Five members of William Farn... family, residing near Pottery Mills, can pull the scales above 1000 pounds, averaging over 200 pounds each.

Transcribing clerk in the legislature at $6 per day was the position James A. Fiedler got at Harrisburg last week. His many friends in Centre county are glad to hear of his success.

The County Commissioners have continued their appointments for the year 1945 as follows: clerk, Robert F. Hunter; physician for the prison, Dr. J. L. Selbert, and janitor, Origan Atwood.

Last Thursday Ira Rishel, while sawing some lumber at Ed. Seller's foundry, Oak Hall, had two fingers severed from his left hand. Mr. Rishel is employed in Weelan's carriage shop at Boalsburg.

David Kramer, of Rebersburg, died on Sunday morning, December 30, aged 83 years. He was the father of Mrs. A. Lukenbach of this place. A sister, the widow of David Wolf, aged 84, is among the survivors.

On Sunday Mr. Lawrence Cooney, one of Bellefonte's oldest citizens, fell on a pavement on Bishop street, and severely injured his hip. He was removed to his home and has been suffering considerably since from the injury.

Last Thursday evening Joseph Brothers & Co. had a drawing for a piano and the lucky number was held by Miss Mary Haley, of Snow Shoe. Maimie Doll picked the lucky number from the box, and Commissioner Goodhart and Register Rumberger conducted the drawing.

Col. J. L. Spangler, Col. Fred Reynolds and W. F. Reeder, all of Bellefonte; James P. Coburn, of Aronsburg; Dr. Atherton, of State College, and Hon. Cyrus Gordon, of Clearfield, attended the Union League reception in Philadelphia, Saturday evening, in honor of Governor-elect Hastings.

Mr. Benjamin Winkelman died at his home near Nittany Hall, Saturday, December 23, aged about 60 years. A steam boiler for heating purposes at University Inn, State College, blew up one day last week during the cold spell.

At a school directors' association meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: president, Dr. Theodore S. Christ, of Leont; vice-president, Owen Underwood, of Fleming; secretary-treasurer, W. B. Rankin, of Bellefonte; executive committee, J. C. Henderson, of Huston township; W. E. Irwin, of Phillipsburg; J. T. Potter, of Potter township; and Charles Wolfe, of Haines township.

One night last week the large 16-inch trout in the aquarium at Greens drug store jumped out of the tank and put an end to its existence. When found in the morning it was dead. The fish had not been fed for several days and it is supposed that hunger induced it to force the iron covering up sufficiently to leap size from the tank. A trout of the same size has been thriving in a tank at the Blair jewelry store.

On Thursday of last week thirteen young ladies took the black veil at the convent of the Immaculate Heart, Villa Maria, at West Chester, and six took the white veil. Among the number were Miss Mattie Garber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garber, of near Bellefonte, who took the black veil and who hereafter will be known as Sister Antoninus; and Misses Mary Clark and Ella Pearl, of this place, who took the white veil and who will be known as Sister Mary Wilfred and Sister Mary Linus, respectively. Mrs. Joseph Sculte, of this place, Miss Garber's sister, accompanied by her two little daughters, was present and witnessed the ceremony.

The flouring mill of J. B. Crawford in Nittany Valley, was destroyed by fire last Friday night. The mill was a large one and was situated about one mile from the Junction, along the turnpike leading to Brush Valley. The fire was discovered in the second floor by Mr. Crawford's hireling. It was noticed that a window sash had been removed, from which it is inferred that the fire was of incendiary origin. The mill was a substantial four-story building, equipped with improved roller system and water power. There was $2,000 insurance on the building in the Centre Hall Company, and $1,500 on machinery in the Sugar Valley Insurance Company. About $300 in custom work was lost.

He was a graduate of the Bellefonte High School and both he and the prospective bride were well known locally.

In the second serious fire at Snow Shoe in less than a week, the E. L. Reifnyder store in that community was destroyed on Christmas day. Loss was placed at $20,000. Mr. Reifnyder had purchased the store only three months earlier. The family apartment and all its furnishings on the second floor of the building was destroyed. Firemen were much hampered by lack of adequate fire fighting equipment and by a high wind. The first of a series of two fires was on December 21, when the beautiful Methodist church at Snow Shoe was destroyed. The fire was believed to have been caused by overheated furnace pipes.

Edward R. Owens, senior member of the firm of the Bellefonte Hardware Company, and treasurer of the Centre County Hospital, was recovering at his home on Willowbank street from injuries received when his Ford coupe skidded broadside into the Lewisburg freight train as he attempted to avert a serious accident. He had failed to hear the approach of the train when crossing the crossing at the Jodon grocery, and when he applied the brakes the car skidded on the ice, striking the moving train and causing considerable damage to the side of the coupe. Mr. Owens suffered a laceration of the face and was painfully bruised.
