But everybody else is in just the same shape as you are. Pulpwood isn't coming in as fast as it should and we need every single cord you can cut now. Peeled Pulpwood Needed The many war uses of pulpwood have caused a serious shortage. This mill is doing all it can to help meet the country's demands but we cannot turn out the pulp unless we get the wood. WEST VIRGINIA PULP AND PAPER CO. TYRONE, PA.—WILLIAMSBURG, PA.
