ADDITIONAL DEATHS ON PAGE EIGHT—SECOND SECTION

Lemont Sailor In Naval Bombardment
A "well done" was in order for Phillip J. Price, seaman, USN, of Lemont, serving aboard the destroyer USS Zellers, for his part in the bombardment of the enemy port of Wonsan, Korea.
His ship has been acting as a gunfire and support ship along both coasts of Korea.
The crew of the Zellers was commended by Rear Admiral Allen E. Smith, Task Force commander, for destruction of a troop village, fuel storage tanks, and gun emplacements at Wonsan.

patient included a check of $25 to apply to operating expenses.
It was reported the garden clubs of Centre County have assumed the responsibility of landscaping the grounds of the new hospital and are already drawing plans. The Junior Red Cross's offer to furnish and maintain a room in the new hospital was accepted.
Miss Eleanor M. Brown, administrator, said the March patient load was 357 and 97 babies were born in that period. She added the new visiting hours were put into effect Apr. 1 and are satisfactory.
The Liaison committee reported its insurance investigation and concluded that some holders of hospital insurance fail to give full information when admitted and as a result are billed for services which would be covered by insurance.
The board's meeting date was changed to the fourth Monday of the month, making the next meeting date May 28.

Is Candidate—

regardless of the time of day.
"He is married and the father of four children, all of whom are married and have families of their own. Two sons are now with the Bellefonte National Guard unit at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, one of whom, Malcolm, Jr., saw five years of overseas service in World War II."
In conclusion the statement said, "I have always been a staunch Republican, loyal to the party and its candidates. Although defeated in the primary at the last county election, I have worked for the entire ticket, believing that the majority rules. If I am nominated and elected, I will do my best to give the residents of Centre county an efficient and faithful administration of the office. Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated."

15 Enter Guilty—
