

ADLER

IN G. I. camps, newsreel shots of VOLUME 63. Dewey bring a hundred rasoberrie to one huzzah. You can't censor Bronx Cheer because you can't spel

MR. WINCHELL writes that to "cloud everything with Sidney." I didn't even know Skolsk was running for the presidency!

REAL reason they call 'em "mes: sargeants,' S & Sack Bobby Faye writes, is because they wear so many S & Sack Bobby Faye had marks on their sleeves!

THE death of Al Smith recalls the prize snapper he once pulled at an Aster dinner when introduced by long-winded toastmaster who tion of roars and applause.

IN Paris the newspapers cannot publish cross-word puzzles for fear that 5 a column code messages may slip through. The same censorship prevents the re-introduction of this trousers right side up next to driver of the car which hit the three It was learned that the boys had EPITAPH: The Japs are having live Fern, 14, of Bellwood.

000.000 cigarettes overseas. Nothing like being the butt of admiration.

into a theatre with his arm in : ching, overheard this aside; "He got that way writing fan letters-to

A YANK, recuping in an Army hospital, received a note from his wife; "Love to Mushie from his Tootsie." When he returned home, without advance notice, he found her with another man. So Mushie smacked Tootsie in her snootie and the divorce proceedings began.

the German regiment was found rangements could be made for drunk. History will probably record hearing. that Hitler, unlike Napoleon, met his Rye-and-Waterloo.

the Italian natives very much upset from Eck's person a wallet contain-because the Nazis had maliciously ing $104. The money was turned Osceola Mills, R. D. Man Is family of children, most of whom John Bernard O'Connor w said that the Allies would straight- over to the police by Bierly, after en the famous Leaning Tower of questioning. Pisa. They meant the Leaning Tow- He is also being questioned in re-have taken another two years to finish. I didn't think Mrs. Goering wore a size that big!

A CHICAGO man told his wife the war must be over because his boss talked back to him.

AND another friend of mine, to get good service from his un-favorite waiter always brings in the ame newspaper with the headline: War Will Be Over This Month!"

STATE POULTRYMEN TO

All phases of poultry production cipality.

co-date information of value and in- of our sidewalks it is obvious that the scene of the accident. He was terest to poultrymen, turkey grow- the dust returneth. ers, feed dealers, and others inter- Should one's thoughts linger in ment, marketing and other data.

Eighteen Pass Drivers' Tests

Twenty-four applicants for drivdrivers are: Helen Rachau, Rebers-burg; Miles D. Kissinger, Jr., Mill Lathey, Mrs. Elaine Hulling, Betty and peacefulness of D-Day.

J. Hollick, Jersey Shore: Leroy T. Let us be thankful that cows. Moore, R. J. Englert, Willis C. Mc-cannot fly. Namara, Lester D. Dugan, Bruce E. Stratton, Joseph W. Rayhorn, Jr., Lock Haven; Ellis P. Carston, Trout

Announce Engagement

Mrs. Foster Charles of Boalsburg, has announced the engagement of her daughter. Goldie Pauline Charles to Harry Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs.

SECOND SECTION

ge Centre Democrat

NEWS. FEATURES

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1944.

Bill's Coming Home on a Furlough

NUMBER 42.

Two Altoona Brothers And Pal Lose Lives In Crash Near Bellwood

All Three Victims on One Bike Almost Instantly Killed When Struck by Car Operated by 17-Year-Old Youth called upon him for an address, by bicycle ended in tragedy for two first line, he saw the bicycle headed "My address," started the Old War- Altoona brothers and their Juniata toward Altoona on the white line rior, "is New York City!" He then friend when the three, all on one between the first and second lanes, sat down to a deafening combina- bike, were killed when struck by a on the three lane highway between shortly before 8 o'clock.

> elski, 10, and Michael Nebelski, 12, parently attempted to make the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Neb- same move.

wife for divorce claiming she hung at the hospital that he was the of the accident.

IRENE KUCHTA of Indiana has ing toward Tyrone and passed a and started homeward. been voted Miss Gary Cigarette of man in a brown Ford coach. As he

ONE Hollywood actor, walking Loganton Man Is Held for Theft

Said to Have Admitted Taking Jersey Shore Man's Wallet

larceny from the person and then outcome of an inquest. A HEADLINE states that an en- placed in the city jail until ar-

Bierly Thomas E. Eck of Jersey Shore, R. ALLIED soldiers in Pisa found D. 2, Thursday evening, removing Pisa. They meant the Leaning Tower called Germany.

WORD from Paris reveals that the two huge tapesteles extered by Reich Marshall Herman Withelm had come into his home and after they have been in the works they had gone he discovered the his assume that they had gone he discovered the his hut are so hig they would be the police carly Friday morning. The sales being questioned in regard to the loss of a wallet containing $130 from Guy Martin, who called the police early Friday morning that they had gone he discovered the philipsburg state hospital as the result of a hit-run accident which occurred early Sunday morning, near

A RANDOM ITEM

Boro Fathers to send an ultimatum Hope ambulance was called. to the pigeons, it is gratifying to will be considered at the annual Last year it was a plague of skunks One leg was reported in particularly poultry conference to be held at the in certain parts of our town but our bad shape. Pennsylvania State College, Oct. guess is that the lime dust was too The accident happened along the bomber. 24-26, sponsored jointly by the Col- much for them and they just could Centre road near the Osceola water lege and the Pennsylvania State not take it. Pigeons are not that tower. It was just about 50 feet School. Private Zimmerman was a short business session. "panty waist," they are made of within the borough line. The conference program has been sturdier stuff, in fact they seem to The man boarded in Decatur craft Corp., Lock Haven. designed to give accurate and up- thrive on dust and a glance at some township about one-fourth mile from ested in producing either eggs or the lap of memory, you can almost al clues are being run down in the much larger eels than usual, one re- Martin on East Curtin street. picture "The Uptown Branch of the hopes of finding the person who port being of an eight and a half A wide range of speakers and Palace Livery" while walking past struck Anneskewich. leaders will assist the program, to Crider's Exchange-and our advice present advanced research, manage- is to walk close to the curb. This is one spot where you need not have the benefit of a rainstorm to find the necessity of carrying an umbrella. ers' license took their examination the Farmers National Bank. Yes, the best medical attention and was The same situation prevails around pigeons go in for banking in a way properly administered to while a

Hall; Ha J. Bitner, Beech Creek; soon suppressed, one can picture to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony G. Noll Pauline Bowes, Blanchard; Orpha our citizens armed with guns, of Marengo from Capt. George W. Zellers, Mingoville: Robert E. Bennett, Woolrich: Mrs. Mildred Best tective equipment that will make the Pvt., Noll, who was inducted into Bottorf, Jack B. Billman, Constance returned soldier long for the calm

Signed: "Mairzy Doats."

Legion Auxiliary Officers Installed reads as follows:

American Legion Auxiliary. Belle- son, Anthony G. Noll, who passed fonte, were installed at a regular away on September 3, 1944. I thought veyor and engineer. John Dunlop parations for the building of the

A Sunday outing in the country and attempted to cross back into the car operated by a 17-year-old youth the bridge and the Fox farm. He between Bellwood and Bland Park then reported that he swerved back into the second lane to avoid hitting Those killed were: Charles Neb- the lads on the bicycle and they apelski, Altoona, and Howard Johns, After the accident White contin-French postcards. Or Fifth column 14, son of Mrs. Eva Johns, Juniata. | ued down the road a short distance James White, 17, of Bellwood, im- to a place where he could make a A NEW YORKER is suing his mediately told those in authority "U" turn and returned to the scene the window when he was home and lads on the bicycle. White brought stopped at the service station operusside down as a signal when he Howard Johns and Mike Nebelski to ated by Walter Rossi at 10:30 a. m wis away. That's what happens the hospital who were pronounced Sunday and each bought a candy when a giv doesn't wear the pants dead upon arrival. Accompanying bar. On their return trip they again White to the dispensary were Doris stopped at the gas station and Rossi Clouser, 18, of Tyrone, R. D. 2, and gave the lads each a glass of water. They then stopped long enough to White told officers he was travel- put air in the tires of the bicycle

There was no light on the bicycle. 1944 for raising funds to send 7.- passed in the second line of traffic state police said, and from the story related by White, they were traveling on the wrong side of the high-

Doris Clouser, one of the pasjured slightly from broken glass. the accident happened.

Howard Johns was the only son of a widowed mother. She is employed bridge near the Robertsdale school at the Altoona Works.

James Bierly of Loganton was ar- James White, the driver of the rested early Friday morning by the death car, was released into the Lock Haven police on a charge of custody of his parents, pending the

Seriously Hurt In Hit-Run Accident

Victim of Unidentified Driver

the Osceola Mills water tower.

William J. Delansky, chief of police at Osceloa Mills, stated that the accident occurred about 1:30 Sunday morning and that the occupants of the car which struck him sped on and left the victim lay. The accident was discovered by the next being trained to maintain and re-istreet, with about 20 members presautomobile traveling over the high-With the recent decision of the way. Police were notified and the

The victim's condition was listed know that something is to be done as "not good." Unofficially it was re-MEET OCTOBER 24-26 about these feathered robots who ported that the victim suffered a were to take possession of our muni- fractured leg and arm and possible fractures of the skull, and shoulder.

on his way home at the time. Chief Delansky stated that sever-

Writes of Countian's Death In Italy

failed to pass the test. The new but they make their deposits on the patient in a hospital in Italy where he died of a heart condition on Sep-

Pvt. Noll, who was inducted into for Bellefonte. Its citizens may have lation to its interests. He was the with their parents were their three the Army in July, 1942, and sent done more important things in lat- pioneer in the iron trade with Pitts- sons and three daughters, Philip overseas in July, 1943 was a mem- er years and have assumed a larger burgh and was always bold and ag- with his wife and daughter; Mrs. ber of the military police branch share in the activities of the Com-of the service. He was stationed in monwealth and the Nation in later Many more names could be men-band, Russell Grove, all of New Ken-North Africa and in Sicily before times, but during these years, with tioned but the foregoing were those sington; Mrs. Marguerite Crider Eb-

"By this time you have received tions. forte, were installed at a regular meeting held last Thursday night at a party given by Mrs. Charles for her daughter at their home last Thursday night at the Legion home on Howard street, with Mrs. Hazel Glenn of Milesburg, and Mrs. Charles for her sample of the parents of the guests of honor, and Mrs. R. A. Lepley and Mrs. Paul Etres, all of State College, R. D.; Rev. Nelson, of State College, R. D.; Rev. N

Man Killed in Fall Winburne Man Dies From Fall Down Cellar Way

Fatally Injured in Plunge Sustains Broken Neck, Skull From Bridge at Robertsdale

Marion Scholosky, 62, of Winengers in the White car, was in- burne, died at 3 o'clock Tuesday was instantly killed last Thursday carriages, and breeding them with morning of last week in the Hunt- morning when he fell down a ramp the largest Andalusian or thorough The two girls and White were plan- ingdon hospital after being injured cellar way at the building at 1110 bred mares. The mule colt was alning on roller skating at Bland in a fall from a bridge in Roberts. Pifteenth street in which a restaur- ways taller than dam or sire. There Park and were enroute there when dale, where he was employed. Mon- ant is conducted by Ruth O'Connor, were two kinds of jacks favored for day night.

> plunged the 10 to 12 feet to the livering an order of popular a door the Carlist uprisings about 1870. puncture wound of the right lung of down the ramp. Prior to opening caused by a fractured rib.

ale and was employed as a miner struction of the passageway. at the Rockhill Coal & Iron Company mines. His wife and family re- restaurant, is no relative of the man are grown up.

Services were held at his Win-resident of Altoona practically all burne home Saturday afternoon and his life and was employed most of burial was made in the Presbyter- time during his career by wholeian cemetery at Winburne

Training as Airplane Mothers' Club Hears Machinist In Tenn.

and Mrs. Harry L. Zimmerman, is Mrs. Philip Bickett, on East Bishop bration.

formerly employed by the Piper Air-

Eels Large This Year

pounder, measuring 52 inches one following night by the same man. | which to land.

Fracture in 12-Foot Plunge

He died from a broken neck and skull mule production 65 or 70 years ago. fracture in the 12-foot fall.

the door, she said she told him Scholosky lived alone in Roberts- watch his step because of the con

> Ruth O'Connor, operator of the John Bernard O'Connor was born Former Bellefonte Couple luncheon was served by Mrs. Hawk Earl S. Orr went fishing for bass August 8, 1881, and he had been a plane repair and maintenance— State as a chemist, explained the married at the home of the bride's present they will make their home nently qualified. Wherever "Red" fusilage, control surfaces, landing making of rayon from wood pulp gear, instrument and motors. Upon to the finished product, and also completion of the training, they are gave many interesting facts about the Methodist church of Bellefonte. capable of stripping down and re- nylon and other present-day tex- The bride was unattended and wore Miss Alma C. Cartwright, of State richly clothed.

Talk On Textiles

Prior to her talk Mrs. Nell Mc- She was just 18 and he 22. The wed- Fred Cartwright, of Sandy Ridge, A graduate of Bellefonte High Groarty, club president, conducted ding trip was to Philadelphia and and William Boyd Chandler, of Ruth and Naomi Sunday school class

Members of the program com mittee were Mrs. Bickett, Mrs. Grover Corman, Mrs. John Covey and Mrs. Arthur C. Dale. The next meet-Eel men in Berwick vicinity re- ing of the club will be held Novemport that the catch this year is of ber 9 at the home of Mrs. Charles

The Nazi gangsters are probably night and two seven pound fish the beginning to look for a place in

Reviews Old Times

J. THOMAS MITCHELL REVIEWS BELLEFONTE AS IT WAS FROM 1800 TO 1815

tion, many of its residents were munity. fessional and intellectual qualifica-

The first fifteen years of the new spent so much time in the town iron business seemed to be devoted dren of Alden, N. Y.; Herbert Cri-New officers of Brooks-Doll Post official notice of the death of your James Harris, one of its founders, to the erection of the county build-, der, with his wife and daughter

Bears Molest Bees

Game Protector Clarence F. Walker, of Beavertown, reports that bears molested five bee hives and carried off all the honey from the large bee colony of Ray Gordon, belarge bee colony of Ray Gordon, belarge bee colony of Ray Gordon, belarge bee colony of Beavertown and Solinarpove.
The following year saw numerous of the United States Circuit Court to the National War Fund drive.
Following the business meeting a large bee colony of Ray Gordon, belarge bee colony of Ray Gordon, belarge bee colony of the State large of the United States Circuit Court
large of the United States Circuit Court large bee in the Institute of the United States Circuit Court large of the United States Circuit Court large of the United States C

Narration By Historian The Making of Tar and Turpentine in Olden Days Also Reviewed. Grooves Cut in Trees from Which Pitch Oozed.

in Altoona Tribune

hand higher than the latter, much ass, it is asserted. than either parent.

this was accomplished in Europe. It was by selecting the very tallest and loftiest jacks of the breeds used in Europe for the saddle, and i John B. O'Conner, 63, of Altoons, Spain for stagewagons and private He was walking over the small fracture in the 12-foot fall.

Mr. O'Connor, who was in the bridge near the Robertsdale school on his way to where he roomed when he fell off the bridge and livering an order of potatoes. Ruth plunged the 10 to 12 feet to the control of the produce dealers, was engaged in delivering an order of potatoes. Ruth plunged the 10 to 12 feet to the control of this issue will be found to but the breed had become scarce as the large, coarse, neavy spanish jack, with drooping ears, but the breed had become scarce as the roomed produce dealers, was engaged in delivering an order of potatoes. Ruth plunged the 10 to 12 feet to the control of this issue will be found in some districts was extinct after of Zion, were married Saturday. October 7, at the home of Mr. and you the writer's name, but he asked

Criders Observe 50th Anniversary

Hold Open House For Friends

tertained several hundred persons at open house at their home in Lock Haven, the latter part of last week At the huge Memphis, Tenn., base "Post War and Wartime Pabrics" tained at 6 o'clock dinner at the Milesburg: were married in the where aviation machinists are was the topic of an instructive talk Crider home Wednesday evening Methodist parsonage at Orbisonia, its nose, dived merrily into the water schooled in the art of keeping the given by Miss Pauline Keeney, of and on Saturday evening the family August 19. Rev. Arthur A. Price. planes flying and fighting, Private Penn State, at a regular meeting of of three sons and daughters-in-law, pastor of the church, performed and swam away. Harry R. Zimmerman, 241 South the Bellefoute Mothers' Club held with all the grandchildren but two, the ceremony. They were unattend- GOOD MAN LEAVES:

parents, October 11, 1894, by the with the bridegroom's parents. Rev. James H. McGarrah, pastor of

Mr. and Mrs. Crider began housein the Crider home on West Main away by the 1918 flood and rebuilt them at another point. They are members of the East Main Street Methodist Church and Mrs. Crider is a member of the Eastern Star. Miss Pauline Biddle, daughter of necessity; a city in Arizona; a gear the White Shrine of Jerusalem and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Biddle of Belle- in a Ford; a means of transporta-

the Dames of Malta. century were the truly great days that he was always consulted in re- At home from Friday to Sunday going into Italy where he became scarcely two hundred of a popula- of the real leaders of the com- erhart, son William Eberhart, on furlough from Camp Van Dorn, The letter from Chaplain Kautz outstanding for their business, pro- Bellefonte's activities during the Miss., and daughter, at home; Paul next few years in addition to its Crider with his wife and four chil-

Plemington mother Mrs. all me

'Old Furnace Mules Used At Lamar' Subject For

By Henry W. Shoemaker

In one of the writer's last talks by paying stiff prices obtained some even a number as low as 5,000 would with Clinton County Historian W. superb specimens. The other Span- be an oddity, considering the num-Howard Wolfe, before his recent ish variety today far better known, ber of original license holders who (lamented) passing, the conversa- is the so-called Andalusian jack, have died, removed from the state, tion turned to the types of mules with shorter and more erect ears, or discontinued getting licenses in used in the Blutz wagons at old La- more active, fuller of life and spirit the intervening years. The lowest mar furnace, on the Clinton-Centre than the older variety, strong and number we've seen to date, and well provided with bone. General we've examined about 25 older mo-Lamar furnace was famous for its Lafayette brought General Wash- torists' cards, is held by Milon P mules and Mr. Wolfe described their ington a jack of a third variety, a Walker, of Bellefonte, His number appearance, disposition and origin, Maltese, descended, it is claimed, is 16,450. If your number is lower, "The mules I saw at from the wild ass of Persia. A fourth drop us a card or give us a ring. Lamar, employed at hauling iron variety and the first to be exported TWISTER: and carting charcoal and ore, var- to Pennsylvania, prior to the Revoled from 16 and 17 hands in height, lution, was the African jack, of the while some went as high as a half race of the Onager or Saharan wild what it should be. State College news bigger than horses, except the huge "Old mule handlers at the furconestogas, which had become rare naces where I worked or visited, are to be held in that community my time. Though in every case preferred the product of two Spanhe mother was bigger than the sire, ish types of jacks, out of thorough these mules, except for rare 'throw- bred mares, when obtainable, though backs' or 'runts,' were always bigger today its preferred Canadian, Norman, or Vermont mares or Cleve- WONDER WHY? "Old mule handlers told me how land bays. A few Andalusian jacks, tober 7, at the home of Mr. and you the writer's name, but he asked Mrs. Howard Hawk of Aaronsburg, us not to. Anyhow older residents with the single ring ceremony be- will realize he's an old Bellefonter ing performed by Rev. J. S. Shan-non of Millheim. The home was Livery," which has been out of decorated with fall flowers. Miss existence for many, many years. Pauline Moyer of Bellefonte R. D., and Lloyd Bitner of Howard, at- BIRD-IN-HAND: tended them. After the ceremony a of Beliefonte, and James Yorks, son friends of the couple were enter- of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Yorks, of Spring street, Bellefonte, son of Mr. last Thursday night at the home of were present to continue the cele- ed. Mrs. Price witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Yorks is a junior at Ralston "Red" Derr, of Pleasant pair the fighter and bomber planes of the United States Marine Corps.

(Continued on Page Four)

RECENT WEDDINGS

Wells-Fisher.

Students receive expert and thorough training in every phase of air Street, with about 20 members preside the fighter of Lock Haven, and Lock Haven,

Chandler-Cartwright

her first long dress of a cream color. College, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. GAME: in Johnstown last Wednesday. After keeping in Bellefonte and remained the ceremony a reception was held here for about six months when at the home of the bride's parents. they moved to a farm near Howard Mrs. Chandler, a graduate of the fonte." On the sheet were 30 short they lived until they moved Philipsburg High School, was em-Mrs. Chandler, a graduate of the to Lock Haven about 30 years ago, ployed at the Bellefonte Selective and have been florists nearly all of Service Office until being transtheir married life. Mr. Crider was ferred to the State College office were to tell which street each one reared by his grandparents, Mr. and where she is now chief clerk. Mr. Mrs. Philip Crider, who lived then in the Crider home on West Main the U. S. Army, was honorably discharged last July and has resumed nearby town; a boy's name; goes Edward Hecht. After removing to Lock Haven the Criders established greenhouses which were carried his former position as a guard at Rockview penitentiary. Upon their return from a wedding trip the couple expect to live in State Col- range; part of a bed; popular radio

Houck-Biddle.

fonte, and James Houck, son of tion; a fruit; writer of "Old Iron-Mr. and Mrs. Earl Houck of the sides;" a neighboring valley; a flam-Zettle farm near Pleasant Gap, were ing thoroughfare; a patron saint; married in St Paul's Methodist home of H2O; one who uses thee church. Baltimore, Md., on Sep- and thou Several of them are tough. tember 27, Rev. H. C. Burkin per- See if you can guess them all. formed the ceremony. The couple remained in Baltimore for a week as guests of the bridegroom's uncle. J. C. Houck, and family. They returned to the Houck home in Pleasant Gap where a reception and shower was given for them on Saturday. October 7. Mrs. Houck attended Bellefonte High School and of the army at the end of the war both are active in the Logan Grange. in Europe. The couple is now occupying one of the Zettle cottages while Mr. weekly news conference in response Houck is assisting his father in the to a question as to whether the

Woman's Club To Meet Monday Night

The Bellefonte Woman's Club will meet Monday night, October 23, in the Presbyterian chapel, with the Except for these two limitations, American Home Section in charge of the Army is arranging to return

The principal speaker will be County Agricultural Agent R. C. Blaney of Bellefonte, who will speak provided during a tea which will be served by American Home members. The program begins at 7:45 p, m. and all members are urged to be pres-

Buy War Bonds and keep 'em.

Random ltems

On your Pennsylvania automobile operator's license card, in the upper left hand corner, appears a plate number which has been the same ever since you took out your irst license, provided you got a icense every year. The number represents the numerical order in which you got your first license. We don't know offhand when the first licenses were issued, but it must have been about 1920. Just for fun we'd like to know who has the lowest plate number in Centre county. It could be that Number 1-the first "American breeders sent agents license ever issued in the State—was to Spain, after the Civil War, and issued to a Centre countian. But

Guess maybe our education isn't item during the weekend announced that classes in Dalcroze Eurythmics Now then-real quick-what is or are eurythmies, and don't look in the average dictionary for it won't help

The German Department at Penn State last week advertised and held a free showing of a double feature of German sound film in Room 121 Sparks Building, State College. One film was a movie version of a juvenile classic of adventure in Berlin and the other was a juvenile story set in Vienna and the Tyrolean Alps. Hmm!

PIGEONS, ETC.:

Fred Witmer, Phil Johnston, and and Miss Gladys Weaver. The bride- along Pine Creek the other day, and groom who is employed by the Pi- about noon Witmer landed a 12-inch per Aircraft Corporation at Lock bass. Because they expected to spend Haven, and his bride expect to go the day along the stream Pred de-Mr. and Mrs. Purst P. Crider en- to housekeeping in the near future. cided to keep the fish alive, so he placed it in his creel, submerged the creel in the stream and placed a observance of their golden wedof Mr. and Mrs. Harry Raymond,
and mrs. Harry Raymond,
and mrs. Harry Raymond, went to get his creel and bass. In The creel flew up in the air, the lid came open and the bass, thumbing goes people seem to like what he says as well as the Pennsylvania Dutch accent in which his conversation is held at the Brockerhoff last Wednesday night, they passed out slips of paper headed "Streets of Belle descriptions, each representing a Bellefonte street, and the diners represented. It's fun, so we pilfered speaker; part of a heavenly body; builders of dams; a fish; an old local family name; used for medicinal purposes; a weeping terrace; a daily

SEEN FOR SERVICEMEN

Secretary of War Henry L. Stim son declared recently that no "economic or political factors" will en-The statement was made at his Army planned to delay demobilization to ease the employment situation in this country. "One is the military necessity of retaining sufficient troops in service to quickly and permanently defeat available shipp program. Mrs. W. J. Emerick those eligible for demobilization as be chairman. political factors enter into that Is 89 Years Old.

Miss Catherine M. Fabel, for many years a resident of Lock Haven and one of the few remaining canal boat-women, marked her 89th birth-day at the R. H. Loveland home in Lamar last week, where she has re-