

Echoes From the Past.

Fifty Years Ago

On Sunday a crowd of Bellefonte fishermen took a trip to State College and registered at the University Inn.

The laws of Pennsylvania provide that any person found drunk in a public place may be arrested and fined $2, the fine to go into the school fund.

Postmaster Fortney has had the postoffice thoroughly scrubbed and the establishment looks a little more decent than formerly.

Monday morning as Mrs. Jonathan Miller, living on Reynolds avenue, was going down the cellar steps she made a misstep and fell to the bottom.

During the past week extensive fires have been raging in the mountains in Snow Shoe and Boggs townships. On Sunday the atmosphere was hazy from the heavy smoke.

On Wednesday Mr. William Feidler, an elderly gentleman living in the vicinity of Penn Hall, was out in the field harrowing with a horse which was somewhat ill-natured and given to kicking.

When the miners went out in the Snow Shoe district the operators, among whom were the Kelly brothers, took off their coats and went to work themselves, mining and shipping two and three cars a day to supply local trade.

On Monday morning as Mr. W. S. Port was driving across the bridge between Gerberich & Hale's mill and the C. R. R. of Pa. depot, the horses were frightened by the cars and became unmanageable.

Rev. William Royer, of Centre Hall, recently received a call from a Lutheran charge near Muncy which he accepted and has left to enter upon his duties in that field.

The Standard Scale works, at this place, is running and leading and a force of workmen an addition recently was built to the establishment.

The Bellefonte Bicycle Club had a run on Tuesday evening, to Milesburg. It was the first run of the club for the season and the cyclists attracted a great deal of attention.

Wills Woodring, son of ex-Sheriff Woodring, has been in a critical condition for the past week at a father's residence at this place. His first illness was typhoid fever which was followed by inflammation of the bowels.

A siding is being laid from the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania at the depot to the steam heat and gas works plant. As they are large consumers of coal this will save them, when completed, a large item of expense in hauling fuel by teams.

James Harleman, of Clinton county, hauled a load of rock oak bark that was peeled from one tree and which weighed 2,000 pounds, to Hering & Co.'s tannery.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

Dean Braucht, cashier of the Spring Mills National Bank, expected to leave that community about June 1 to accept a similar post at Coalport, Clearfield county.

A Nash touring car driven by Mrs. Owens was damaged about the front when it crashed into the little stone house on South Spring street at the rear of the James McClure home.

One of the exhibit buildings on the Grange Fair grounds at Centre Hall was destroyed by fire one night. Included in the loss was an ancient carousal and some camp equipment.

The Spkyer stone quarry at Centre Hall was notified to discontinue the shipment of stones to the various furnaces it supplied.

The Penn State cadet band, under the direction of Major Thompson, entertained inmates at Rockview penitentiary at a concert held in the prison dining room.

A touring car driven by a son of George Hemel, of Bellefonte, crashed into the light standard at the W. F. Reynolds corner with sufficient force to completely sever the iron pole at the bottom.

Recent rains had brought out the lake on the Genzfel place near Zion. Although the spread of water, the source of which was unknown, was not as great as in former years, a number of motorists drove to the site to see the interesting phenomenon.

Mrs. Aaron Thomas, of Centre Hall, was admitted to the Bellefonte Hospital to undergo treatment for injuries suffered in a fall from a step ladder while she was cleaning house. Her left arm was fractured and it was feared that she was injured internally.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

Dean Braucht, cashier of the Spring Mills National Bank, expected to leave that community about June 1 to accept a similar post at Coalport, Clearfield county.

A Nash touring car driven by Mrs. Owens was damaged about the front when it crashed into the little stone house on South Spring street at the rear of the James McClure home.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

JACKSONVILLE

T/Sgt. George Swope is home from Camp Ellis, Ill., on a 10-day furlough.

Mrs. John Weber and Mrs. John Weber, Jr., and son Jackie, spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. William Dixon at Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vonada and son Donald, spent Sunday at the Harry Butler home in Howard.

Mrs. Elsie Noll of State College, was discharged from the Centre County Hospital Thursday, and is spending some time with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll, while recuperating from a broken leg.

Mrs. George Richard Compton and son Dickie of Howard, spent Thursday at the Miles Bartley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weirick of Howard, called Sunday afternoon at the Aley home.

Mrs. Lester Bartley, daughter Shirley and son, Cpl. Earl Bartley Powers, were Friday afternoon visitors at the D. P. Ertley home.

Callers at the James Shaffer home during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weight and daughter of Bellefonte, Clarabelle and Martha Jane Bartley, Kathryn and Lucy Conway.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gummo and daughter of Mill Hill, spent Tuesday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Callers to see Mrs. Elsie Noll at her son's home during the weekend were Mrs. Robert Conway and children, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Charles Guiser and daughter Patsy, Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Yecker, Mrs. Lulu Aley, Junior, Christy Hironimus, children, Della Garbrick, Mrs. Lucy Conway, Mrs. George Dolan, the Ertley children, Elmer Swope, and Blaine Aley of Jacksonville, Betty Harter of Lower Nittany, Mrs. Geo. Weight and Dorothy Hoy of Bellefonte, R. D. Betty Aley of Bellefonte, Melly Shaffer of Centre Hall, Mrs. Sara Kaufman and Mrs. Betty Swan, State College, and Dick Noll of State College.

Mr. Arthur Bartley of Fort Benning, Ga., is home on a furlough and called at the Miles Bartley home Sunday evening.

HOLTS HOLLOW

Mrs. Emma Watson is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Miles Stauffer, of Warren, O.

Our Mother's Day program was in charge of the mothers of the church. Several bouquets of lilies adorned the church. Our newly selected choir gave as their selection, "My Mother's Prayers Have Followed Me."

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and children of Centre Hall, Mrs. Jack Mabius, Betty Aley spent Sunday at their home. Other callers were William Beightol and daughter Louise and son of Howard.

Sunday callers at the Mrs. Gertrude Hurr home were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Confer and daughter Stella Rachel and Mrs. Orvis Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Delaney and Ray V. Delaney were callers at the Alice Betz home Monday. Weekend callers at the same place were Mrs. Ruth Betz and children of Howard.

Sunday dinner guests at the Robert Conway home were Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul, and Ray Dunkle of Mineville, Mr. and Mrs. William Beightol, son Jerry of Howard. They came to help celebrate Robert's 36th birthday, and also their 17th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vonada and family called at the William Poorman home to see his sister, Evelyn, who was on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rudy of State College, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and family.

Callers at the James Schaeffer home during the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weight and daughter of Bellefonte, Mrs. Hazel Garbrick and son Donald, Mrs. Evelyn Spicer and girl child, Mr. Lucy Conway, Elvorth Conway of Mill Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Milford Eiters and son and daughter.

Mrs. James Schaeffer and daughter Dorothy and son Donnie, were Monday callers at the Robert Conway home.

St. Arthur Delan called at the Miles Bartley home on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Ertley and family were Sunday dinner guests with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Corman. She was also glad to see her brother, Cpl. Nevin Corman, who is home on a 5-day furlough.

MOSHANNON

Mrs. Laura Wolosiagle and Arthur Hancok of Fleming, spent the week with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry, and while here took dinner with Mrs. Harry Yeager.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Beam and children, William, Charlotte, and Freddie, also Dorothy Beam and boy friend of Lock Haven, spent Sunday with Mrs. Beam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry.

Mrs. Homer Quick isn't much improved at present but we hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazzard and son, also Mrs. Carrie Cartwright spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazzard and son, also Mrs. Carrie Cartwright spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazzard and son, also Mrs. Carrie Cartwright spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazzard and son, also Mrs. Carrie Cartwright spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazzard and son, also Mrs. Carrie Cartwright spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazzard and son, also Mrs. Carrie Cartwright spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazzard and son, also Mrs. Carrie Cartwright spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazzard and son, also Mrs. Carrie Cartwright spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hockenberry.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE

Estate of ARTHUR G. MCCULLOUGH, late of Burnside Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

EXECUTORS' NOTICE

Estate of MARY E. BARROWS, late of the borough of State College, Pa.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE

Estate of EZZA C. RIFKA, late of Gregg Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

EXECUTORS' NOTICE

Estate of CHARLES A. MYERS, late of Hulton Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

EXECUTORS' NOTICE

Estate of A. L. ROWIN, late of Hulton Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE

Estate of I. MERVIN ARNEY, late of Potter Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE

Estate of ROY P. ZIMMERMAN, late of Spring Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

W. M. B. RANKIN AGENCY

COMPLETE INSURANCE SERVICE

Order's Exchange Building BELLEFONTE, PA.

BIDS WANTED

Sealed bids will be received until 7:30 p. m., E. W. T. May 25, 1944, at the office of the Secretary of the Bellefonte School District for approximately 185 tons of good grade bituminous coal to be placed in the bins of the several buildings as follows:

Bishop Street 20 tons, Allegheny Primary 30 tons, Spring Street 25 tons.

Bids will be considered for the total quantity or for the requirements of any one building.

Name and location of mine should be given with the bid. State whether prices include such shoveling back in bins as is needed. Prospective bidders should inspect delivery area.

For further information, contact the office of the Secretary. The School Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

VIRGINIA B. SMITH, Acting Secretary, Bellefonte School District.

WHEN WINDS GET ROUGH

A Windstorm Policy Protects You From Financial Loss.

MELROY'S

Pleasant Gap, Pa. Electric Appliances, Gifts - Toys, Patents.

Milk Coolers AVAILABLE AT ONCE!

In Electric, Gasoline Driven, or Ice Cooled Cabinets.

HUBERT ROSSMAN

HOME & AUTO SUPPLY STORE, BELLEFONTE, PA.

Twenty Years Ago

Twins, a boy and a girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fetzer, of Burnsville, lived only a short time.

Employees of the First National Bank at State College, enjoyed a chicken and waffle supper served at the Nittany Inn in Nittany Valley.

While engaged in oiling machinery at the match factory here William Keen thrust his left hand too near a cog, the result that it was caught. Before he was able to stop the machinery his hand was badly mangled and it was found necessary to amputate the last two fingers.

Former Sheriff A. E. Lee, of Centre Hall, was devoting his entire time to two lumbering operations he had under way. He was having some difficulty in securing teams and men to aid with the work.

Eighteen patients had been admitted to the Bellefonte Hospital to undergo treatment for typhoid as the epidemic of that dreaded disease spread to new proportions. Miss Helen Wolfe, aged 25, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Wolfe, of Coleville, was the first person to succumb to the illness. She died at the hospital less than a week after being admitted.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Charles E. Loesch, State College, and Edith M. Rishel, Madisonburg; Arthur L. Loesch and Ida M. Gross, both of State College.

Miss Mabel Blauser, of Potlitters Mills, suffered an injury to her left shoulder when she fell from a hay mow at her home. She was admitted to the Bellefonte Hospital for treatment.

Miss Ruth Strunk, et al. to Helen Ruth Strunk, et al. Bellefonte, R. D. 3, tract in Boggs Twp. $1.

Benjamin C. Jones, exr., et al. to Philip B. Ray, Bellefonte, tract in Spring township and Bellefonte borough. $1.

Beech Creek National Bank, to Hazel V. McCloskey, Howard, R. D. 1, tract in Howard township. $1.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

John H. Breen, of Centre Hall, became ill while on his way home from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, and finally collapsed. He was taken home where his condition remained quite serious.

SNOW SHOE

The Ladies Bible class of the M. E. church held their monthly meeting at Joseph Decker's home. The business meeting, an auction sale of hats was planned to be held at the June meeting. At a late hour lunch was served. Those present were: Mrs. Arthur Kellander, Mrs. Laura A. France, Mrs. Elsie Shope, Mrs. John Musser, Mrs. Myra Budinger, Mrs. Melly Shaffer, Mrs. William Heagle, Mrs. Elizabeth Harding, Mrs. Joe Radley, Mrs. Woomer, Mrs. Murray Gilliland, Mrs. William Preston, Miss Kathryn Dixon, Mrs. Pat Moore, Mrs. Irene Cramer, Mrs. Charles Ross, Miss Laura Banks, Mrs. Mabel Lucas and daughter Madge.

FARM CALENDAR

White Grubs in Sod - Farmers are urged by extension entomologists of the Pennsylvania State College to avoid planting corn, potatoes and strawberries in timothy and bluegrass sod this year. The reason is that this is the year when white grubs emerge and do extensive damage to crops planted in sod lands.

Legal Notices

EXECUTORS' NOTICE: Estate of MARGARET KUSTANBAUTER, late of Spring Township, Centre County, Pa., deceased.

BUSH HOLLOW

Sunday school next Sunday as usual with services immediately after. Our district superintendent, Rev. H. E. Uhrig, will be with us on Sunday morning and will bring the message at that time. Everybody welcome.

4-H Clubs Organize

The 4-H Home Economics program has conformed to the wartime needs, and in addition to this, 4-H club girls have been given Service for Victory by assuming responsibility for work in the gardens, caring for poultry, harvesting, etc.

Once Fat! Now Has a Model's Figure

Barry Reynolds, Brooklyn One 185 lbs. Mrs. Reynolds lost weight weekly with AVIDS Vitamin Candy Reducing Plan. Now she has the model's figure. Your experience may be very different. See how it works. Plan for your easier reducing plan. For free information, send your name, address and phone number to Barry Reynolds, 101 Broadway, New York 2, N. Y.

C. Y. WAGNER & COMPANY QUALITY FLOUR A Hard Wheat Pat. Flour WAGNER'S OUR BEST FLOUR 50-50 Blend WAGNER'S VERY BEST FLOUR Winter Wheat Wagner's 16% Dairy Feed Wagner's Pig Meal Wagner's Egg Mash Wagner's Chick Starter and grower. Wagner's Scratch Feed Wagner's Chick Feed Rydes Cream Calf Meal Eshelman's Dog Feed Dealers in All Kinds of Grains BELLEFONTE, PA.

SEARCH YOUR STOREROOM for idle electric appliances SWAP them for War Stamps now! Regardless of their age or condition, take your idle electric appliances to your Electrical Dealer today! With electric appliance makers "at war," many war-busy families are seriously in need of electric irons, roasters, vacuum cleaners, irons and washing machines. You can help them, and yourself, by turning in all your idle appliances now. SIMPLY DO THIS: 1. Seal your entire house for idle appliances, regardless of age or condition. 2. Take them to the nearest Electrical Dealer participating in this plan. (If your appliances are too large to carry, phone the dealer.) 3. Receive the worth of your appliances in U. S. War Stamps. For your country, your neighbors, and yourself, act now! Turn in all the electric appliances you no longer use to your Electrical Dealer. He will pay you in War Stamps, through this patriotic SWAP plan, then repair them for resale to families who need them. WEST PENN POWER COMPANY