

Recent Weddings

Gentzel-Holt
Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mrs. Mildred Holt of Unionville, and Epley Gentzel of Zion. The wedding took place July 26 at the offices of Justice of the Peace Cross at Mill Hill. They were unattended. Mr. Gentzel is a retired farmer and well known citizen of Zion. Mrs. Gentzel has been employed at the Gentzel home for more than two years. They will continue to live at the Gentzel home.

Scott-Wilcox
Miss Emily Wilcox, of State College, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wilcox of Phillipsburg, became the bride of Charles MacCurdy Scott of Bellefonte, at a ceremony performed at noon last Thursday in the parsonage of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, with the pastor, the Rev. William C. Thompson, officiating. The bride is employed at the First National Bank, State College. Mr. Scott is trust officer at the First National Bank in Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. Scott will reside for the time being in the Glennland apartments, State College.

Gordon-Conley
Mrs. Sarah Colyer, of West Bishop street, Bellefonte, and Ben R. Gordon, son of Ben Gordon, Sr., of East Beaver street, Bellefonte, were married recently in the Reformed church at Phoenixville, with Rev. Hartman officiating. The bride's sister, Mrs. George Potter of Phoenixville, was the only attendant. Mr. Gordon, who served nearly two years in the Army, received an honorable medical discharge last November. He is now employed by the Titan Metal Company, Mrs. Gordon, who is employed at the Centre County Hospital, expects to continue her work. Their plans for going to housekeeping are indefinite at the present time.

Burd-Confer
Mrs. Edith M. Burd, of Bellefonte, R. D. 3, announces the marriage of her youngest son, Leonard Monroe Burd, and Miss Goldie M. Confer, daughter of James Confer, of Beech Creek. The wedding took place July 3, 1944 at the home of Rev. Paul E. Conley, of Lock Haven, when the double ring ceremony was performed. Miss Fairy Auman of Lock Haven, acted as bridesmaid, and Herbert Hunter, also of Lock Haven, acted as best man. Mrs. Burd has been employed at Sylvania Products Co. for the past year, while Mr. Burd is a Piper Aircraft employe. The happy couple are well known in Centre county and have the best wishes of a host of friends and relatives. They have gone to housekeeping at 442 West Water street, Lock Haven, where they are at home to their many friends.

Gilbert-Breon
Miss Marie Florence Breon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart M. Breon of Millheim, became the bride of Lt. Donald E. Gilbert, son of Mrs. Martha Gilbert, nee of Millheim, at the home of her parents at 2 p. m. Tuesday of last week. Rev. H. A. Houseal, pastor of the Grace Evangelical church of Lemoyne, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. J. S. Entz, pastor of the Millheim Evangelical church. Miss Katherine Hutchinson of Houtzdale, and Lt. Paul C. Holden of Dauphin county, were the attendants. Before the ceremony Mrs. Ruth Stover played "The Rosary" and Miss Tessie Bartges sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Gilbert is a graduate of East Penns Valley High School in the class of 1944 and is at present a student in the Altoona School of Beauty Culture. Lt. Gilbert was graduated from the East Penns Valley High School in 1941. He then took a course in engineering at Penn State. He entered the Army Air Forces in 1942 and received his commission last October and completed 27 missions in heavy bombardment as a navigator on a B-17. He was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal with three oak leaf clusters. The bridegroom's best man, Lt. Holden, has completed over 80 missions and is a Thunderbolt pilot ace. He originally served with the Royal Canadian Air Force and later transferred to the U. S. A. A. F. in England. He also holds the DFC, Air Medal with three oak leaf clusters, and several awards by the English and Canadian governments. After a reception the couple left on a wedding trip and at a later date will go to Miami Beach, Fla., where Lt. Gilbert will report for reassignment.

OBITUARY
MRS. MARY LOUISA DEARMITT
Mrs. Mary Louisa DeArmitt, formerly of Altoona, died Sunday morning at 9:45 after an extended illness. She was born in Bellefonte, October 18, 1852, daughter of Henry and Cathryn (Daley) Kabella. She was twice married, her first husband being Dr. Wooster of Idaho Springs, Colorado, who died in 1898. One son, William Desmond DeArmitt, preceded her in death in 1934. She is survived by one brother, Joseph Kabella, Sr., and five nieces and five nephews.

MRS. EDITH M. SORGEN
Mrs. Edith Margaret Sorgen, 64, wife of Reuben A. Sorgen, of Mill Hill, died at her home there at 9:40 o'clock Saturday morning after several years' illness. She was seriously stricken late in July, and was a patient for several days at the Private Hospital before returning home. Mrs. Sorgen was born in Jackson, Pa., and had resided in Flemington for 30 years. The Sorgens moved to Mill Hill just a year ago. She was a member of the Church of Christ, the Degree of Naomi Lodge and the P. O. of A. Camp 73, at Flemington. Surviving are her husband, three sons and a daughter: Ralph E. Keiffer, of Lock Haven, R. D.; Harold D. Sorgen, Lock Haven; Sterling C. Sorgen, U. S. Navy in the Pacific; Mrs. Henry Keller, at home; also three brothers and three sisters: John Rines, of Lock Haven, R. D.; Harry Rines, of Altoona; Charles, of Baltimore; Mrs. Rose Sterns, of Rushville, Neb.; Mrs. Lavina Hunt, of Laramie, Wyo., and Mrs. Roland Morrell, Sioux City, Ia.; also six grandchildren. Funeral services were held Tuesday.

BLANCHARD
The following persons who took the high school entrance examinations some time ago will be permitted to enter either Lock Haven or Howard High School in September: Lucille Kline, Alice Spangler, Kenneth Miller, Blanche Walker, Sara Shillings, Herbert Bechtel, Clare Bolopue, Ann Johnsonbaugh, Betty Weaver, Ann Eaton, Joan Peters, Donna Day, Phyllis Heichel, Charlotte Dietz, and Paul Bechtel. These will enter the 9th grade.

The following will travel by bus to either Lock Haven or Howard and enter the 10th grade: Marie Bechtel, Polly Bolopue, Evelyn Brickley, Jean Spangler, Violet Gunzalla, George Bowes, Dick Day, Robert Miller, Wilbur Smith. To enter the Junior class will be: Byron Richards, Don Thompson, Robert Thompson, William Williams, Leroy Winslow, Lois Girton, Violet Graham, Betty Walker, and Ruth Weaver. These pupils have been notified officially by Shuman Williams, secretary of the board and superintendent of the District church, that they will commute to either of the schools above mentioned. This was done when he took the school census some time ago.

Mr. Richards is to teach the seventh and eighth grades. He is thought to be intending to take a year's leave of absence. In that event a substitute teacher will be elected to fill the temporary vacancy.

Building Donors
Only two buildings on the Pennsylvania State College campus have been donated by single individuals—Schwab auditorium, gift of Charles M. Schwab, and Carnegie hall, given by Andrew Carnegie.

When a man speaks abusively of another there is little reason to ask him why; usually, he cannot tell, without giving himself away.

Pimples Disappeared Over Night

Yes, it is true, there is a safe harmless medicated liquid called Kleeerex that dries up pimples overnight.
