children, and three great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held at her late home on Saturday afternoon with interment in Sunnyside cemetery. Rev. Clarence F. Johnson, of Mill Hill, assisted by the Rev. Ezra L. Parks, of Yeagertown, officiated at the rites.

PLEASANT GAP

Mrs. Cora Noll suffered several attacks Wednesday of last week and has been critically ill ever since. Dr. Black of Lewistown, was called in on Sunday in consultation. Feldman Hamilton of Houtzdale, drove over Sunday for his wife and daughter, Helen Louise, who had been here since last Wednesday due to the serious illness of Mrs. Hamilton's mother, Mrs. Noll. Mrs. Paul Keller was here from Philadelphia a few days last week. Mrs. Hubert Kochs of State College, spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Cora Noll. Ray Melroy and wife and Mrs. Henry Noll attended the funeral of Guy Stover at State College last Thursday. Dick Misner of Bellefonte, who was home from the Navy on furlough, last week called at the H. T. Noll home. We were sorry to hear that Tom Roush, one of our boys in the army in Italy, received shrapnel wounds in both legs and arms and was takby airplane from the scene of action to a hospital where he wrote his parents he will be for a few weeks. We hope he may have a speedy recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Knoffsinger were home from Harrisburg over the weekend. James May is enjoying a furlough from the army with his family and friends. Miss June Eby was a participant in the Halloween parade at Spring Mills Friday evening. Mrs. Ray Melroy and Mrs. H. T. Noll accompanied the former's husband on a business trip to Altoona, Friday. The Girl Scouts held a Halloween party in the Merlin Tate garage on Monday evening. The Girl Scouts have planned to spend the weekend at the Hoover-Noll cabin on Nittany Mountain.
