We kept the price of electricity low, in spite of war, and you can be sure it'll stay low in peace.

The sooner we win the war the sooner we can all enjoy the comforts of electric living.

Let's do that first.

HOLTS HOLLOW

We are having real winter weather with lots of snow. We hope we will have a "white Christmas."

Several deer were killed in the hills around this vicinity during the hunting season. The lucky hunters were Lee Johnson, who got a 4-point; Lee Johnson, Jr., a 9-point; Dick Johnson, a 6-point; Orvis Watson, a 3-point; and Roy Leathers, a 6-point. Arthur Burd helped his brother, Milford, kill a nice buck.

A very enjoyable birthday supper was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Watson on Sunday evening in honor of their daughter, Elva's 4th birthday. Guests were Mrs. Mary Kelley and daughter Gladys, Earl Harter, Mr. and Mrs. George Leis and son Donald, all of Bellefonte. Roy Shesley also was a Sunday caller at the Watson home.

Miss Doris Leathers spent the weekend in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs. Frank Dreese.

Mrs. Fred Watson and three children left Sunday night to spend the holidays at her parental home in Warren, Ohio.

Mrs. Mary Kelley spent Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Orvis Watson. Ralph Kelley spent Friday night at the Watson home.

Incidentally, anyone who may get stranded just call on Mary Kelley. Her car doesn't stall even on the steepest hill, does it Orvis?

A Christmas program will be given at the church next Sunday morning at the regular preaching hour. Everyone welcome to this service.

If any of our boys in the service are so lucky as to receive the Centre Democrat, we take this means of telling you that you are not forgotten at this Christmas season. We are still praying for you at the little white church on the hill, and hope that you will all be with us again next year at Christmas time.

Merry Christmas to all.

WOODWARD

Miss Lulu Bartges was the guest of her friend, Mrs. Kenneth Orndorf on Friday.

After having spent a delightful 21-day furlough with his relatives and friends here and in Millheim, Cpl. and Mrs. Earl Brindle and son, Earl, Jr., left for his post of duty at Ellington Field, Texas, Saturday afternoon. We were glad to greet him and family while here. His wife is a native of Houston, Texas.

lilled please notify the Woodward scribe. Pfc. and Mrs. Lewis Paulhamus of Selinsgrove, were Wednesday and per guests of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Fiedler. Pfc. Paulhamus is located at an army camp in the state of Montana and is home on a furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Musser of Bellefonte, were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Fiedler and E. W. Motz. We were certainly glad to greet them. They told us of the serious illness of his father, E. H. Musser, who is confined to his bed in the Centre County Home suffering from hardening of the arteries and softening of the brain. Our sympathy is extended to the family.

Remember next Sunday's Evangelical church program: Sunday school at 9:15 a. m., and a Christmas pageant entitled "Seven Christmas Stockings," to begin at 7:30 p. m. All are heartily invited to attend these services.

According to the record in the Lancaster Almanac, winter is scheduled to begin on Thursday, Dec. 21, at 6:15 p. m. For Friday and Saturday (today) it will be the same, 9 hours, 19 minutes. Averaging all the seconds of these three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, we calculate the shortest day will be Friday.

PORT MATILDA

The Presbyterian missionary society held their annual Christmas party Friday, Dec. 15, in the social room of the church. The program was a candlelight service and also a play, "Christmas Eve—And the Bus is Late." This was put on by the women of the society. Ladies of other churches were invited and a good crowd attended. There were several games played and the ladies exchanged gifts. A very nice lunch was served by the hostess society.

The Garden Club meeting will be held Dec. 28 at the home of Mrs. Ida Letzler. There will be the exchange of gifts and the revealing of secret sisters and the presenting of the secret sister Christmas gift at this time. We hope everyone will be present at this meeting. The program will be on Christmas with Mrs. Edna Shultz, Verna Wiser and Grace Weaver in charge.

The Baptist Missionary Society will hold their Christmas meeting Dec. 26 at the home of Mrs. Lee Shuler.

The Methodist church has been redecorated and has been closed for service until the painting is dry. We hope that more people will come to church now that it is a much more attractive place. Quite a number of members attended the other churches in town on Sunday morning.

There is quite a lot of moving in town the past couple weeks. P. B. Woodring moved into the A. J. Johnson property, and Howard Robinson moved to the Gilbert Wiser property. Charles Barry moved his family to Lock Haven where he has been employed the last few months.

Mrs. John Thomas spent a few days in Tyrone at the home of Grace Thomas, and did some Christmas shopping.

Mrs. Earl Bluchler, who was a patient in Lock Haven hospital, is home and able to be around again. William Bennett, a patient in the Memorial hospital in Johnstown, is getting along very good, and can move himself around some. He will be there several months.

We Set the STAR of GLORY High on the Christmas Tree. We know of no finer way, this wartime Christmas, to pay tribute to those whom honor and love of country will keep from our fireside. Their gallantry... their sacrifices will give us the world we've always hoped for. God grant that they may return swiftly to live with us in a world free from fear, want and prejudice... a world of understanding that was envisioned one great long-ago Christmas in these immortal words: Peace on Earth Good Will Toward Men. Wolf's salutes the boys and girls from our own store family who are now serving their country. Best wishes to you all, wherever you are, and to others like you all over America. Merry Christmas, a Victorious New Year and a swift and safe return. WOLF FURNITURE COMPANY
