Page Six

Floyd N. Smith, of Pleasantville, N. OBITUARY J.: Mrs. Lester Condo, of Spring Mills; Mrs. John M. Boob, of Millheim: Bruce of Mifflinburg; Frank,

L. MONROF TOBIAS MILE 25 of this year. An only sisters are: Mrs. Willis Breon, of son, Harry, died during the first son, Harry, died during the first World War. These brothers and sis-died match 25 of this year. An only sisters are: Mrs. Willis Breon, of Spring Mills; Mrs. Charles Miller, of Rebersburg; John Best, of Flem-ington; Charles Best, of Williams-of the Woolrich and a retired employe of the Woolrich woolen Mill where he worked for 22 years. Other sur-he worked for 22 L. MONROE TOBIAS he worked for 22 years. Other sur-vivors include his wife, Margaret: a son, Nathan J., of Media, and a since the death of his wife; and daughter, Mrs. Mary Dinwiddy, of Mrs. Cora Rothrock, of DuBois. Mr. Ridgway; nine grandchildren and Ott was a member of the Reformed Millheim.

two great-grandchildren; also three church and of the Odd Fellow brothers and a sister. Moran and James, of Jersey Shore; and Ellery and Mrs. Clara Snyder, both of Woolrich. Funeral services were held in the home Monday morning and interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services held in the Mathematication. The newlywed at the interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held in the Seattle, Wash., hospital, on interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held in the Seattle, Wash., hospital, on interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held in the Seattle, Wash., hospital, on interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held in the Seattle, Wash., hospital, on interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were held interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were at the home of Andrew Swires at interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were at the home of Andrew Swires at interment was made in the Woolrich funeral services were at the the value funeral services were at the function func brothers and a sister. Moran and Lodge, both of Bellefonte. Funeral interment was made in the Woclrich tory at Pleasant Gap. cemetery.

JAMES R. McSULEY

James R. McSuley of Pittsburgh, ed a position with the Boeing Air- While in school Pfc. Pletcher was the United States Naval Service." HENRY C. WEAVER Henry C. Weaver, 91, retired Bell former Bellefonte resident, died at craft Co. of Seattle. He will be re- a member of the soccer team and Telephone company employe, died his home at 9 p. m. Friday, Novem-in Unionville at 12:30 p. m. Sunday, ber 3, 1944, of complications follow-Snow Shoe and Altoona, where he Blatcher, who on Friday, observed In Unionville at 12:30 p. m. Sunday, ber 5, 1944, of a heart condi-ing a six weeks' illness. Mr. McSuley, tion after being ill five years. He was a brother of the late Misses Carrie, Belle and Ida Weaver, of East How-Divine McSuley, came to Bellefonte with his parents when a child the school and Altoona, where he attended Sacred Heart school and Altoona High School. His late bro-ther. Lieut. Jinmie Kelley, was killed in Corsica on May 6. He is ard street, Bellefonte, Mr Weaver with his parents when a child, He survived by his father and stepwas born on a farm on the Jack- was a painter and paperhanger here mother; two sisters, Mrs. D. Mason sonville road, March 30, 1853, a son until 29 years ago when he went to and Mrs. William Maguire: two half of David and Susannah Bridge Pittsburgh, where he was employed brothers, Robert and Michael; one Weaver. His wife, the former Sus- as a salesman in the rug depart- half sister, Jane, all of Philadelphia. anna Wolfe, died in November, 1916. ment of the Kauffman department

One daugister, Mrs. Emory G. Wolfe, store until his recent illness. Last MRS. JOHN F. BREON of East Howard street, Bellefonte, August he spent a week in Belle-Mrs. Clara G. Breon, of State Colsurvives. He was a member of the fonte. His wife, the former Anna lege, died at her home at 12:15 p. Presbyterian church, Funeral ser- Janes; a step-son, James McSuley, m. Tuesday, November 7, 1944, of a Presbyterian church. Funeral ser-vices were held at the Widdowson funeral home, Bellefonte, at 8 p. m. Joseph and Miss Mary McSuley, Tuesday, with Rev. Harry C. Sten-both of Bellefonte, and four grand-children survive. Funeral services ger, Jr. officiating. Interment was children survive. Funeral services Jane Grolman. She was married on made yesterday morning at Harris- were held early Tuesday morning in March 15, 1898, to John F. Breon Pittsburgh, after which the body was who survives with one daughter, burg.

HUBERT CALVIN IRVIN Hubert Calvin Irvin, born at Penn- Catholic cemetery. sylvania Furnace in 1898, a son of

Calvin and Lottie (Geist) Irvin, died Tuesday morning at his home in Greenwood, Blair county, Surviving Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Bowersox of neral services will be held from the are his widow, Sarah Catherine Ir- Aaronsburg, died at the home of her Koch funeral home, State College, vin; his mother, Altoona; and the daughter, Mrs. Lulu Vonada, also of at 2 p. m. Friday, with Rev. J. F. following children: Mrs. LaRue Aaronsburg, at 6 p. m. Saturday, Harkins, officiating, Interment, will Snively, Altoona; Margaret, Bar- November 4, 1944, after a several take place in Centre County Membara and Thomas, at home; and Sgt. months' illness. Born in Haines orial Park. Friends will be received Ralph Irvin, somewhere in France, township October 29, 1870, she was a at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p

He is also survived by one grand- daughter of Jacob and Mary Stover m. Thursday. son, Foster Snively, Jr., and the Winkleblech, Her husband, William, following sisters and brothers: Mrs. preceded her in death. These chil-MRS. HARRY E. HARPER Alma Calderwood, Mrs. Edith Gram- dren survive: Lester, Mrs. Nora Mrs. Elizabeth M. Harper, of Dix after recovering from shrapnel ley, Mrs. Miriam Miller, Mrs. Dor- Hanselman, and Mrs. Elsie Tyson, Run, near Unionville, died at her wounds received August 7, 1944, on othy Wolfe, Mrs. Mabel Ammer-man, Fred Irvin and Ralph Irvin, Randall, both of Aaronsburg; Mrs. Vonada and ber 6, 1944. Mrs. Harper, who was Pvt. Catherman enlisted in June. Altoona; Mrs. Blanche Barkley, Minnie Orndorf, of Lock Haven; and ill three years with a heart ailment, 1942, about a month before his 18th and George Irvin. Paul, of Coburn. Surviving brothers was 64. Born August 29, 1880. in birthday. On the first of the fol-Vineland, N. J., Bridgeport, O. Mr. Irvin was a loco- and sisters are: Allan Winkleblech, Union township, she was a daugh- lowing October he was inducted into motive fireman on the Middle divi- Lewistown; Curtis and Mrs. Maude ter of Joseph and Margaret Talbert service and sent from New Cumbersion of the Pennsylvania Railroad, Winters, both of Smullton; Mrs. Mitchell, Her husband, Harry E., and land induction center to South Caroa member of the P. R. R. relief, and Lottie Guisewite, of Bellefonte; and the following children survive; H. lina. He also trained at Los Angeles. of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Harry Winkleblech, of Pittsburgh. Dean Harper, of Dennison, Ohio; Calif., and Camp Pickett, Va. He was Engineers and Firemen. He was a Funeral services were held at God's J. Clair, of State College; Lester finally ordered to San Francisco United Brethren by faith. Funeral Missionary church at Wolfe's Store B., of Youngstown, O.; Mrs. James from which point he was sent to services will be held Thursday yesterday afternoon with Rev. Tru- Parsons, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Oahu on the Hawalian Islands. A morning at the Greenwood United man Wise officiating. Interment was Frank Stere, of Unionville; Wesley slort time later he was sent to Brethren church. Burial will be made in the Lutheran Reformed T, and John L. of Baltimore, Md.: Guam where on August 7, 1944, he made at Greenwood. cemetery at Rebersburg. Ralph L., of the U. S. Army in New was wounded by shrapnel, for which

Guinea, and Glenn L, also of the he was awarded the Purple Heart. MRS. FLORA MAE WEAVER U. S. Army. Surviving brothers and Pvt. Catherman is reported to WILLIAM HENRY OTT William Henry Ott, retired car-penter, died at his home on West helm, died at 3:58 a. m. Monday, of Linden; Mrs. James Shirk, of ed to duty with his outfit. High street, Bellefonte, at 10:30 a. November 6, 1944, at the home of her Cedar Springs; Edward J. Mitchell, man McKinley Slight Wounded A télegram from the War Departof Milesburg, officiating. Interment slightly wounded in Germany on will be made in the New Union October 21. The message stated that she would be notified as reports of cemetery. his condition are received. R. C. HERMAN The young corporal, a gunner with R. C. Herman secretary of Philips- the field artillery, is an expert in burg Borough and brother of J. Fred the handling of 155-mm. shells. He Herman of Bellefonte, died unex- das been awarded several medals, pectedly at 8 a. m. Sunday, Novem- including one for good conduct and ber 5, 1944, at his home in Philips- another for expert marksmanship. burg, after suffering a heart attack Cpl. McKinley was called for serwhile listening to the radio, Born at vice in October, 1942, and trained at Oak Hall 64 years ago, he was a son Camp Blanding. Fla., and after of J. S. and Mary Elizabeth Bohn Herman. As a young man he lived in Lemont during the time he taught school in Centre Furnace. About In February of this year he went 1900 he went to Philipsburg, where overseas, landing in England, where he was employed at the Turnbach he trained for the historic invasion Hardware Store and becoming of France on D-Day. He followed the borough secretary about five Allied forces into Belgium, Holland, years ago, was employed by the and finally into Germany. Philipsburg Hardware Company. His He attended the Bellefonte High wife, the former Katura Stump, and School and at the time of entering two children survive. They are: Fred service was employed by the Mc-Herman and Mrs. Mary Milsum, Feely Brick Company at Port Maboth of Philipsburg; three grand- tilda. He has a brother and brotherchildren and the following sisters in-law also in service. They are Pfc. also survive, in addition to his bro- Samuel McKinley, 25, now in Italy. ther in Bellefonte: Miss Nelle Her- and Pvt. Eugene Miller, with an inman, of Aspinwall; Mrs. Paul Noll, fantry division in France. of Pottsville, and Mrs. Fred Kauff-

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PK.

dition to her son, Lawrence: Mrs. Missing Marine Captain Parker Presumed Dead

Recovered From Wound

Pvt. Catherman, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Raymond Cather-

man. Bellefonte, is back on duty

(Continued from page one) (Continued from page one) of Aaronsburg: William, of Coburn; and Lt. Walter H. Weaver, of Camp Chaffee, Ark, Surviving brothers and died March 26 of this year. An only son, Harry, died during the first Spring Mills; Mrs. Charles Miller, Mills Breon, of Spring Mills; Mrs. Charles Miller, I have deal in the Java Sea, February 27, maneuvered his burning destroyer, seriously wounded, and most of the Baina, of Niagara Falls, N. Y. The maneuvered his burning destroyer, seriously wounded, and most of the Baina, of Niagara Falls, N. Y. The maneuvered his burning destroyer, seriously wounded, and most of the Baina, of Niagara Falls, N. Y. The but expected to return to action against the Japanese battle line of though it was almost dead in the was in a fest camp the of the Java Sea, February 27, maneuvered his burning destroyer, seriously wounded, and most of the Baina, of Niagara Falls, N. Y. The but expected to return to action against the Japanese battle line of though it was almost dead in the adding took place at the home of the present to th and was sent to Camp Haan, Cal., two hostile heavy cruisers and seven ing rammed.

for training. Later he transferred light cruisers which forced the Jap- "We had been hit in the fire room East Curtin street, Bellefonte is des- of maroon velvet with shoes to to the infantry and was assigned to anese to break off the attack and and engine room, and were losing ignated in Naval circles as his home. match and an orchid corsage. The position for firing. The Java Sea battle, which cost canal. Is Decorated the Bellefonte officer as a gigantic said two others also hit home." "barroom brawl with all lights out Meanwhile Parker's ship had gone to Niagara Falls, N. Y., where they

'Barroom Brawi'

November 9, 1944

Recent Weddings

Swires-Baina

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Swires, of the Japanese 23 ships off Guadal- range of about 1000 yards. I personwas described afterward by ally saw one explode, and observers dead in the water. Three of her four and everybody swinging."

ADDITIONAL WEDDINGS ON PAGE EIX-BECOND SECTION were able to maneuver into a better that France is somewhat like Pennsylvania, but he would like to be brought to Bellefonte for committal Mrs. Allen Prutzman, of East Mauch services held Tuesday at St. John's Chuak; one son, Theodore F. Breon, of Conway, N. H.; a brother, two sisters, and a grandson. She was a member of the Grace Lutheran church of State College, Private fu-

Classified ads bring results.

MRS. SARAH ELIZABETH BOWERSOX

m. Monday, November 6. 1944. Mr. son, Lawrence H. Weaver in Mill- of Runville: Jacob and Chester, of Ott, who had been ill since July, heim, from complications following Unionville. Twenty-four grandchilwas bedfast two months. Born Feb- a short illness, Mrs. Weaver was dren also survive. She was a member ruary 24, 1862, in Penns Valley, he born in Potter township. Clinton of the Methodist church of Unionwas the son of James A., and Caro- county, a daughter of Stephen and ville. Funeral services will be held ment received Friday by Mrs. Mary line Snyder Ott, and was aged 82 Harriet Krape Best. Her husband, at 2:30 o'clock this Thursday after- McKinley, of Pleasant View, brought years, 8 months and 12 days. His Howard P. Weaver, preceded her in noon at the Unionville Methodist the announcement that her son, Cpl. wife, the former Bella May Keller, death. These children survive in ad- church, with Rev. D. A. Sower, Jr., Norman McKinley, 22, had been

Stormy Weather AHEAD KEEP YOUR FEET WARM AND DRY

ARCTICS - $1.39 Overshoes $1.00	All Rubber Work
Child's and Misses' ARCTICS - $1.29 Overshoes 85c	4-BUCKLE $3.19 DRESS $2.79
Youth's and Boys' ARCTICS - $2.19 Overshoes $1.00	Overshoes DRESS $1.35 WORK $1.49

We will be closed Armistice Day. Open Friday Night until 9 o'clock.

Brown's Boot Shop Bellefonte's Popular Family Shoe Store

Marine Presumed Dead

man, living in Tennessee. He leaves a half-brother, Wade W., of State Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall, of near College. He was a member of the Unionville, who about last Thanks-Masonic lodge and the Consistory of Williamsport. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, with inter-held Tuesday afternoon, with interment in Philipsburg. since November 10, 1943, during the weekend received notice from the MRS. MATTHIAS SHANK Mrs. Julia Shank, former resident f Clarence, died at her home in of any further word of him he is MRS. MATTHIAS SHANK of Clarence, died at her home in Cleveland, Ohio, Monday, November Hall is believed to have Hall is believed to have been sta-6, 1944. Mrs. Shank, who had not tioned on an aircraft carrier in the been well for about two years went South Pacific when he was lost. He to Cleveland to live about 12 years was 22 years old and had been in ago. Born at Snow Shoe, 63 years the service about two years at the ago, she was a daughter of Willard time he was reported missing. Mr. and Nancy Elizabeth Walker Cris-pin. Her husband, Matthias, and these children survive: Kenneth, living in California; Clarence, of New

U. S. Army. One brother and three sisters also survive. They are Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Confer. of Alice Bullock, of Williamsport; Mrs. Spring Mills, were entertained at Maude Bullock, of Jersey Shore; W. their home Friday night, October 27, S. Crispin, of Julian, and Mrs. El- in honor of their silver wedding anlery Lucas, of Bellefonte. She was a niversary.

aber of the Methodist church. Refreshments were served and Mr. The body will arrive in Snow Shoe and Mrs. Confer received a number this morning and will be taken to of gifts.

the Johnson funeral home where Those present were; Mr. and Mrs. services will be held at 2 p. m. Fri-day. Rev. Ralph Schlabig will of- Clarence Crater, Mr. and Mrs. John ficiate, Interment will take place McCool and daughters Betty and in Askey cemetery near Moshannon. Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Confer Friends may call at the funeral and daughter, Norma Jane, and son home from this evening until fu- Doyle, Mr. and Mrs," W. H. Russell and son Harris and daughter, Mrs. neral time.

Richard Harris, and grandson Bud-ADDITIONAL DEATHS ON PAGE BIX-SECOND SECTION die, Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Rishel and Few people turn down an invita-tion to a good meal, anywhere, any-time. daughters Jean and Doris, Allen Sheets, and A. C. Confer, all of Spring Mills: Miss Myrtle Woomer and David Swartz, of Lewistown.