fonte to James at Duncsbury, the present site of Lock Haven, the head of the West Branch Canal, of which James was the engineer in charge. He warns James that their brother Andrew has consumption and that the severity of his work as assistant to his brother would not help his condition.

Be Healthier

Food can cause chronic diseases: diabetes, gall bladder disease, heart and blood vessel ills. Overweight abets such disorders. One out of four adults is fat, women from 50 to 60 especially. Diabetes is increasing yearly by 50,000 cases a year, largely due to overweight.
