Loganston Man Honored
Pvt. Harry J. Brooks, of Loganston, has been cited by his regiment of the 3rd "Marine" Infantry Division and awarded the Combat Infantry-

man Badge for actual participation in combat with the enemy while serving on the Fifth Army front in Italy. Standards for the badge are high. The decoration, which was recently authorized by the War Department, is awarded to the infantry soldier who has proved his fighting ability in combat. The handsome badge consists of a silver rifle set against a background of infantry blue, enclosed in a silver wreath.

Although the main season for peeling pulpwood is past, arrival of wet weather often provides a second loosening of bark for a short period. Penn State extension foresters urge making all the pulpwood possible to meet strong wartime demands.
