Mother Is Too Smart The reaction is beginning to set in to the various phoney "mothers clubs" which sprang up in the early months of this war. We are now able to distinguish between the bonafide, honest, patriotic, usually longestablished mothers organizations and these sudden, vague and trouble

It was clever of our enemies to discover and attempt to exploit for their own benefit our American reverence for motherhood. But it won't work. American mothers are not the heroines they are because they are stupid. Their fame rests in part their solid common sense upon which they pass on to their children. It is very easy to recognize a phoney mothers club. Just look for these traits: 1. Recent establishment.

making groups who use the shield of motherhood to desseminate a propaganda line which, not by coincidence, you may be sure, systematically favors our enemies.

2. Advocacy of an easy peace with Germany 3. Attacks upon our Allies but never upon our enemies. And remember this: the German shortwave radio hammers one idea day after day, their great need and overwhelming desire for a negotiated peace. Unconditional surrender gives the German high command goosepimples. They are worried about not being able to reorganize to start another world war in another twenty or thirty years. Hence they keep playing on their radio the American song "Let's Call the Whole Thing Off." The patriotic mothers clubs of America will not fall for such non-sense. The other kind of mothers clubs are being increasingly spotted

Lulu Brown (Written by a Yank) Lulu Brown of Oniontown Is noted far and near, She entertains the soldier boys With sandwiches and beer;

She doesn't have long, golden locks To cover her fat head, But she has hair that makes you stare It's yellow, black and red.

Her teath are green from nicotine. They look like blades of grass, And every night when she retires She puts them in a glass;

Yet no one cares a heck of a lot-Though she looks like half a ton-Yes, we know her nose is very flat, But gosh, she's lots of fun.

She's knock-kneed and she's cross-eyed. She whistles through her nose, But we all love her even though-Her neck looks like a hose;

She plays a concertina, She sings both high and low-But we all think of Lulu When we march to meet the foe . . .
