naissance survey and a second crew making right of way purchases.

The actual construction is expected

Bellefonte yards handled 106 carloads of pipe and these amounts have been stockpiled at the following locations: 30 miles at Snow

Shoe: 14 miles at Philipsburg; 10 miles at Westover; 6 miles at Cur-wensville; 4.5 miles at Osceola Mills.

The Manufacturers firm plans to let the construction contract in three sections. Much of the labor will be hired locally and the project is expected to be completed in a year of construction. Maximum daily output for one crew would be about a mile, it was indicated.

Laying the pipeline will be a continuous operation and will make use of trenching machines, trucks, heavy cranes, compressors and backhoes.

In Harrisburg, representatives of built to better service the steel mills in the Pittsburgh area. It would have a capacity of 100 million cubic feet a day. The pipeline will be lo-carry gas from other fields in Cen-

DRIVE MONDAY

1951-52 Season to

(Continued on Page Six)

The Airport Authority heard two airport engineers at their meeting in State College yesterday after-

A. H. Wessel, district airport en-ommission, also spoke.

lege Wednesday afternoon

ficers will meet with an attorney

OPEN CONCERT

to begin in July.

VOLUME 70. NUMBER 15

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1951

New Gas Pipeline To Enter County

Surveying Crews at Work in Philipsburg Area for 174-Mile Line; Carloads of Pipe Are Unloaded at County Sites.

Engineering crews were at work struction of the 175 mile network. this week in the north eastern sec- The line will be 16 inches in diamtion of the county surveying a route eter and some sections are 45 feet for a new natural gas pipe line that long. would extend from the Renovo field to Pittsburgh. In addition some 206 carloads of pipe have been delivered in Centre and Clearfield counties for use in the line.

W. D. Burdette, in charge of the crew of 30 men, said his firm, the Manufacturers Light & Heat Company of Pittsburgh, planned con-

Asks Nomination

Willard M. Neff

Willard M. Neff, Howard funeral director, has announced his inten- Membership Campaign For tion of seeking the Republican nomination for the office of Coroner of Centre county

Mr. Neff has been taking an active part in veterans' affairs since he was discharged from service following World War I in which he served for 3 years, including 2 years and 7 months of overseas duty. He for the 1951-52 season, Monday of has also served in the National next week. Guard at Bellefonte for three years. He is a past Commander of both Saturday evening and at its close of the proposed contract and adapthe Bellefonte and Howard Veter- programs will be selected for the ting it to the satisfaction of all ans of Foreign Wars Posts, and a next year. member of the American Legion Lawrence McClure, chairman of and L. O. O. M. of Bellefonte.

Howard Borough Council for nine ships are $6 and the student memyears. He is active in numerous fra- berships are $3. ternal organizations and clubs and As in other years effort will be at the present is president of the made to have four programs. The Howard Lions Club.

Following his graduation from the pends on the number of member Howard High School he was assoc- ships sold. The selection committee lated with his father, Lot H. Neff, picks next year's attractions at the after which he attended the Eckels close of the campaign. College of Embalming in Philadelphia. Upon graduating he served an internship at the City Morgue of

In 1948 Mr. Neff purchased the Airport Engineers interests of his father and since then has been operating the funeral Meet With Authority home at Howard.

First National Bank Donates Machines

Officials at the First National gineer for the Civil Aeronautics Bank announced yesterday they Authority at Harrisburg, told the would present bookkeeping mach- group of the requirement for any ines to high schools at Bellefonte, field. He said the $150,000 in Fed-Howard and Snow Shoe. Bellefonte eral funds, tentatively allocated for will get two, the other schools one an airport in this area would not

The bank has been equipped with some definite action toward estabten new machines, it was explained. lishing an airport was taken. At present they are being lettered with the following inscription: "Compliments of the First National Bank, Bellefonte, Pa.

Firemen Called

Both Bellefonte fire companies responded to an alarm for a flue representing Sherman Lutz, owner fire at the Paul Lose home. East Howard street. Tuesday at 6:30 a an effort to establish a price for m. The fire caused no damage and his holdings. the firemen did not have to go into

Hatchery Processes

Complete Fish Life

By Frank Hedrick

When fishermen cast their lures

PHYSICALS SET FOR 38 MEN BY DRAFT BOARD

Group to Report to Altoona For Examination April 20

Thirty-eight men have been ordered to report for pre-induction physical examinations on Friday, April 20, 1951, by Local Selective Board No. 44. This group is making a recon-

They will report to the board office on the third floor of Temple Court, Bellefonte, at 7 a.m. and go to Altoona for examination. Those ordered to report are:

Harry H. Bauer, State College Arthur K. Cleetingh, State College Peter K. De Juhasz, State College William M. Young, Bellefonte,

E. Lingenfelter, Munson Ray F. Poorman, Howard RD 2 Dallas G. McKivison, Spring Mills Lester J. Mann Jr., Clarence Donald J. Adams, Philipsburg Charles E. Thomas Jr., Philips

Harold L. Spicer, Howard Jenkin P. Shaw, Snow Shoe Edgar G. Korman, Bellefonte Andrew B. Kopchik Jr., Philips-

Robert E. Stine, Port Matilda Bruce H. Emenhizer, Milesburg Alex J. Smith, Warriors Mark Rodney D. Reese, Port Matilda (Continued on Page Six)

the firm told the Public Utility Commission the pipeline would be JOINT SCHOOL cated so that it may be tapped to

All School Directors of 7 Dis- be awarded the fisherman coming tricts to Discuss Agreement

All school board members from even districts are scheduled to at- to July 31 and fish must be entered tend a meeting in the Bellefonte at the following official checking lege high school Monday night to dis- stations: Big Trout Inn, Penn Belle cuss further plans for establishing a joint school district. About 37 persons are expected to attend.

At a meeting last Thursday, re-The Bellefonte Community Conpresentatives of each district discussed the proposed articles of certs Association will begin its anagreement. These articles were nual campaign for memberships mailed Tuesday to each director. Monday's meeting will be con-The campaign will continue until cerned with going over each item For This Friday

Directors will be present from the campaign, said the price of Bellefonte, Milesburg and Union-Mr. Neff has also been interested membership will be the same as in civic affairs as a member of the other years. The adult member- Spring and Walker townships. T. Ellwood Sones, county superintendent, and Kenneth W. Miller, Bellefonte superintendent, will attend. The meeting will be open to the ability to select these programs de-

HISTORIANS TO CONVENE HERE No membership will be sold after

Regional Conference of Junior Group Is Set for

About 150 high school students Centre and surrounding counties are expected in Bellefonte tomorrow to attend the Central Regional Conference of the Pennsylvania Federation of Junior Historians. Sessions will begin in the high school auditorium at 10 a.m.

The morning program will include greetings from school offibe available after June 30 unless cials, sketches of Bellefonte Lock Haven, State College, Yeagertown, Get Ninth Reprieve Tyrone, Jersey Shore and a moving David Johnson, airport engineer picture, "The Aaronsburg Story" for the Pennsylvania Aeronautics shown through the courtesy of Drew Kolb, of Milheim. Joseph this morning received their ninth R. Paul Campbell was named so-Besecker, president of the region, licitor for the group. Authority ofwill be in charge.

After lunch a group tour will be made to the following locations: said he was notified by telephone at ing of materials, taxes and tax asof the State College Air Depot, in Hastings home, County Library and 7 p. m. Wednesday. New date was Museum, Linn home, Court House set as Monday, May 7. The order and Curtin Memorial, Elks lodge, affects David Darcy, Harry Zietz The group will meet in State Col- Bellefonte Academy, ore pits, Belle- and Harold Foster, all of Philadel-(Continued on Page Eight)

Library Building And Town COUNCIL SEES Are Scheduled For Cleanup

Sigma Chi fraternity of State lege hazing into practical lines.

College held Apr. 12 through 19. He said trance. by the Board of Health.

Annual Fish

Contest To

the total value is $500.

two $5 certificates.

Open April 15

Persons fishing in Centre county will again have the opportunity to the Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce, Retail Division, in cooperation with the Hunters and Anglers

Club. Prizes are gift certificates and

First and second prizes are $40 men's, women's and children's divisions. In each division the entries are grouped by rainbow, brook, and brown trout. Special division is for fishermen outside of Centre county who catch a fish at least 12 inches long. Eight $5 trade certificates will the longest distance. The smallest person catching a trout at least eight inches long will be awarded

Dates of the contest are April 15

Hotel, Sam Poorman's Sports Centre, and O. A. Kline Hardware.

Judges are Orvis Harvey, Sam

The Hunters and Anglers Club

Hall, Pleasant Gap, Friday at 6

President Kenneth Nellis Bellefonte, announced that Thomas

Mosier, of Bellefonte, County Game

C. R. Buller, chief State fish culturist, and David Dahlgren, of Philipsburg. County fish warden, will represent the Fish Commis-

Tickets may be purchased at the Charles Rossman is general chairer members are Edward Osmer.

Harry N. Meyer and W. Leslie

Three convicted slayers scheduled to die in the Rockview electric chair reprieve last night. Dr. J. W. Claudy,

Condemned Trio

awarded in Pleasant Gap.

Protector, will be the speaker.

Foresman and Fred Witmer.

Hunter-Angler

Fish Fry Set

Grounds of the Centre County | A group of pledges from the Siglibrary building are scheduled for ma Chi fraternity are scheduled a cleanup and landscaping in a to arrive at the library building project launched this week by three Saturday to clean the yard; trim organizations. Taking part in the shubbery and other jobs. The frajob are the Bellefonte Women's ternity will come under the new Club, the Bellefonte Lions Club and system of turning the regular col-

The Lions Club is providing ad-Meanwhile Burgess Hugh M. ditional manpower, particularly in Quigley has announced Cleanup moving stones which were left from Week in the community will be the construction of the new en-the street department would make | Three committees of the Bellea special effort to have all streets fonte Woman's Club will hold a swept. He pointed out that it would card party at the American Legion be particularly timely to have the home here at 8 p.m. Friday to raise town present a neat appearance funds for landscaping the library since many visitors will arrive here Approximate cost would be about during fishing season. The program $500 for the entire property. Some was started after a request made $280 would be needed for the front (Continued on Page Eight)

NAME JURORS FOR MAY COURT

Grand Jury Scheduled to Convene Monday, May 7 enter the fish contest sponsored by ors will convene Monday. May he said. Criminal Court jurors, Monday, and $10 in certificates in each of the May 21, and Civil Court, Monday, May 28. The Jurors follow:

> Grand Jury, Convenes May 7 Russell Adamitz, State College Edna J. Anderson, Port Matilda Herbert Auman, Bellefonte Harry F. Crago, Philipsburg Ralph J. Corio, Rush township Thomas J. Decker, Spring Mills Verna C. Dunkel, State College Herbert F. Garis, Centre Hall Harry F. Gummo, Bellefonte RD Jean McClain Hess, State College Albert R. Kerstetter, State Col-

Frank Kobularchick, Snow Shoe Helen B. Kropp, State College Fred C. Lucas, Bellefonte RD Mignot, Bellefente Esther Moore, Port Matilda Hazel Robison, Port Matilda John A. Russell, Bellefonte RD Susan R. Rusnak, Snow Shoe

Verna Rossman, Milesburg W. J. Stine, Port Matilda RD Mary L. Ulrich, State College Albert E. Yougel, State College fry and meeting at Logan Grange township

Criminal Court Jurers

Convene May 21 Eugene Adams, Philipsburg RD May B. Allison, Howard Pauline Alters, Bellefonte RD Ray D. Anthony, State College William T. Brandt, Julian (Continued on Page Six)

School Directors Motion pictures of a caribou hunt in Canada made by a group of Centre County men. will be shown. Course Begins Thirty prizes given by merchants With 50 Enrolled of Bellefonte and vicinity will be

About 50 persons representing 25 Kline Hardware. Thomas store, of the county's 35 school districts minute session. Poorman's Sports Center and the will take part in the course for Breon bowling alley in Bellefonte, school directors and secretaries and at the Spicher Service station sponsored by the county superintendent's office in cooperation with the Public Service Institute of the man of the dinner committee. Oth- Department of Public Instruction.

> The first of the six week's session was held at the Bellefonte High School last night. Dr. A. Bruce Dennison, superintendent of the Altoona schools, is the instructor.

T. Ellwood Sones, county superintendent, said additional enrollees were expected to register last night Subjects to be studied include: Duties of secretaries, duties, powers and priveleges of board members, keeping of minutes, budgets Western State Penitentiary warden, and audits, insurance and purchassessments, school attendance and employment of minors, joint vocations and merged school districts, district employes.

Bellefonte Fish Hatchery Works to Provide Ample Supply of Better Trout in Pennsylvania, received in 1950 approximately 110,964 trout of legal tory at Bellefonte. size. This distribution covered 173 2. Men working miles of streams.

The Fish Commission has made plans, after studying the bilogical demands of the streams, the locainto the streams of Centre County tion, and the fishing pressure on on April 15. they can be sure a the streams, for as much stocking more than ample supply of the this year, largest and best fish will await them—compliments of the Belle- of the largest trout hatcheries in fonte Hatchery and the Pennsylthe United States. It has a capacity of 150 tons or nearly one million Centre County, which is one of trout of legal size and over.

2. Men working at outdoor bass

3. Milking trout to get eggs. 4. Counting eggs by measurement 5. Small fry just after hatching.

to bring about bigger and more hardy fish by means of studying headquarters for research in Pennand experimenting with fish.

The Bellefonte Hatchery is composed of three units, Pleasant Gap, Lower Spring Creek or Paradise. the most heavily stocked counties. The purpose of the hatchery is and Upper Spring Creek. The three fonte Hatchery.

1. Main building housing labora- units work hand in hand as one under the direction of C. R. Buller than the name implies. Formerly who is Chief Fish Culturist of fish eggs were hatched at a hatch-Pennsylvania.

> Facilities for dealing with problems of fish conservation are few hours old. maintained in the laboratory at tine Pleasant Gap unit of the Bellefonte sylvania

Along with the technicians at the waters. Pleasant Gap unit, a crew of 40
The growing of a vast number of that their cars are parked in an Edward Loughner, Mrs. M. A. Burk-barely visible, it was a stockaded men is used to operate the Belle-fish to a large size at the hatchery orderly manner in the designated holder, Mrs. J. T. Delaney, W. H. fort built by General James Potter men is used to operate the Belle- fish to a large size at the hatchery orderly manner in the designated

In reality the hatchery is more ery, then the baby fish were placed in the streams when they were a are such that the stocking of small keys. Hatchery. This unit is the central fish is not advisable, so the trout field office of Pennsylvania and are held and grown at the hatchery until they are of legal size, and then stocked in public fishing

(Continued on Page Six)

WATER STREET

Plans Displayed By District Engineer; Work Set Next Year

Plans for improvement of Water street from Logan Branch bridge to the end of the present concrete session Monday night. G. E. Nagele. district engineer of Clearfield, said the job was one of the first sched-gin work a year from now.

curb of eight inches. One requirement will be a new way. Drainage will not be a major live agencies.

problem, it was stressed. Jury lists for the May term of care will be used in the vicinity of were based on a year's study by the court were released this week by Bellefonte's Big Spring and no State College Council of Churches. Commissioners. Grand blasting will be done near that site.

TO USE HS GYM FOR CARNIVAL

Exhibition Booths for Event

The Bellefonte Recreational Council was given permission to use the high school gymnasium for its annual carnival at a meeting of the Pellefonte school directors on Monday night. The carnival will be held the week ending June 9. Plans are to place exhibition booths of local merchants in the gymnasium creating a small "fair"

It was pointed out that the terms of these directors will expire in December: Horace J. Hantranft Thomas H. Mensch and Mrs. Paul Corman, Mr. Hartranft said yesterday he will not be a candidate for principal, from Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Penn State, the board received commendation on its program of instruction. Two for-Bellefonte High School students-Marcia Garbrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Garbrick, and Patricia Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Weaver-received "3s" last semester at Penn

The directors and their guests are to attend the annual school board dinner prepared by the home economics department in the high school cafeteria Friday night and the annual dinner of the Bellefonte Branch PSEA at Camp Hatetoleavit May 10. Five directors attended the 55

School Fantasy To Be Presented April 19, 20

The musical fantasy "The En- 3000 were sent to townspeople. chanted Slippers", which was scheduled by the Bellefonte elementary set up proportionate assessments grades for Apr. 20, will now be for properties in the borough. It presented on the evenings of both is one of the first steps in a tax the 19th and 20th, at 8 p.m. The reason for the scheduling of this additional performance is so that the public will have the opportunity to see both casts present high school students, Jean Houck, day at about 9 p.m. James Hall and Thomas Garbrick the Wishing Star appears in the water from booster tanks. sky and she wishes for a pair of and regulations governing school dancing slippers. That night she is visited by the Fairy of the Star who tells where she can find a pair of Enchanted Slippers that dans (Continued on Page Eight)

Fish Commission Announce Regulations

The Pennsylvania Fish Commision has announced the 1951 fishing regulations for the Bass Project above Fisherman's Paradise and Paul D. Breon is the teacher for that portion of Spring Creek recently acquired from Rockview. extending from above Rock downtream to the Bass Project.

Fishing hours are from 5:30 a.m. is allowed. Six trout may be killed Grange Fair; organizations; and homes, a grist mill, and saw mill. In per day. The entrance at the Peni- tragic events. tentiary barns will be open, but the road leading downstream from Rock on the west side will be closed. No firearms are permitted and all trash must be placed in the containers tre, Union, Clinton, Juniata and owned and operated by Harrison provided. Car owners are requested Cambria Counties;" Present-day conditions, however, to lock their cars and take their Centre County, Pa."; "Linn's His- General Potter and the "Bank" and > Penitentiary work, no parking will be permitted on the road. Fish ison, Mrs. Charles Fohringer, John Commission officials asked the co- Wert, Sr., F. V. Goodhart, R. W. operation of all fishermen in seeing

Gambling Issue IMPROVEMENTS Raised By Pastors

State College Council of Churches Issues Complaint; Law Enforcement Agencies Pledge Cooperation in Move.

Pastors of six State College April 5, 1951. churches on Sunday preached seromplaining of "Flagrant violations borough of State College and adjaf gambling laws."

Meanwhile slot machines have become an extinct item all over the He explained that final plans county. The machines were reportnight be ready by the end of this ed to have been removed from State year and that it is proposed to be- College Monday. By noon yesterday no slot matchines were in sight in The plans call for a 26-foot road- Bellefonte and reports indicate the way of nine-inch concrete and a same situation is true in Philips-

Acknowledgments of the letters retaining wall on S. Water street sent by the State College Council of and cantilever supports for the Churches were made public yestersidewalk. On N. Water street the day by both Judge Ivan Walker and idewalk will be abandoned and District Attorney E. L. Willard. Both placed on the east side of the high- pledged support from their respect-

On Sunday, pastors warned Actual property damage on the against the evils of all forms of proposed construction will be lower gambling in the community and nathan originally estimated. Special tion. It was reported the sermons

The letters of complaint were sen to the Judge, District Attorney State College Burgess E. K. Hibsman, and State College Chief of Police John R. Juba. The letters were signed by H. N. Cope, council presdent, and V. D. Bissey, secretary, The complaint read:

"The following action was auth-School Board Okays Placing College Council of Churches on

BAR ASSOCIATION HOLDS MEETING

Hears Report on Drive to Take Election of Judges Out of Politics

The Centre County Bar met Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in special session to hear a report on the Missour; Plan made by Harry M. Con- on July 24, 1951. nelly, who is working on behalf of Sheriff Kauffman, this plan for the Pennsylvania Bar wide experience in State and

In a letter to O. F. Sollenberger. Library of the Court House. Nine on the Republican ticket in 1947. members of the Centre County Bar In announcing his candidate were present > duced Mr. Connelly Mr. Connelly outlined the plan to the Bar Association and asked it to pass a unanimous resolution favor- elected I will continue to conduct ing its adoption, and that said resolution be forwarded to Centre (Continued on Page Six)

Assessment Group Notifies Members

mailed yesterday to members of assessment committees for Bellefonte borough chosen by ballots cast by residents. The joint borough-school district committee met Tuesday

Ballots have been tallied but those selected will not be announced until they accept positions. Thirty persons were chosen-ten in each ward. About 600 ballots were returned to the committee. About Purpose of the committee is to equalization program.

Mt. Eagle Fire

The Undine Fire Company of Bellefonte was called to the Harry the Fantasy, an original by three Heverly home at Mt. Eagle Satur-

The story of the play centers heated stove caused the fire in the two years ago. around a small girl who aspires to partitions of the home. They cut Work has been started on the become a ballerina. One evening away some of the wall and used project and contraacts have been

14 PAGES THIS ISSUE

"The State College Council of pavement on the Milesburg pike mons against all forms of gambling Churches hereby files a letter of were shown to members of Belle- and this week followed up with let- complaint concerning the flagrant fonte Borough Council at a special ters to law enforcement officials violationss of gambling laws in the > cent townships Judge Walker replied "I acknowledge receipt of the unication which has been forwarded to me by the party to whom you mailed it here in Bellefonte. 'It has always been my practice (Continued on Page Six)

Is Candidate

Martin L. Kauffman

Martin L. Kauffman, who has served as Centre County's Sheriff since January, 1948, this week announced his candidacy for renomination at the Republican Primary

The meeting was held in the Law sheriff, was nominated and elected announcing his candidacy, Sheriff Kauffman stated yesterday, R. Paul Campbell, president of the "Since taking office in January 1948 Centre County Bar Association, pre- I have endeavored to perform the sided at the meeting, and intro- duties of Sheriff of Centre County to the best of my ability and in the best interests of the people of this County. If renominated and rethe business of the Sheriff's office in the same conscientious manner in which I have endeavored to serve the County in the past. LIONS PLEDGE FUNDS TO YMCA

Works Starts on Renovation of Shower Room of Swimming Pool

The project of renovation of the shower room adjacent to the swimming pool at the Bellefonte YMCA has brightened with the announcement of Wilford L. Fisher, president of the Bellefonte Lions' Club that the group voted a pledge of $1,000 to the project. Work has already started on the job that is expected to cost in excess of $3,000

The work will include complete tiling, new heating system and new showers. No work has been done on the downstairs shower room for many years. The shower room serv-Firemen reported that an over ing the gymnasium was remodeled

(Continued on Page Eight) Centre Hall-Potter Class

Writes History of Area The Centre Democrat this week Hagan, Mrs. John Coldron, George publishes the first of eight install- C. Johnson, Mrs. T. A. Hosterman, nents of a "History of Centre Hall Mrs. George McCormick, C. B. as prepared by the Problems of De- Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Barger mocracy Class of 1950-51 of the and Nathan H. Mull, Jr.

Centre Hall-Potter High School." This installment deals with early history and landmarks. Subsequen issues will cover churches; history

The bibliography includes: "Passing Glance at Penns Valley." ingsworth; "History of Northum-In order to keep roads clear for tre Reporter and these individuals. lieved that General Potter founded David K. Keller, Mrs. R. S. Jam- the town in 1770 holder, Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Kerlin, Mrs. C. A. Spyker, R. S.

EARLY HISTORY AND LANDMARKS

POTTER'S MILLS: The town of of schools: The Centre Reporter Potter's Bank or Potter's Mills. and other businesses, past and pres- started as a small post village. In to 8:30 p.m. (EST). Sunday fishing ent; industries in Centre Hall; the 1788, the town consisted of several 1833 a woolen mill, bank, store and tavern were added by the sons of Il- General James Potter. and tavern still stand, the latter beberland, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Cen- ing the historic Eutaw House now "Centre Hall, Shawley. The town was named after tory," numerous issues of the Cen- the "Mills" located there. It is be-

Bohn, J. E. Wagner, Harvey Flink, Diamond, and of which traces are