

UNIONVILLE

J. H. Finch, collector of water tax in the borough, wishes to advise all patrons that he will be at his home every night after December 4, with the exception of December 7 and 14, for the purpose of receiving all back rent. Persons who have not as yet paid their water tax must do so before December 15. Please call on Mr. Finch any of the above-mentioned nights.

Miss Kate Smith spent several days the early part of this week visiting with her sisters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bullock and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bechtel of Howard.

Butcherings are still going on in and about the borough. Mike Watson butchered on Tuesday. William Lucas and family assisted his father, E. P. Lucas of Union township, with his butchering on Tuesday and expects to have his own Tuesday of next week.

Joseph Spotts has been confined to his bed for several days. We all hope his complete recovery may be speedy.

The members of the W. C. T. U. were entertained on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Stella Parsons. This was the annual dues paying social.

Miss Clara Hall moved last Wednesday from the Andrew Hall property, into the lower apartment of the McElwain brothers house, formerly the Sam Holt store rooms.

Miss Edith Eckley spent Thanksgiving day in Julian assisting Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Lindemuth with their fall butchering.

Mrs. Sue McEwen was entertained to Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Julia Parsons and family.

Mrs. Paul Holt and little son, Lee, of Lewisburg, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Lucas on Thanksgiving Day were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Homan and daughter Kathleen of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Norman Fisher and two children of this place.

Earl Finkbeiner of Harrisburg visited over the Thanksgiving holiday with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Flick and family.

Lee Emenhizer, who was recently inducted into the U. S. Army, is stationed at a camp in Little Rock, Arkansas, instead of in the state of Kansas, as was stated in last week's items.

Mrs. Howard K. Germain entertained the members of the Wi-Mo-Ma-Sis club at her home last Wednesday evening. They all had a delightful evening together.

Mrs. C. W. Bauder and her daughter, Mrs. Clark Williams, and J. H. Finch, accompanied Forrest Bauder to Coopers Mills last week one day and spent the day with the former's sister, Mrs. Dora Stonebraker and her husband. She is also a sister of Mr. Finch. Mrs. Stonebraker is not so good and her many friends here hope for her a most speedy recovery.

Mrs. Howard K. Germain and Mrs. Anna S. Elway enjoyed their Thanksgiving dinner at the Penn-Belle hotel in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Charles Dickson, nee Marian Flick, received a telegram last week that her husband, Pvt. Charles Dickson, has been wounded in battle in Germany. We trust his wounds are not serious and that better news will come soon.

Our good friend, "Allie" Spotts of Huston township, celebrated his 80th birthday on Sunday with nothing special except a good dinner prepared by his good wife, "Cora." Congratulations "Allie" and may you have many more birthdays to come.

We are pleased to report the condition of Mrs. Allie Hall is much improved since her serious illness last week. She is still confined to her bed but hopes to be able to be up before many days. Her many friends and neighbors are glad she is improving and trust her complete recovery may be speedy.

Methodist Church: Prayer service on Thursday evening. Sunday school Sunday morning at the regular hour, immediately followed by the preaching service at 10:45, with sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. A. Sower. Youth Fellowship in the evening at 6:30.

Free Methodist Church: Special evangelistic services are being conducted in the church all this week, having started last week, the evangelist being Rev. Howard Van Valin, former resident of this community. Services will continue until the end of this week.

The annual "Josh Chest" day will be observed in the Methodist church Sunday evening, Dec. 10, at which time an effort will be made to clean up the church debt which is not so great but one that must be cleaned off the records. We trust each person will place their contribution in the chest that day.

Mrs. Hannah Way and daughter Miriam, of Milesburg, spent the past weekend with her mother, Mrs. Orrie M. Holt of this place.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held in the church this Thursday evening after the prayer service. We trust there will be a good attendance as there is considerable business to transact, along with the annual election of officers. The social time will be held on December 13th in the form of a Christmas party.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Young Women's Sunday school class, taught by J. H. Finch, will be held Wednesday evening, Dec. 6, at the home of Mrs. B. E. Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bauder of Juniata, were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bauder, and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Williams.

Rev. Howard Van Valin, who resides at Brackenridge, and is district elder of the Butler district of the Pittsburgh conference, while holding special evangelistic services in the Free Methodist church here the past couple weeks, took a little time out to visit the old hunting grounds where he hunted while a lad in this community, and was out but a short time when he returned with a nice wild turkey. He has placed the turkey in cold storage until his return home when he and the family will enjoy a real turkey dinner. Congratulations, Howard, and best of luck to you in your future efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. McElwain were recent visitors with relatives and friends in Harrisburg and Philadelphia.

More workers are needed for making bandages for the Red Cross. Some of our women have been faithful in giving of their time each week for this work, but more are needed in order to put out the work fast enough. Every Wednesday from 10 a. m. until 10 p. m. the Red Cross room is open at Mrs. Lewis Peters in Central City, and all day Thursday at the I. O. O. F. hall in Milesburg.

If any women in our community can give several hours or half-a-day a week towards this, it will be much appreciated, for this is a big war and our boys have and are sacrificing so much, that those of us at home can live in a peaceful country, and this is one of the most needful services we can perform.

Leaves of the Past—Jan. 30, 1908. Mrs. Margaret Brueger couldn't imagine what ailed her buckwheat cakes. The batter wouldn't rise and the cakes were tough as sole leather.

As she picked up the Centre Democrat she discovered by the slip that her subscription was due. "Here, Cornelius," she said, "take this dollar down right away and have my subscription renewed." Next morning the buckwheat batter "ris" right up out of the crock, and was running all over the table, and Out the delicious cakes, light as a sponge. "Now Corney," she said, "you watch that slip and don't let that happen again."

Col. Mill Peters still continues to furnish the town with electric light.

On last Saturday evening at 7:30, Harold Fisher, who had been "up town" and who was accompanied by his best girl, entered his home to meet the surprise of his life. As he and his best girl were ushered into the parlor by his mother, the lights were suddenly turned on and a score or two of jolly young friends of his acquaintance gave out such a yell as would do credit to a band of Comanches. It was the occasion of his 19th anniversary of his birthday. Of course, Harold was too brave to faint but he looked very pale and some suggested that a doctor be sent for, but after the truth dawned on him he recovered himself and was ready to join the jollity of the evening.

Bushels of good things had been prepared for the occasion, and according to general reports, they were greatly enjoyed by all present. Notwithstanding, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spangler of Bellefonte, were there, there was an abundance for all. It was a red letter day for Harold, and all expressed their sincere wishes that he may live to enjoy the return of many more such happy birthdays.

MARTHA

Mr. Berry and daughter Ruth of Sandy Ridge, assisted his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merl Fink with their butchering on Thanksgiving Day.

While one enemy remains our job is not done!

Let's all get behind the greatest march in history—the march to Tokyo—and victory!

On countless invasion fronts, thousands of your fighting men are taking up the battle cry: "On to Tokyo!" We've got to back them up with what it takes for complete victory. Remember, the supply lines in the Pacific are long and your fighting men will need more material than was required for the entire European invasion to crush the Jap foe.
