Mr. Roan underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor and is reported to be getting along as well as can be expected.

The condition of Blaine Mauck of Pine street, who suffered a stroke at his home last Wednesday, is considered serious, members of his family report. Mr. and Mrs. Mauck's daughter-in-law, Mrs. M. D. Mauck, and Mrs. Philip Mauck of Baltimore, Md., arrived in Bellefonte during the weekend to be near the elder Mr. Mauck during his illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Foreman, of Woodbury, N. J., who have been visiting the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Love, of South Spring street for several days, yesterday departed for San Francisco, Cal., where they will make their future home. Mr. Foreman, employed by the Socony Oil Company, has been transferred from Paulsboro, N. J., to San Francisco.

Max Gamble, of Reading, former resident of Bellefonte, is here visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bruce Talbot, of East Curtin street, while recuperating from an injury he recently suffered. Mr. Gamble was employed in a plant in Reading and a fellow employe in backing a truck inadvertently drove the machine over Mr. Gamble's foot, causing a fracture of the ankle.

According to a letter received this week by Rev. H. H. Jacobs, of the Bellefonte Evangelical church, from Chaplain Carl R. Hatfield, with the armed forces in France, Pfc. Gardner of Bellefonte, has been recommended for the bronze star for his bravery in the battle of Bouzonville, France. Pvt. Gardner is a son of Mrs. Dora E. Gardner, Bush Addition, and has been in the armed forces for more than four years. He is serving with a medical detachment in France.

William Sager, proprietor of the Sager Photo Shop in the basement of the Farmers National Bank building, and who for some months has been suffering from an infection of the jaw, has been confined to bed at his home in the Rogers apartments, South Spring street, for the past several days, and is now awaiting word to go to Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Md., for further treatment. Because of his illness, the Photo Shop will be closed on Saturday until further notice.

Those from out-of-town who were in Bellefonte Friday for the funeral of James Martin, of South Spring street, were Mr. Martin's son, Charles, who left the day before his father died to enter the service; Mrs. George Long and granddaughter, of Nittany; Mrs. Richard Trost of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Reside; Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and Blanchard Martin, all of State College, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and daughter, Ruth, of Pennsylvania Furnace. A brother, William Martin, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., was unable to attend because of illness.

Mrs. Anna Mumper, of Milesburg, was hostess at a shower at her home there Tuesday night in honor of her niece, Miss Ruth Miles, who is to be married in February to Platoon Sergeant Lawrence Kling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kling, of Stroudsburg, now stationed at the Marine Base at Camp Lejeune, N. C. Those present at the shower were: Mrs. Dorothy Hermsstead, Mrs. Betty Hevery, and Mrs. Sally Malloy, all of Bellefonte; Mrs. K. Myer, of State College; Mrs. Patsy Swartz, Mrs. Carmen Baird, Mrs. Virginia Confer, Mrs. Violet Watson, Mrs. Ruth Miles, Miss Elizabeth Ann Wetzlar, Miss Aileen Rossman, Miss Julia Stere, Miss Marjorie Lyons, Mrs. Beulah Sprinkle, Mrs. Annabelle Watson, Miss Frances School, Miss Helen Whiteman, Mrs. Chester Miles, Mrs. Mary Smith, all of Milesburg, Miss Miles, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Miles, of Milesburg, received many useful gifts. Refreshments were served.

C. C. Alexander returned to his home on East Curtin street, Friday, from the Cleveland Clinic, where he had been under observation and treatment for a month.

James Masullo, GM 3/c, who recently returned from the Atlantic war theatre is spending a 30-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Masullo and family, of North Allegheny street.

Ward Samsell of Pleasant Gap, was taken to the Veterans' Hospital at Perryville, Md., last Thursday by Centre County Service Officer W. W. Hampton, of South Spring street. Mr. Samsell is undergoing medical treatment at this institution.

Mrs. John Hookman and Mrs. Paery Emerick, of Zionsville, Pa., and Mrs. Cordes McCloskey of Coleville, were married in the United Brethren parsonage, Bellefonte, at 9:30 p. m. Friday, Rev. Earl E. Ormiston officiating. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1941 and has been employed at the Mill Hill branch of the Sylvania Products Corporation for the past two years. Seaman Spotts, who took boat training at Bainbridge, Md., and later continued training at Norfolk, Va., recently returned after spending a year in South America. He is now attending an advanced welding school at Richmond, Va.

Miss Margaret Jones, daughter of Mrs. Helen Krick of Yeagerstown, Pa., and Cpl. Harry E. Poorman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Poorman, of Coleville, were married in the United Brethren parsonage, Bellefonte, at 9:30 p. m. Friday, Rev. Earl E. Ormiston officiating. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School in the class of 1941 and has been employed at the Mill Hill branch of the Sylvania Products Corporation for the past two years. Seaman Spotts, who took boat training at Bainbridge, Md., and later continued training at Norfolk, Va., recently returned after spending a year in South America. He is now attending an advanced welding school at Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Alice O'Leary, of North Penn street, left Friday for New York City to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Armstrong. The reason for her visit at this time is to be with her daughter and new granddaughter, who was born December 27 in New York.

Miss Helen Schaefer, of East Curtin street, Sunday went to Easton, Pa., where she was an overnight guest of her cousin, Miss Alma Shaffer, before continuing to Lewisburg where she is serving as a juror at the United States District Court.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Yearick, daughter Shirley and son Ronnie, returned recently to their home in Monmouth Junction, N. J., after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Yearick, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Yearick, at Spring Mills. They were accompanied home by Yearick's father who will spend the winter months with them. He has not been well since the New Jersey climate seems to agree with him.

Among the comparatively few home Christmas displays in Bellefonte this year was one at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Malloy and family on East Babylon street. The display was a miniature railroad, and consisted of a miniature village surrounded by a scale model railroad. All the buildings, streets, and railroad equipment were made by Mr. Malloy in a true scale to their life-size counterparts.

Harold Coble, of Milesburg, is now a seaman first class and is stationed at Smeeth, Cal., awaiting assignment to sea duty. Seaman Coble received his boot training at Baltimore, Md., and also completed a course in the radio school there. Prior to entering the service, he was a driver for the Johnson Motor Bus Lines here. His wife and family are residing in Milesburg during his absence.

William Hendershot, S 2/c, who has completed boot training at Sampson, N. Y., is spending the usual 7-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hendershot, of Pennsylvania, and with his wife, the former Beverly Sager, of Halfmoon Terrace. Seaman Hendershot has two brothers in the service: Pfc. Fred Hendershot, who this week was reported to have been wounded in action in the Philippines, and Austin, who is in Holland.

Lucille L. Tressler, of Blairsville, serving in the U. S. Navy civilian service as an inspector, has been transferred from York, Pa., to the West High street, Bellefonte, from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. Thursday through Saturday of this week. He will interview applicants for jobs in Naval establishments on the West Coast, Pearl Harbor, and the Philadelphia Navy Yard, according to Paul G. Cressman, local U. S. E. S. supervisor.

Topalian has the authority to appoint skilled tradesmen, helpers and laborers on the spot, and arrangements for free transportation, meals on route and housing reservations can be made immediately for accepted applicants.

The stepped up Pacific offensive, the unexpected savagery of the war in Europe, has created a serious labor shortage in our Navy Yard and supply depots. As a result, warships and transports have been held up in port longer than ordinarily necessary. Thousands of jobs, with good wages, are awaiting applicants.

If you are now employed in a non-essential industry, call at the local U. S. E. S. office for an interview with the Civil Service representative.

Bellefonte Girl Is Promoted in Marines

Marine Sergeant Marian Monsell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Monsell, of Valentine street, Bellefonte, has been promoted from corporal to her present rank at the Marine Corps Air Station at Cherry Point, N. C.

Sgt. Monsell is on duty as a telephone operator. Before enlisting in the Marine Corps on May 6, 1943, at New York City, she was employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Cpl. Walk Completes Orientation Course

Cpl. Cecil P. Walk, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Walk, of R. F. D. 1, Fort Matilda, recently completed an orientation course designed to bridge the gap between training in the State and combat soldiering against the enemy in Germany.

At a European Air Service Command Station, Cpl. Walk attended a series of lectures given by veterans in which he included instruction on chemical warfare defense and pertinent tips on staying healthy in a combat zone.

His next station will be one from which America's fighting planes cover our advance into Germany.

Before entering the Army Air Force, he was employed as an officer by the McPeck Brick Co. in Port Matilda.
