TO HEARTBROKEN GENTLEMAN: I will give you my spiritual advice. According to your letter you are too good for this girl. I suggest that you quit her and don't waste time about it. Stay away from her. Don't look at her. She is no good. Her wild oats have not been sown yet. She would not be a true wife to you or another man. So you read your Bible and go to Sunday School and also pray. Sooner or later you will get a good respectable girl. Don't accept an invitation from this girl neither. You will be happier in the end. The true girl you will find will have already sown her wild oats. Don't look at the other girl for she is one of those girls God says to shun. Keep away from bad girls. You know a good name is better than great riches.

TO THE LADY WHO HAS HAD TROUBLE WITH HER HUSBAND: Well, according to your letter I suggest that you go to town and have your husband arrested. He should not have another girl's picture in his pocketbook. Have that other girl arrested too. The law will straighten them both out. If you have anymore trouble write to LOUISA for her good advice. Yours, Mrs. Florence Lucas.

TO YOU LADIES WHO WANT TO BUY MY RADIO: You come on Friday or Saturday morning at 9:30, and come around to the back door. This is a house radio and it is in excellent condition. Last warning or I'll keep it and play it myself. I don't want no fooling. Well, next Sunday is All Fool's Day. I will not answer no ring, next Sunday, neither.

a NEIGHBOR doesn't have to live next door

There are more than five and one-half million families joined together in The Equitable Society, families from every state in the union. In a real sense, they are all neighbors—close neighbors.

They've banded together in a mutual society to achieve a mutual aim—security. The cooperation of that huge group has created protection and peace of mind for every individual family.

Mutual cooperation, the cornerstone of neighborliness, enables these families to enjoy financial security at an expenditure so low it is readily available to almost everyone—a cost made insignificant thanks to cooperative association.

Yes, the nearly six million neighbors in The Equitable Society come from all corners of the United States. Actively practicing the friendly code of true neighborliness, they are helping each other to enjoy economic worry-free years, fuller, happier lives.
