RECENT WEDDINGS

Stiver-Williams

Miss Beatrice Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams of Dry Hollow, and Elmer Stiver, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Stiver of Martha Furnace, were married at the home of the bride's parents on June 7. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Greely Reese of Punxsutawney, in the presence of the immediate families. Frank Williams, brother of the bride, played an introductory piano number which was followed by two wedding numbers sung by Merrill Alexander of Tyrone. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, which the newlywed couple left on a tour of the western part of the state. Mrs. Stiver is a graduate of the Warriors Mark High School and of the Lock Haven Teachers' College and is now teaching at Bald Eagle. Mr. Stiver is an expert mechanic and is at present employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in Altoona. Mr. and Mrs. Stiver will reside on Park avenue, Tyrone.

Struck-Zartman

Nancy Jane Zartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Zartman, of Shamokin, and John Warren Struck, son of Mrs. P. Theodore Struck, West Fairmount avenue, State College, and the late Dr. Struck, were married in the presence of the church, Shamokin, June 12. A reception immediately followed the ceremony in the social rooms of the church. Mrs. Struck graduated from Shamokin High School, attended Carnegie Tech for one year and there she graduated in December 1942. She was employed at the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company in Sunbury until 1943 when she took a position with the Hayden Chemical Corporation in Riverside until May 1944. The bridegroom graduated from State College High School in 1940 and the College in May of 1943 and entered the U. S. Army Ordnance after graduation and was commissioned a second lieutenant June 10, 1944. After a wedding trip to New York, Lt. Struck and Mrs. Struck will live at Havre de Grace, Md., while he is stationed at Aberdeen Proving Ground.

Ralston-Rimney

Martha M. Rimney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rimney, of Centre Hall, and H. Gilbert Ralston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes B. Ralston, also of Centre Hall, were united in marriage at the bride's home on June 13 at 7 p. m. by James Runkle, Ph.D., of Williamsport. Attendants were Lt. Goldie B. Rimney, of the Army Nurses Corps, of Camp Lee, Va., sister of the bride, and George S. Ralston, a student of the Lock Haven State Teachers' College, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a slate blue and white street length dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet of lilies, roses and snapdragons, and her attendant wore the army regulation beige dress uniform and wore a corsage of roses and sweetpeas. A reception was held at the home following the ceremony. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Centre Hall-Potter High School in the class of 1941, and is now employed by the Sylvania Electric Products Co., Inc., of Mill Hall. Only the immediate families attended the wedding. The couple plans to go to housekeeping in the near future.

Foreman-Overton

Edmund G. Foreman, son of Mrs. Helen Love Rosengart, formerly of San Francisco, Cal., and Miss Betty Gray Overton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don G. Overton, of Mantua, N. J., were married Saturday, June 10, in the Methodist church at Mantua, with Rev. Morton F. Steelman officiating. The bride's sister, Miss Ellen Overton was bridesmaid, and her brother, William Overton was best man. Mrs. Esther Albertson of Woodbury, N. J., was matron of honor. Mr. Overton gave his daughter in marriage. After the ceremony a dinner and reception was held at the Overton home, after which they left on a wedding trip, which included a visit with the bridegroom's grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Love of North Spring street, Bellefonte. The bride is a graduate of the Pitman, N. J., High School and until recently was employed as a shell inspector by the Delaware Ordnance Department at Paulsboro, N. J. Mr. Foreman attended the Bellefonte High School and in November, 1942, was honorably discharged from the armed forces after serving 18 months. He then became employed by the Hammond Aircraft Corporation at San Francisco, Cal., and is now employed as a coil winder by the Radio Corporation of America at Camden, N. J. Upon leaving Bellefonte during the weekend they went to their furnished apartment at Woodbury, N. J.

Gray-Packer

The wedding of Miss Betty Irene Packer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Packer of Monument, and Donald Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gray of Orviston, was solemnized at 8 o'clock Friday evening at the Church of Christ by the Rev. Robert J. Pelboer of Olean, N. Y., former pastor. The ceremony took place before an altar arranged with summer flowers and candelabra. The bride wore a soldier blue street dress and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Her navy hat was trimmed with white flowers and a small veil. She was attended by Mrs. Bertha Packer of Pottsville, Mass., her sister-in-law, as matron of honor. Mrs. Packer wore pink, with a corsage of matching roses and blue delphinium. Mrs. John Gray of Mill Hall, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Herbert Gray of Orviston, another sister-in-law, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Wilford Booth of Monument played a short wedding recital before the ceremony. After the rites, a reception was held in the church. Mr. and Mrs. Gray will take a wedding trip to Akron, O., on their return from which they plan to live at Orviston for several months before moving to Mill Hall where both are employed by the General Armature Corp.

Homan-Delaney

Miss Agnes Elizabeth Delaney, daughter of Mrs. Talitha C. Delaney of Centre Hall, and Robert L. Homan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Homan, also of Centre Hall, were married Saturday at the home of Rev. Clarence C. Otto of Centre Hall. The bride wore a slate grey street length dress with white accessories and her corsage consisted of red roses and white sweetpeas. Mrs. Homan is a graduate of the Centre Hall-Potter High School in the class of 1941, and of the Greater Beauty School of Harrisburg in the class of 1942. She is now employed at the Beauty Centre, State College. Mr. Homan is a graduate of the Centre Hall-Potter High School in the class of 1940, and is now employed on his father's farm.

Hemphill-Volynch

Mrs. Mabel Volynch and David A. Hemphill, both of Bellefonte, were married Saturday night at 9:30 a. m. at the United Brethren parsonage, Bellefonte, with Rev. G. E. Householder, pastor, officiating. Lt. and Mrs. James Pettigill of Great Falls, Mont., son-in-law and daughter of the bride, attended them. After the ceremony a reception and luncheon was held at the apartment of the bride at 7 West Bishop street. Mrs. Hemphill has been employed at the Turner store, Bellefonte, for the past several years. Mr. Hemphill conducts a saddle and harness repair shop on West High street. They will live at 7 West Bishop street, Bellefonte.

Packer-Gray

The Orviston Church of Christ was the scene of a beautiful summer candlelight wedding on Friday night, at 8 p. m., when Miss Betty I. Packer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Packer, of Monument, became the bride of Donald Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gray, of Orviston, before an altar banked with baskets of roses and orange blossoms and candelabra. Rev. Robert Pelboer, former Orviston pastor, now of Olean, N. Y., performed the beautiful double ring ceremony. The church was filled with relatives and friends and bows in pastel shades marked the family pews. Mrs. Wilford Booth, of Monument, presented a 15-minute recital preceding the ceremony and also played the traditional wedding marches. The bride wore a soldier blue dress with navy hat and veil and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Bertha Packer, of Pottsville, Mass., was matron of honor. Mrs. John Gray, of Mill Hall, Mrs. Herbert Gray, of Orviston, were bridesmaids. John Gray, of Mill Hall, was best man, and the ushers were Paul Lemison, Jr., and Bud Probst, of McElhattan. The bridal party received in the church rooms, followed by a reception in the social rooms. They received many

"ARE YOU MY DADDY?"

"YES, sonny boy, I'm your daddy—the daddy you don't remember because you were just a few months old when I left for war." War is heartless, little man. It doesn't give much heed to family ties. But, along with millions of other men and women in uniform, your dad is doing everything he can to keep another war from starting when you're grown up and have children of your own.

dim memories remain of important happenings. A school teacher, for example, recalls an incident that happened long ago. A boy, who later developed into an enterprising business man, brought a big red rose to school one day and gave it to her. The teacher remarked about the rose's size and beauty, and the boy, with instinct which developed in later life, declared: "Yep, I bet I could have sold it for 50 cents!"

DRIVE IT HOME!

"That's the way I like to see them," said Gen. MacArthur when he saw the rows of dead Japs in the Admiralty Islands. In this war—the most treacherous forces Americans have ever met in combat. We on the home front can't let them down—and we won't. So resolve now to at least double your bond buying in the 5th War Loan drive. This is the time to do better than your best.

That's why there's a Fifth War Bond drive on now, a drive in which you're needed to support the men on the fighting fronts who are facing our boys must fight with savage fury. Kill or be killed! And on how well each plays his part depends the lives of many of his buddies.

Here on the home front, too, just cherring the attack on isn't enough.
