RECENT WEDDINGS

Sheasley—Andrews
Mrs. Jessie Wilson Andrews, of Flemington, announces the marriage of her daughter, Jessie Russell, to S 1/2 William Almon Sheasley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Almon A. Sheasley, of Salona, R. D. The wedding was solemnized Nov. 29 at 2 p. m. at the manse of the Mill Hill Presbyterian church by the Rev. Carl C. Gray, the double ring ceremony being used. The couple was attended by Miss Emma Kerstetter of Tyndersville, and Aiden Long of Mill Hall, R. D. 1. After a short wedding trip the couple spent a week, the bridegroom's leave from U. S. Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Ill., with his parents.

Everhart—Gilliland
Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Gilliland of Oak Hill announce the marriage of their daughter, Nan, to Robert Everhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everhart, of State College, R. D., which took place in the bride's home Saturday evening, November 25. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick of Coalport. Miss Louise Gilliland, sister of the bride, of Washington, D. C., was maid of honor and J. C. Meyer, Jr., of State College R. D. was best man. After a reception held at the Gilliland home the couple left on a several days wedding trip. Mrs. Everhart was graduated from the State College High School and Thompson Business College in Harrisburg. She had been employed for two years by the War Department in the Pentagon building, Washington, D. C. and is now employed on the Campus at Penn State. Mr. Everhart is a graduate of State College High School and is employed on his father's farm. The couple will reside in State College.

Hazel—Victory
Lt. (jg) Michael Hazel, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hazel, of Bellefonte, and Miss Nell Victory, of Gladewater, Texas, were married in the chapel at the military reservation at Ft. Myers, Washington, D. C. at 4 p. m. Saturday. Rev. John Byrnes, post chaplain, officiated at the ceremony after which a reception for about 50 guests was held at the home of the bridegroom's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klesius, of Alexandria, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Klesius attended them. Until recently the bride had been teaching home economics in the Gladewater High School. Lt. Hazel is a graduate of St. John's Parochial School, Bellefonte High School and Penn State in the class of 1939. Immediately after his graduation he entered the employ of the Oil Well Supply Company and was in Longview, Texas, until enlisting in the Navy in November of last year, and has been stationed since then in Washington, D. C. Lt. Hazel and his bride are now occupying a furnished house at Hyattsville, Md. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hazel and Mr. Hazel's sister, Mrs. Charles Smith, all of Bellefonte, were present.

Local Couple Wedded 50 Years

are 29 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren. It is worthy to note that in the entire connection only one death has occurred in these many years.
Mr. Teaman has been active in both church and civic work. He has been superintendent of the Evangelical Lutheran Church Sunday School for over 33 years and has to date served two terms as Councilman of the Borough of Bellefonte.
Few communities can boast of such a remarkable couple who are even today the active hosts to the many children who gather almost every Sunday to be with "Mom and Dad." "Grandpa and Grandma." Mother Teaman is still the best cook and bakes the grandest pies and cakes and Father Teaman continues to get up before daylight every day to take charge of the chemical section of the local match company where he has lost less than a month of work due to any cause in over 50 years.

Mackeyville Man Wounded
Pfc. Sheldon Bitner was seriously wounded in France on Nov. 15, the War Department last week informed his wife, Mrs. Faye M. Bitner of Mackeyville.
