Page Six

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA.

October 5, 1944

OBITUARY

MRS. HARRY B. FRANKENBERGER

College, died at midnight Tuesday, dist church, officiated and burial was September 26, 1944, of heart trouble made in the Philipsburg cemetery. after a week's illness, Born December 28, 1871, at Spring Mills, she was a daughter of John F. and Mary Long Breon. On December 27, 1894, she was married to Harry B. Frank- Oct. 1, 1944, at 5:30 o'clock. He was enberger, who survives with the fol- born April 18, 1881, in Loysburg, the lowing children; John B. Franken- son of Henry K. and Deliliah (Whetberger, of Pennsylvania Furnace; stone) Ritchey. He is survived by children and two sisters, Mrs. Cath-Mrs. Arnold Matson, of Philipsburg. five sons, Henry, Bellefonte; Clair and Charles L. Frankenberger, of and Ray, West Decatur, Pa.; Law-Altadena, Calif. Surviving brothers rence, Buffalo, N. Y.; and Ralph, and sisters include Wills P. Erson United States navy, South Pacific; of Spring Mills, and John F B n three daughters, Mrs. C. N. Croft, and Mrs. Harry Fye, both of State Altoona; Mrs. Dorothy Turner and Seven granachlid en and Mrs. Edith Stonebraker, both of College. four great-grandchildren al o sur- West Decatur: a brother, Stanley, vive. She was a member of Grace Bedford, and two sisters, Mrs. Han-Lutheran church, State College, Fu- nah Davis and Mrs. Mary Pink, Alneral services were held from the toona, and 32 grandchildren and two Koch funeral home, State Colla e. great-grandchildren Saturday afternoon with Rev. J. P Harkins and Rey. E. E. Korte officiating. Interment was made in Centre County Memorial Park

MRS. GEORGE GRAFTON

ven Hospital after an illness of one Mrs. Elizabeth Grafton, 74, died week. He was admitted Monday in suddenly at her Pleasant Hill home a critical condition. Mr. Rhine was Tuesday morning, Sept. 26, 1944, of a born in Tylersville but had lived in heart attack. Mrs. Grafton had Mill Hall for the past 30 years. He been doing the weekly family wash was employed by the Bellefonte Lime and Mr. Grafton had gone to carry Co. in Salona. Surviving are two several buckets of water in. When brothers and four sisters: he returned he found his wife dead Rhine, Beech Creek; Daniel, Cason the floor. Her death occurred at tanea; Mrs. Mary Caris and Mrs. 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. Grafton was born Susan Klinefelter, Tylersville; Mrs. in England on June 18, 1870. She Margaret Tressler, Beech Creek, and came to this country as a small child Mrs. Florence Klinefelter Mill Hall. with her parents, the late Charles Funeral services were held Friday at and Alice Shaw, of Broadtop. She 2 p. m. at the McCloskey Funeral was married in 1891 at Broadtop to Home, Rev. C. F. Johnston officiated. George Grafton, who survives her, Interment was made in Tylersville. In addition to her husband, she is survived by the following five children: Charles of Lebensburg, Ohio; George, of Ravenna, Ohio; Mrs. Elizabeth Peters, of Pleasant Hill; Mrs. Margaret Perry, of Warren, Ohio; and Mrs. Mary Ann Rutter, of Pleasant Hill. There are 22 grand-children and six great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday the Pennsylvania Railroad Relief asafternoon at the home of Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Anna Mary Frankenberger, at Pleasant Hill. The Rev. John F. of 512 West Beaver avenue, Staty Stamm, pastor of the Trinity Metho-JOHN LYMAN RITCHEY

GEORGE D. RHINE

Hall, died Tuesday evening Sept. 26,

1944, at 8:55 o'clock at the Lock Ha-

George Dallas Rhine, 46, of Mill

John Lyman Ritchey, Philipsburg, died at his home Sunday morning, ## and the follwing children: Francis W., Rbert E., and Mrs. May Smith, all of Altoona; John C. and Mrs. Margaret Dickman, both of Juniata; Mrs. Loretta Meade, Lexington, Ky. and Joseph D., Detroit, Mich.; also 32 grandchildren, four great-granderine Strawmier, Juniata, and Mrs. Margaret Sprankle, of Altoona.

Brush Valley Nimrod Recalls Record Stag

(Daley) Kelley. He was united in marriage to Jane Botwright at Philipsburg July 4, 1888. Ten children were born, three of whom are deceased. He had resided in Altoona for 53 years and was a member of the Holy Rosary Catholic church of Juniata, the Holy Name Society and sociation. He retired in 1926 after more than 40 years' service in the Juniata boiler shop. He had previously served as a federal boiler inspector. He is survived by his wife

(Continued from page one) into Beech Creek near Hayes station on the N. Y. C. railroad; Beech Creek is the boundary between Clinton and Centre counties. I went out over the prop-timber haulers' road on the west side of Big Run, high up on the ridge, until I came to the 'Scootac-Germania' pike where I crossed the creek and followed the road east to a point about 10 miles west of the Queen of Spain's coal mines at Eagleton.

"Here the biggest yellow pines had been mostly removed, and with my glass I swept the country for miles and miles looking for my deer which Moyer and others said was lord of this blowy upland. I camped by the old Corduroy spring, and every day I went out to stalk my deer until I saw him, but my gun could not carry to this wary beast. Several clean misses were all I got that year but I enjoyed myself. It was a royal stake, and in 1893 Mr. Deer won. "When I got back, I had Harder,

PAUL EDGAR GROVE

Adam

the Williamsport gunsmith, make me a double 400 Express rifle which, Paul Edgar Grove, 17, of Coleville, with ordinary flat-nosed cartridges, died at 12:50 a. m. Thursday, Sept. would carry the minimum distance 28th, 1944, at the Centre County the giant deer put between us. The Hospital where he was admitted next fall I was out again, resolved September 12. The young man had to do or die. After a week, as no been ill about two weeks. Born in shot was fired by me, though I heard Spring township, east of Bellefonte, distant shooting all over the vast August 31, 1927, he was the son of forest, he offered me a chance at Edgar and Helen Stover Grove, In 180 yards. I missed him from my addition to his parents, a brother and rest across a windfall. He was sursister, Nevin Grove, at home, and prised when I fired, and bolted, but Mrs. Kenneth Green, of Coleville, soon stopped and stood at gaze, not survive. Two half-sisters. Mariorie knowing where the danger came and Marie Shuey, both at home, also from, in a southerly direction, and survive. The young man was emabout 250 yards distance.

ployed at the Olde Time Bakery, "If he had sighted me, he would Bellefonte, until becoming ill this have been off for good. I aimed month. He was a member of the again and fired. The thud of the Pilgrim Holiness Church of Coleville. bullet, even from that far away, was Funeral services were held at the unmistakable. He went down and Church at 2 p. m. Monday, with Rev. seemed hard hit, but I was filled E. E. Hostetter officiating. Interwith the fear that he might only be ment was made in Meyers cemetery, stunned, so I hurled myself through the sweet ferns, leaping over pine stumps and big tops until I was by MICHAEL FRANCIS KELLEY him, and found him trying to get Michael Francis Kelley, 87, retired up, when my second shot finished Pennsylvania railroad shopman died him at short range through at his home in Juniata. Saturday neck; the first got uim before the morning at 7:15 o'clock. Mr. Kelley was born at Nigh Bank, near Belle-est surprise of my life. While I had Nov. 3, 1867, a Centre county

Centre County's Most Complete Store

I while the particular sector of the

Our thanks to a Country Editor

Y OU get a pretty good view of the world from a small-town newspaper office. Sometimes you see things that other folks overlook. For instance, this frank statement by the editor of The Dierks (Arkansas) Banner:

> The Banner is one of the last papers in the country to raise its subscription price. many over the U.S. having done so a year or more ago. The cost of prac-tically everythics that goes in-to the production of a newspaper has advanced, except electricity used in running the machinety and lighting the In normal times there was little if any profit in subscriptions at $1.00 a year. If the information contained in even a

We're grateful to the editor for pointing out a fact more and more people are realizing - that at a time when most things are scarce and expensive, electricity is still plentiful and cheap.

That just goes to show what men and women in companies like ours can do for you by hard work and experience and sound business management.

Hear Nelson Eddy every Wednesday evening in the brilliant new musical show-"The Electric Hour"-with Robert Armbruster's Orchestra, 10:30 PM, EWT, CBS Network

School in the class of 1940, and until enlisting in the WACs in Sep-tember, 1943, held a civil position in the offices of the Philadelphia Sig-nal Corps. Pvt. Geissinger, who trained at Daytona Beach, Fla., is now stationed at Barkdale Field, Shreveport, La., where Sgt. Pyle is

LITTLE NITTANY

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harter and sons

Donnie and Charles, and daughters Evalene and Mary, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Harter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Shuey of Sunday visitors at the Earl Har-ter home were Mr. and Mrs. Ray-mond Harter and daughter Kathleen of State College, and Charles Cron-ister and son of Jacksonville.

Bellefonte, R. D.

High and Allegheny Streets

Bellefonte, Penna.