

The Centre Democrat.
BELLEFONTE, PENNA.

WALKER BROTHERS, Proprietors
A. C. DERR, Editor
PAUL M. DUBBS, Associate Editor
CECIL A. WALKER, Business Manager

ISSUED WEEKLY EVERY THURSDAY MORNING
Entered in the Postoffice at Bellefonte, Pa., as Second-Class Matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
Within Centre County
$1.50 per year, payable in advance
Outside of Centre County
$2.00 per year, payable in advance

Rate to Soldiers
$1.50 per year, $1.00 for 6 months, within the U. S.
$2.00 per year, $1.25 for 6 months, outside the U. S.

The date your subscription expires is plainly printed on the label bearing your name. All credits are given by a change on the date of label the first issue of each month. We send no receipts unless upon special request. Watch date on your label after you remit.

Matters for publication, whether news or advertising, must reach The Centre Democrat office not later than Tuesday noon to insure publication that week. Advertising copy received after Tuesday morning must run its changes. All reading notices marked (*) are advertisements for the per line each issue. Legal notices and all real estate advertisements are not notifying us, are liable for name.

All subscriptions will be continued unless otherwise directed.

CIRCULATION OVER 7,000 COPIES EACH WEEK
Member American Press Association
National Editorial Association

Sunday School Lesson

THE GROUND OF UNIVERSAL JOY
International Sunday School Lesson
for December 24, 1944.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people."—Luke 2: 10.

Lesson Text: Luke 2: 8-12; Hebrews 1: 1-4; 1 John 1: 1-4.

For some time now, everyone has been thinking about and making preparation for Christmas. All over the country, schools have been dismissed, college students have returned home and, in some instances, members of the armed forces have been given leave in order that they might spend the Christmas holiday season with their loved ones. This will be a joyous season for many, but we should remember that it will be a sorrowful season for numbers of others.

For weeks the newspapers have been urging us to mail our gifts early to our loved ones and friends early because the congestion of the mails may cause such a delay in distribution of Christmas parcels that these loved ones and friends may have no Christmas. But don't you think we should analyze that idea a little? Does Christmas joy depend absolutely and wholly on holiday gifts or food? Haven't we, through our observance of Christmas, gone somewhat astray and lost, along the way, the real meaning of Christmas?

The scripture passage from Luke, giving us the story of the birth of the Saviour, is one of the most beautiful passages in the Bible and one we have known since early childhood. Luke, the physician, gives many of the intimate details of his birth in the crowded inn, the swaddling clothes, the manger, the shepherds in the field, the angels' announcement, the angelic chorus, and the visit of the shepherds. The story is so familiar that we are apt to overlook its real significance—the message the angel brought to the world.

What was the angel's message? "For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." There could be no Christmas had there been no Saviour sent. And what is a Saviour? He is one who saves or delivers.

The Jews, captives of the Roman Government, had been looking and longing for one who would free them from their bondage. A Messiah had been promised and the faithful were still expecting that promise to be fulfilled.

Front Line dispatches tell us of the enemy dead; it takes the casual messages to tell us of our own losses.

WITH our Christmas Greeting to you goes our sincere hope that Total Victory and a lasting and happy peace will come soon to all.

Goldman's Food Market
Brockerhoff Hotel Bldg. Bellefonte, Pa.

PINE GROVE MILLS

After 4 days hang-up for drifted roads our school buses were all on hand for Monday morning school time.

Farmer William Gardner has been housed up for a few days on account of a nasty case of gripple.

Charles Bloom of the U. S. Army, is enjoying a furlough at the Bloom home on South Water street.

The annual Christmas service of the Bellefonte Presbyterian Sunday school will be held Friday, Dec. 22 at 8 p. m. Meek's Methodist service is Thursday evening, Dec. 21 at 7:45 o'clock.

The big-hog belt so far this butchering season goes to Willis Schilling who cut up three extra nice ones last Thursday. Dick Irvin and wife of Harrisburg, came up for the occasion. The porkers on foot weighed just about 1700 pounds.

Jimmy Burwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Burwell, was guest of honor at a party given by his parents at their East Main street home last Monday evening, in honor of Jimmy's 6th birthday. Many useful gifts were received. Games were enjoyed through the evening. Choice refreshments were served to friends present as follows: Paul and Faye Kocher, Lois and Patsy Gearhart, John Randolph, Paul and Paula Sunday, Edna Schilling, Peggy Burwell, and Mrs. Mary Miller of State College.

Cards to their home folks last week report safe landings in Italy of Lee Harpster and Billy Cori.

Ivan Dodd, of the U. S. AAF, stationed at Lincoln, Neb., for some time, is home on furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dodd, just in time for his share of the deer or deer hunt.

Farmer Dick Fye is manipulating a new Allis-Chalmers tractor purchased from the Johnston Bros. agency.

To all our readers a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year along with the wish that all our soldier boys will be home real soon to stay.

Hert Poust, an employe of Penn State dairy barns, is off duty nursing a broken wrist caused by a fall from a hay rack.

Seaman John L. Gearhart recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Gearhart, John was prominent in the Normandy invasion on his last of many trips overseas and was seriously wounded. After three months in a naval hospital he is now employed in the Brooklyn shipyards with an honorable discharge from the Navy.

Mrs. Maude Irvin Meyers has closed her State College home and gone west to spend the winter at the home of her brother, George Irvin in California. The Irvins were formerly residents of Ferguson township.

One of our young dairymen, Chalmers Weiland, was laid up the past week with a severe case of the gripple.

"Dick" Markle and Jack Strouse with their Allis-Chalmers tractors and snow plow were busy last week on our supervisors.

Walker Brothers of the U. S. Army, is home on his Christmas furlough, and with his bride of Port Royal, Pa., are enjoying their honeymoon at the farm home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Colpeter.

We have an inkling of a fashionable wedding over the holiday season, already permitted by Santa Claus.

Mrs. Edna B. Gilliland expects to close her home this week and go to Rockaway, N. J., to spend the winter months with her son, Prof. Ernest Gilliland and wife.

J. Clayton Cori assisted with the annual butchering last Friday at the Charles Strouse home.

On account of the heavy snow our second grade school teacher, Miss Mabel Bressler, spent the past week with her friends in town.

Says Mrs. Flanagan to Mrs. Murphy

"Between the heat of the day—
And the heat of the night—
And the heat of me and the heat of Mike—
And Mike in bed with his stinkin' feet—
And me in bed with the heat—
And the baby in bed on one side—
And why am I tellin' you all this, Mrs. Murphy?"

Little Willie Gets 'The Bird'

Little Willie, on a picnic, strayed away from his parents and got lost in the nearby woods. He wandered aimlessly for several hours, and finally, became frightened. He decided to pray. "Dear Lord," he prayed as he spread his hands upward fervently. "I'm lost, please help me find my way out of here."

As he stood in this fashion with half-closed eyes, a bird happened to fly overhead, and something dropped squarely into the middle of little Willie's outspread palm.

"Oh, please, Lord," he begged. "Don't hand me that . . . I'm not kiddin'; I'm really and truly lost."

We Know It's a Horrid Word, But—

(They still do it down in Arkansas)
Around the stove we sit and spit—
In Abner Jenkins' store;
We sit and spit and spit and sit
And then we spit some more.
Sometimes we change things 'round a bit
In Abner Jenkins' store;
We spit and spit and spit and spit
And then we spit some more.

The Chinese Way

An aged Chinese servant proudly displayed to his employer pictures he had just received from China of a very nice looking Chinese girl and two babies; his wife and two sons he boasted.

"Are you kidding?" cried his puzzled employer. "You've been in this country for the past twenty years."

"Yes, yes, me know," explained the oriental, "but me got velly good friend in China."

Natural Growth

Tom, Jack and Pat had stolen a horse, a cow and a cart. They had been conducted to the police station. The officer in charge first turned to Tom, inquiring how long he had had the horse. "Ever since it was a colt," said Tom.

Next the officer turned to Jack, asking how long he had had the cow. "Ever since it was a calf," replied Jack.

Finally Pat was asked how long he had had the cart. Pat looked puzzled and began scratching his head. At last he cried, "Faith and begory—ever since it was a wheelbarrow."

A Near Accident

"We weren't doing anything like 30, your honor; we may have been hitting it up a little when we struck the hill, but we were down to twenty miles within two car lengths."

Next Witness—"We never went faster than fifteen miles an hour, your honor, and when we came to the cross-roads we slowed down to ten."

Defendant—"We were practically at a standstill when the officer came up."

The Court—"I'll have to stop this thing right now or you will be backing into someone—you're fixed $50."

She Knew

An army officer was showing his fair guest about the camp grounds, when a loud shout came. "What's that for?" the fair one inquired.

"That's tattoo," the officer explained.

"Oh, I understand," she remarked. "I've often seen it on soldiers' arms, but I didn't know they had a special time for doing it."

He Just Remembered

A country minister was preaching a sermon on adultery. He was aware, he stated, that the footsteps of some of his own brethren had slipped and were making calls on the wives of neighbors.

One of his congregation suddenly got up and started out of the church. The minister asked him why he was leaving so suddenly; and it was because he was embarrassed and self-conscious about the sermon.

"No," replied the man. "It's just not the sermon. I just remembered where I left my umbrella last night."

She Surrenders

Shovelrunner Ike—"Why is it you have so many boy friends?"
Blondie—"I give up."

Progressive Boy Friend

Molly—"Why do you call your boy friend Pilgrim?"
Poily—"Because every time he calls he makes a little progress."

Inexperienced

Down in Texas the short cotton crop forces a large number of country negroes to the cities. One of them applied for a job at one of the large employment agencies.

"There's a job at the Eagle Laundry," said the man behind the desk. "Want it?"

The applicant shifted uneasily from one foot to the other. "Tell you how it is, boss, he said finally. "I sure want a job bad, but de fact is, I ain't never washed a eagle."

Before Each Meal

Wife—"You said you were hungry for my love, yet you just kicked the maid."
Hubby—"Shucks, darling. She was just an appetizer."

And a Lot of Them

The class in natural history was reciting. Finally the teacher asked, "Where is the home of the swallow?"
Long silence and then a hand waved. "Robert, you may answer."
"The home of the swallow," declared Robert seriously. "is in the stummick."

Nothing Serious

Insurance Salesman—"You look like a good risk, Mrs. Malone, but will you tell me what your father died of?"
Mrs. Malone—"Oh can't rightly remember as to that, sur, but sure it was nothin' serious."

Obeying Orders

A nervous but determined fookie was on guard for the first time in his life. A dark form approached him.
"Halt!" he cried in a threatening tone. "Who are you?"
"The officer of the day."
"Advance!"
The officer advanced, but before he had proceeded half a dozen steps the sentry again called "Halt."
"This is the second time you have halted me," observed the officer. "What are you going to do next?"
"Never you mind what I'm gonna do. My orders are to call 'halt' three times, then shoot."

New Kind of Art

A prospective customer entered an art shop.
"I want to see some of those pictures that are done by scratching," he said to the clerk.
The clerk thought a moment, and then his face lighted up. "Oh, yes," he said, "you mean itchin'g."

It Couldn't Have Been

A well dressed man, cigar in hand, falling through the air from an airplane, was heard to exclaim: "My good, That wasn't the washroom after all."

A Changed Man

Haughty House Wife—"Aren't you the same man I gave a piece of mince pie to last month?"
Tramp (chitterly)—"No, mum, I ain't; and wo's more, the doctor says I never will be."

That's all, folks

When a girl is big as a house it costs a lot to get her plastered. —BOAT

THE OFFICE CAT
"A Little Nonsense Now and Then, is Relished by the Wisest Men"

Says Mrs. Flanagan to Mrs. Murphy
"Between the heat of the day—
And the heat of the night—
And the heat of me and the heat of Mike—
And Mike in bed with his stinkin' feet—
And me in bed with the heat—
And the baby in bed on one side—
And why am I tellin' you all this, Mrs. Murphy?"

Little Willie Gets 'The Bird'
Little Willie, on a picnic, strayed away from his parents and got lost in the nearby woods. He wandered aimlessly for several hours, and finally, became frightened. He decided to pray. "Dear Lord," he prayed as he spread his hands upward fervently. "I'm lost, please help me find my way out of here."

We Know It's a Horrid Word, But—
(They still do it down in Arkansas)
Around the stove we sit and spit—
In Abner Jenkins' store;
We sit and spit and spit and sit
And then we spit some more.
Sometimes we change things 'round a bit
In Abner Jenkins' store;
We spit and spit and spit and spit
And then we spit some more.

The Chinese Way
An aged Chinese servant proudly displayed to his employer pictures he had just received from China of a very nice looking Chinese girl and two babies; his wife and two sons he boasted.

Natural Growth
Tom, Jack and Pat had stolen a horse, a cow and a cart. They had been conducted to the police station. The officer in charge first turned to Tom, inquiring how long he had had the horse. "Ever since it was a colt," said Tom.

A Near Accident
"We weren't doing anything like 30, your honor; we may have been hitting it up a little when we struck the hill, but we were down to twenty miles within two car lengths."

She Knew
An army officer was showing his fair guest about the camp grounds, when a loud shout came. "What's that for?" the fair one inquired.

He Just Remembered
A country minister was preaching a sermon on adultery. He was aware, he stated, that the footsteps of some of his own brethren had slipped and were making calls on the wives of neighbors.

She Surrenders
Shovelrunner Ike—"Why is it you have so many boy friends?"
Blondie—"I give up."

Progressive Boy Friend
Molly—"Why do you call your boy friend Pilgrim?"
Poily—"Because every time he calls he makes a little progress."

Inexperienced
Down in Texas the short cotton crop forces a large number of country negroes to the cities. One of them applied for a job at one of the large employment agencies.

Before Each Meal
Wife—"You said you were hungry for my love, yet you just kicked the maid."
Hubby—"Shucks, darling. She was just an appetizer."

And a Lot of Them
The class in natural history was reciting. Finally the teacher asked, "Where is the home of the swallow?"

Nothing Serious
Insurance Salesman—"You look like a good risk, Mrs. Malone, but will you tell me what your father died of?"

Obeying Orders
A nervous but determined fookie was on guard for the first time in his life. A dark form approached him.

New Kind of Art
A prospective customer entered an art shop.

It Couldn't Have Been
A well dressed man, cigar in hand, falling through the air from an airplane, was heard to exclaim: "My good, That wasn't the washroom after all."

A Changed Man
Haughty House Wife—"Aren't you the same man I gave a piece of mince pie to last month?"

That's all, folks
When a girl is big as a house it costs a lot to get her plastered. —BOAT

Back in the 'Good Old Days'

(Continued from page one)
"A fierce," by the way, is a cask between a barrel and a hog's head. The same low prices prevailed.

Bishop street seemed to be the favorite location for thirst emporiums, of which there were many. A number of them flourished just within the shadow of the Temperance Hotel which, by reason of its name and character, lent an air of respectability to the street.

A number of out-of-town advertisers evidently found a market in Bellefonte. For instance, Mrs. Simmons of Lock Haven offered "200 barrels of fish; 200 barrels of liquor (cheap, too); 50 boxes of chewing tobacco; 100,000 segars (oh, my!), and a large lot of salt." Cigars would cost you about one cent each.

Reuben Keller of Centre Hall, who conducted a general store, offered to take produce in exchange for clothing, and asked that you "call, behold and believe!"

Through the maze of miscellaneous, editorial and advertising matter filling the pages we find two items of news.

Through the imperfection of one of the flues a fire broke out in the Catholic church at this place on Saturday before Christmas, which threatened for a time the destruction of the building. Through the exertions of some of our citizens it was extinguished however before any serious damage was done.

The Teachers' Institute which held its annual meeting at Howard last week was well attended. We had not received a report of the proceedings, and consequently cannot give them to our readers.

Sorting through the professional cards are found the familiar names of many prominent families. Among these are: McAllister & Beaver, attorneys, who individually were H. N. McAllister and James A. Beaver; J. D. Shugert, attorney; Harry Y. Stitzer, attorney; W. H. Latimer, attorney; Orvis & Alexander, attorneys; the firm consisting of John H. Orvis and Cyrus T. Alexander; A. O. Furst, attorney; Dr. Wingate of Pine Grove Mills gave his attention to dental work; Andrew Wolfe of Millsburg was quoted as a "horned auctioneer."

The court proclamation called for a two-weeks session to begin January 29, 1945. It was issued by the present of the Hon. Samuel Linn, president judge, and John S. Proudfoot and Samuel Strohecker, associate judges, and by direction of Sheriff Richard Conley.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county was scheduled to be held at the home of John Spangler, Centre Hall. George Buchanan was president of the organization.

In comparison with present-day war prices, the bellefonte markets in Civil War days were dropping wheat at $2.40, rye, $1.60, corn, $1.00, $1.50, potatoes, $2.50 a bushel; pork, 15c; butter, 40c; eggs, 25c.

Nearly every business place in Bellefonte was represented in the advertising columns. George Livingston conducted a book store in the "Brockerhoff Row" S. A. McQuisdon a carriage manufacturing in the rear of Cummings livery stable, Henry P. Harris a furniture store on the north side of the Diamond, W. W. McClelland, who had recently suffered loss by fire, had again established his gent's furnishing store in the Army building on the northwest corner of the Diamond, Lyons & Loeb announced a 20 to 40 per cent reduction in clothing, among the articles advertised being hoop skirts.

John S. Lemberger was the leading tinmith and stove merchant with shop and store on Bishop street. G. W. Patton conducted a jewelry store and kept the tinplates of the town in good repair. J. H. Myers, implement dealer, had just moved his establishment to Bishop street, and invited farmers to call and be "astonished at witnessing the operation of Mumma's celebrated improved straw and fodder cutter and masticator, and the Star corn sheller. We warrant if any of those implements are in existence today." Hoffer Brothers' general merchandise store occupied a location in the "Iron Front" building on Main street. (The writer supposes Main street was that thoroughfare now known as Allegheny street, but is lost on trying to locate the "Iron Front" building.) Burns's store at the northwest corner of the Diamond, apparently carried the widest selection of goods in town. One could buy anything from groceries and fruits to shot and powder and fishing tackle. Also located at the northwest corner of the Diamond was the firm of Bax-stresser & Crist, leading hardware merchants.

The hotels were the Cummings House on Bishop street, R. D. Cummings, proprietor; The Garman Hotel, opposite the Court House, with Daniel Garman, proprietor; The Conrad House, Main street, J. B. Butts, proprietor. Other hotels catering to the public through the advertising columns were The Hubbersburg Hotel, J. H. Morrison, proprietor; the Fallon House, Lock Haven, E. W. Bigney, proprietor, and the United States Hotel, Williamsport.

Patent medicine ads of various and devious descriptions flashed their cure-alls throughout the pages of the old newspapers, leaving one to conclude that the "snake" was at its height.

This is the time of the year when we usually send out advance greetings to the timeliness of resolutions for the New Year.

LAZY LIVER

May move weakness which results in indigestion, flatulency, nervousness and general debility.

Leubert's Laxative Tablets

Are a purely vegetable combination, which if taken according to directions, stimulate the liver and generally produce a good laxative effect. Take according to simple precautionary directions, should be used several times a day.

G. Leubert, P.O., Conoverville, Pa.

Query & Answer Column

F. W.—How is the war directly responsible for laundry supply shortages?
Ans.—It takes 31 pounds of soap to make synthetic rubber for tires of an eight-wheeled 2 1/2-ton truck.

B. M.—What is the population of Coimar, France, now in the fighting zone?
Ans.—46,000. Prewar, industries include textiles, cotton, wool, silk thread, starch, machinery, leather goods.

L. A. K.—Why does lemon juice go well with fried dishes and salads?
Ans.—Its acid attack cellulose and saponify oil and make the food easier to digest.

P. R.—Where do we get the word commando?
Ans.—It's a Portuguese word adopted by the Boers—a unit "commandered" for military expeditions against the natives.

W. A. B.—What is a week-end pass and how many days does it include?
Ans.—It may vary in length.

G. D. H.—If a man gets an honorable discharge with Certificate of Disability, is he entitled to compensation or anything?
Ans.—If the disability was incurred in or aggravated by his active service, it may be compensable. The man should consult the nearest office of the Veterans Administration. He has all other rights also to which veterans are entitled.

Soldier—Has there been a law passed that all veterans of World War II will get a bonus?
Ans.—No "bonus" legislation has been passed.

K. McL.—Do animals foretell the coming of earthquakes by some peculiarity of action?
Ans.—Animals are said to show a restlessness for hours preceding an earthquake. Catfish are particularly sensitive to coming shocks and swim away from the place of approaching activity. Birds also have been observed to show alarm.

R. B. N.—What is the number of public library books per capita in the United States?
Ans.—The American Library Association reports that for the country as a whole there is less than one book per capita, the actual figure being .87. Figures range from 3.58 in New Hampshire to .15 in Mississippi.

F. B. W.—Are there any railroads in Albania?
Ans.—The country was long without a railway but a short line inland from Durazzo was reported to have been constructed by the Italians in 1940 during their occupation of the country.

S. R. V.—Who invented the expression New Deal?
Ans.—American Nicknames says that the term was invented by Dr. Samuel L. Rosenman during the early days of the Roosevelt campaign for the presidency.

E. W. D.—What is the present daily cost of the war?
Ans.—The cost is approximately $250,000,000 a day.

W. T.—What is the density of population of the District of Columbia?
Ans.—With a land area of 61 square miles and an estimated population of 289,923, including armed forces stationed there, the density of population of the District of Columbia is 4,750 per square mile.

L. E. P.—Where did the cannons in Lafayette Square in Washington come from?
Ans.—They were captured by General Jackson in an expedition against the Spanish in Florida in 1818. The cannons were made by Joseph Barnola, of Barcelona, Spain; two in 1748 and two in 1773. Each one has a name. Two are named for Visigothic Kings—El Egica and Witiza. Two are named for Greek gods—El Apolo and Aristides.

N. E. T.—What is a "widow's walk"?
Ans.—It is the railed-in balcony which is often seen on the roof of old New England seashore homes. Here the wives of seafaring men were accustomed to watch for the return of their husbands.

A. E. L.—What proportion of the vote in the recent presidential election was cast by women?
Ans.—Women cast 56.3 per cent of the total vote. This was the first time that women outnumbered men in the ballot.

L. K. B.—Was Bob Fitzsimmons an American citizen?
Ans.—The Australian born pugilist was naturalized in 1895.

A. C. C.—Has the United States the largest Navy in the world?
Ans.—The United States Navy is the largest in the world. According to a statement made by Rear Admiral Earle W. Mills, assistant chief of the Bureau of Ships, the end of this year will see the United States Navy's fighting fleets at greater strength than that of all the fleets of the world combined.

MARTHA

Mrs. George Fink of Phillipsburg, is visiting at the home of her son, Lester.

Mrs. Joseph Williams returned home a week ago Wednesday from Benson's sanatorium, Phillipsburg, where she was a surgical patient for two weeks.

N. B. Stiver thinks that he is a lucky hunter. On Friday he went in the hills on his farm and in an hour from the time he left home he killed a six-point buck and had it hung up.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Williams and three little daughters of Lemont, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Williams on Sunday.

Harold Cronister left on Saturday for Williamsport, where he will visit his sister, Mrs. Julia Crider.

Mr. and Mrs. Merl Alexander and sons, Jack and Terry, of Tyrone, spent Sunday at the home of N. R. Stiver.

Cpl. Robert Henry, who has been enjoying a two-weeks furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Henry, and also his many friends here, returned on Saturday to his camp at Kairua, Utah.

RUNVILLE

The Christmas program will be given by our young people on Sunday evening, Dec. 24, at 7:30, at which time they will make an offering to the Church Orphanage.

The U. B. church will begin their evangelistic services on Sunday evening, Dec. 31, and continue for two weeks. Every body welcome.

Floyd Davis is on the sick list and under the doctor's care at this writing.

W. A. Walker is still on the sick list.

Miss Ruth Furl was stricken ill and was taken to the Lock Haven hospital last Thursday.

Ernest Fye shot an eight-point buck last Friday near Runville.

Florida this Season?
then by all means see
SILVER SPRINGS
FLORIDA'S UNDERWATER FAIRLAND
WRITE BOX ONE, SILVER SPRINGS, FLORIDA
FOR FREE UNDERWATER PHOTO STORY

BEST WISHES

CHURCH bells ring gaily this joyous holiday, expressing better than we can say, the merry Christmas greetings we have for each and everyone.

Levine's
Allegheny Street Bellefonte, Pa.