Policeman: Yes, but we think he must have left by one of the entrances.

name nor initials neither. Now I am telling you I am not solving no more problems for I hear some writes that stuff and then sets back and laffs, so they need not write to me, but they best had solve their own troubles from now on or write to LOUISA at the Centre Democrat for her advice. Now I don't want you to judge wrong ideas against me, I done my part in straightening out these troubles in families but when some sets back and laffs and make fun, they don't need to write to me for no more advice. I read my Bible in my spare time. Do you? And do you get down on your knees and pray? Now don't forget, I don't go to Sunday ball games neither, nor I won't vote for it neither. But if some of the ministers legalize Sunday ball games, they will break the First Commandment. There are a lot of people that goes to Sunday school and church on Sunday morning. They go home and go to ball games in the afternoon. I don't call them good christians. You had best not judge me wrong or God will hold you responsible. A good christian would sign his right name to a letter. Just wait some day, maybe some one will do you a mean low-down, dirty trick, then how will you feel? I know that God will reward me for straightening out these family troubles to.
