Hartsock, Ithaca, New York; Mrs. Helen Rumberger, Philadelphia; Mrs. Howard Slagle, York; Eugene Hartsock, Mrs. Esther Biddle, Jack Hartsock, Troy, and Boyd Hartsock, Lock Haven; also these brothers and sisters: C. E. Hartsock, Port Matilda; Rev. H. W. Hartsock, Everett, and Mrs. Nancy Richards, Youngstown, Ohio. He was a member of the Bellefonte Methodist church.

MRS. MARY ELIZABETH McCARTNEY
Mrs. Mary Elizabeth McCartney, of Mt. Eagle, died at the Lock Haven Hospital at 2:15 o'clock Monday morning, August 14, 1944, after a lingering illness. She was a daughter of Henry and Jennie Sayers and was born at Romola on August 4, 1863, making her age 81 years and 10 days. Her husband, Thomas McCartney, preceded her in death. Surviving are the following children: William, of Drifting, Elmer, Forrest, Clair, and Clyde, all of Howard, Pa.; Mrs. Elsie Butler, Mrs. Lulu

Etters, Mrs. Nancy Kirkwood and Mrs. Russell Winner, all of Williamsport, and Lloyd and Mrs. Florence Meyers, of Lock Haven. Also surviving are a brother, Joseph Sayers, of State College; 17 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. Mrs. McCartney was a member of the Methodist church. Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock this Thursday morning at the home, with Rev. Roy A. Goss officiating. Interment will be made in the Curtin cemetery.

SAMUEL S. STEELE
Samuel Sampson Steele, well known retired lumberman, died at the home of his son, Ellsworth Steele, Eden Hill, Blair county, Tuesday morning at 1:55 o'clock. He was born February 28, 1856, at Martha Furnace, Centre county, the son of William and Elizabeth (Mages) Steele. In 1870 at Port Matilda, he was married to Josephine Morrissey. He is survived by three sons and one daughter: Ellsworth Steele, Eden Hill; Boyd S. Steele, George Steele and Mrs. Margaret Schoff, Tyrone; also 19 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. He was a member of the Baptist church at Hannah.

JAMES H. RHOADES
James Henry Rhoades, 71, a brother of Mrs. William Shull, State College, died Monday afternoon at the Danville clinic where he had become a patient recently. Mr. Rhoades was a retired railroad yard conductor and had been making his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. Basinger, of Lock Haven. Mrs. Edward Kaufman, Colorado Springs, Colo., is also a surviving daughter. Funeral services will be held at the Basinger home this afternoon with the Rev. W. B. Bowers officiating. Interment will be made in Dunns-town cemetery.

MRS. PAULINE WETTSTEIN
Mrs. Pauline Wettstein, of Union township, died at the home of her son, Rudolph, at Julian, at 12:15 p. m. Friday, August 11, 1944, after more than two years' illness. Mrs. Wettstein, a native of Switzerland, was born there on June 28, 1859, making her age at time of death 85 years, 1 month and 13 days. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Buskhard, and her husband, Rudolph Wettstein, preceded her in death. Surviving in addition to the son, Rudolph, at whose home she died, are these children: Mrs. Charles Baer, of Saxenburg; Mrs. Anna Miller, at home; and Mrs. Mary Murdock, of Freeport; 17 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. She was a member of the Freeport Lutheran church. The body was taken to the Lloyd funeral home in Freeport, Monday, where funeral services were held and interment made.

MRS. FLORENCE C. TAGGERT
Mrs. Florence C. Taggart, of Philadelphia, was found dead in bed at 8 a. m. Saturday, August 12, 1944, at the home of Miss Sara McClenahan of Centre Hall, where she had been visiting for the past three weeks. Mrs. Taggart, who was past 80 years of age, was in apparent good health when she retired at 9:45 p. m. Friday. Centre County Coroner Charles Sheekler of Milesburg, who investigated, said that death was due to natural causes because of advanced age. The deceased was a daughter of the late Rev. Martin Carruthers, at one time Presbyterian minister of Aaronsburg. Since the death of her husband, James M. Taggart, about ten years ago, she had lived at the Union Home in Philadelphia. The remains were sent to Northumberland for interment.

MRS. SARAH EMILY McENTIRE
Mrs. Sarah Emily McEntire, widow of the late Dr. O. W. McEntire, of Howard, died at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, August 15, 1944, in the Lock Haven Hospital, where she had been a patient ever since suffering a fractured hip in a fall about eight months ago. Mrs. McEntire was recovering from the hip injury when she contracted pneumonia. Deceased was a daughter of George and Susan Heverly Wister and was born in Howard on November 27, 1876, making her age at time of death 77 years, 8 months and 18 days. The sole survivor is a niece living in Chicago. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock this Thursday afternoon at the home in Howard, with Rev. John R. Gulick officiating. Mrs. McEntire was a member of the Howard Church of Christ. Her husband, well known Howard physician, died about six years ago.
