

50 YEARS AGO:

Bing! Bang! Boom! Policeman Miller Thumps Toughs Into Submission

Another disgraceful row occurred on our streets last week in which the tough colored element of our town were the principal actors. About half of the gang were soaked with rum and got up a quarrel because they could not get another who had some money, to join them in a game of poker. In the midst of the row, policeman Miller arrived and when he attempted to arrest one of the bullies he defied the policeman as is his custom—but things were different this time. The new policeman pulled his mace and thumped the chap into submission, by hammering his head with the club until he saw stars and then meek as a lamb he marched to the lock-up and remained there until he agreed to pay his fine of five dollars. Officer Miller is deserving all the praise he received for the new style he has adopted in handling all these notorious chaps who defy officers. Constable Montgomery also took a hand in the scrap and did some effective work. There should be no parlying with the roughs and toughs of this town, who have been having too many privileges on our streets. Prompt and effective work of this kind will soon put an end to the trouble.

Mr. Wentzel, Bellefonte's baritone singer, has few, if any, superiors in the state. Jenkins & Lingle are going to rebuild on the site of their burned foundry and machine shops. Glad of it—Bellefonte would greatly miss this enterprising firm; it was one of the solid establishments of the town. Architect Robert Cole has designed a plan for the proposed new city hospital at Lock Haven. It is a modern building and has all the conveniences for such an institution. The people of Lock Haven are proud of Bellefonte in this respect, and have raised considerable money for the new building.

20 YEARS AGO:

Pierre Boal Appointed To High Government Post in Europe

A well-deserved honor for Pierre Boal, son of Colonel Theodore Boal, of Boalsburg, was announced last week by the State Department, whereby the young man is slated for the post of chief of the Western European Division of the Foreign Service. Born of American parents in France, Boal has had a colorful career since he was 20. He enlisted at that age in the French cavalry soon after the outbreak of the World War and soon became a member of the famed Lafayette Escadrille. Most of the time occupied by Council at their semi-monthly meeting on Monday night was consumed in the discussion of the Gamble Island property, which the Borough has practically appropriated by right of eminent domain to run its water line from the Big Spring to West Lamb Street. Following the reading of the minutes, which contained the text of the ordinance, Burgess Harris promptly voiced his veto. A discussion followed and the minutes were held over without approval. The Centre Democrat feels that it has a treat in store for the women of Bellefonte, and all those who reside nearby. For three days in May they will be able to attend the Cooking School at the State Theatre, to be conducted under the auspices of this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker, Miss Mary Treaster and Miss Ella Levy returned home Wednesday from a two month's sojourn at St. Petersburg, Florida. The Logan Fire Company responded to a still alarm about 10 o'clock last Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Gregg Curtin of East Linn Street, where a spark from the flue had set fire to the wood-shingled roof. A considerable space was burned on one side of the roof before the firemen were able to get it completely under control. Michael Hazel Jr. was an arrival in Bellefonte this week from Oil City, Pa., where he holds a fine position with a large oil company, with operations at that place and in Oklahoma City. He recently was advised that he was to go to Oklahoma City and before leaving stopped here to see his father and family. Included among the young girls from Bellefonte who attended the Inter-Fraternity Ball and Saturday night dances at State College were Mary Woodring, Ruth Miller, Rebecca Durworth, Sarah Bullard, Greorgette Furnell, Elizabeth Hickok, Virginia Beatty, Agnes Matthews, Dorothy Wilkinson, Lettie Schaeffer and Virginia Hughes. Kenneth Wall and Charles McLellan are ready for business at their miniature golf course, located in the rear of the Brockerhoff Hotel. They have had it rebuilt and new tricks and new greens have been constructed. They plan for the opening night to be this Saturday, and the public is invited to inspect the improvements and try their skill at the fascinating game. Anybody who has something to say can make a speech, but not everybody who makes speeches has something to say.

OLIVER FARM MACHINERY
Yes, we have it. Come in and let us show you the newest models of
OLIVER TRACTORS, 66, 77 and 88
OLIVER FLOWS, 2 and 3 bottom
OLIVER HARROWS
OLIVER MANURE SPREADERS
OLIVER COMBINES
SINGLE ROW CORN PICKERS
We also have a full line of Goodrich Tires and DeLaval milking equipment. Open evenings.
Diehl & Yearick
Phone Millheim 26-R-25 or 136-R-4
REBERSBURG, PA.

PERSONAL LOANS
Clean Up Those Old Bills Now, With a FIRST NATIONAL PERSONAL LOAN
The chart below gives amounts, costs, and repayment schedules.
Borrow Repay 12 monthly payments
$100.00 $106.00 $ 8.33
200.00 212.00 17.00
300.00 318.00 25.50
400.00 424.00 34.33
500.00 530.00 43.17
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
BELLEFONTE, PA.
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.
Member Federal Reserve System
SAVE FOR YOUR INDEPENDENCE—BUY UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS

Prepare Soil Well For Vegetable Plants

Before setting out the plants that have grown in greenhouses or in the hotbed, the soil should be made into the best possible condition for plant growth. Asst. County Agent Clair D. DeLong says this can be accomplished by keeping the ground cultivated from early spring until transplanting time. In this way weed will be well under control in time to set out cabbage, eggplant, pepper, tomato, and other plants. Do the transplanting carefully, on cloudy days or in late afternoon, preferably. Keep some of the soil from the flats around the roots. It absorbs the shock of transplanting and helps keep the plants growing. In taking up the plants, avoid injury to the roots or stems. Use a piece of shingle or a trowel to loosen the plants in the soil. Slide the tool under the roots and lift them out. Set the plants an inch or two deeper than they were growing in the hotbed or coldframe. Pack the soil tightly about the roots. If the soil is dry or if the climate is hot and dry, artificial watering will be advisable. A pint of water per plant is not too much. Lose bag, dog, tag? Advertise in C D

THE OFFICE CAT
"A Little Nonsense Now and Then, Is Relished By the Wisest Men."
Kiss And Tell
He kissed her and she sighed.
Down where the lilacs fell,
"That was the first," she cried,
I think she lilacs hell.
Plain Facts
A Curtin street man's wife asked him the other evening how he supposed those dozens and dozens of empty bottles ever got into the cellar. He told her he didn't know; that he never bought an empty bottle in his life.
As The Office Cat Sees It
It looks to me as if the Centre County Clubmen's Association was taken for a ride, and now it's walking back.
In contrast to Water street the World was made in six days. You see it wasn't necessary to wait on some commission's report, advertise for bids, etc.
As Brigham Young said, "Give us this day our daily bride."
A woman is as strong as her weakest link.
If automobiles stop on lonely roads in daytime it means trouble, but if they stop on lonely roads at night, well—it may mean trouble, too.
Double-Crossed
Hannibal crossed the Alps.
Webster crossed his T's.
Washington crossed the Delaware.
And dames cross their knees.
Lights Out
You'll often find that the hand that rocks the cradle was the one that turned out the parlor light.
Your Hit Parade
Whether or not you've heard the Gorilla song, it goes something like this: "Gorilla my dreams I love you..."
For The BHS Driver's Training Course
Automobiles with four doors and four brakes are not complete without a driver who has foresight.
Attention Wagner's Mill
With so many of the youth of the community out sowing their wild oats, we think it's about time the price was quoted on the grain market.
Stranger Than Fiction
How strange some men are: Once in awhile they swallow their own grief, then go out and buy some more grief and swallow that, too.
To Be Truthful About It
According to some people the first Ten Commandments are the hardest.
Hop Scotch
And then there was the Scotchman's wife who used barbed wire for a clothesline, so the birds couldn't sit down.
There's Something To It
Some motorists are so poor they can hardly keep the body and chassis together.
Steppe By Steppe
It was morning. Stalin was mad. He tore down the steppes three at a time. "I Moscow at once. This service is tomb but vodka you do about it?" "He never went Romanoff like that before," said his wife. Stalin ran down the street and into the office of the "Daily Sunovitch." "Hey, you didn't leave any papers at my house?" he said. "How Communist are you? It's ten-thirty now and I haven't Red the paper yet. It wasn't there for breakfast Soviet without it. You'd better give me a copy of the paper or I'll Russia all to jail."

Following the death of Moses, Joshua was selected leader of the children of Israel. The Book of Joshua opens with Jehovah instructing Joshua to lead his people against the populous and well-organized inhabitants of Canaan, the Promised Land. The Book of Joshua is largely an account of military campaigns, the division of the land between the various tribes and, finally, Joshua's ante-mortem exhortation to his people that they follow Jehovah and obey his commands. Joshua was born in Egypt, during the servitude of his people, was a member of the tribe of Ephraim, twelfth in descent from Joseph. He attained prominence among the Israelites during the forty years of wandering in the Wilderness, having led them to victory against the Amalekites at Rephidim. He was Moses' assistant in close fellowship with that great leader. When the twelve spies were sent into Canaan, only Joshua and Caleb had faith and vision enough to urge the people of Israel to attempt the conquest of Canaan then. After the addition forty years of wandering, brought on because the Israelites refused to accept the report of Joshua and Caleb, and the five years of conquest to possess the land of Canaan, Caleb, now 85 years old, makes a request of Joshua for the land which God and Moses had promised him. To reinforce his request, he recalls the promise that God had made through Moses to Joshua and to him that day forty-five years before, that the land on which he stood should be his inheritance and his children's forever; he reviews the evidence of God's continued favor upon him as witnessed by his advanced age but very vigorous body, even strong enough for a war of conquest to defeat the inhabitants of the land promised him—the strongest and fiercest in the land. He believed that God, who had been with him all through the years, would not forsake him now, but would help him. When Caleb finished his speech, Joshua blessed him. He, too, remembered the experiences recounted by Caleb and recalled the promises made to them by Moses, and he immediately designated Hebron as Caleb's inheritance. Thus, we see that God's best gifts come to those who trust and work and wait. Several outstanding characteristics of Caleb's are well worth considering. He was courageous, daring to speak the truth although he was in the minority, remaining resolute in time of defeat, awaiting his opportunity, and courageous enough to attempt a seemingly impossible task in his old age. Another quality which Caleb possessed to an extreme degree was loyalty. He was loyal to his people; he was loyal to his superiors, Moses and Joshua; but, best of all, he was loyal to his God, faithfully following him throughout his long life. In fact, Caleb credited his longevity to the fact that he had "wholly followed the Lord." This is not surprising, for, as Joseph Parker declares: "The religious man ought to be strong. The religious man is bound for the heaven of God, for immortality. Herein I would not hesitate to preach the religion of Jesus Christ in which may be termed its spiritually sanitary aspects. Christianity keeps the soul clean, pure and healthy." Or, as Alexander Mc-Laren says, "Christianity, with its self-restraint, and its exhortations to all, and especially to the young, to be chaste and temperate and to subdue the animal passions, has a direct tendency to conserve physical vigor; and Christianity, by the inspiration that it imparts, the stimulus that it gives and the hopes that it permits us to cherish, has a direct tendency to keep alive in old age all the best of the characteristics of youth. One of the greatest and most blessed of the characteristics of youth is the consciousness that the most of life lies before us; and, to a Christian man, in any stage of his earthly life, that consciousness is possible."

Sunday School

THE SETTLEMENT OF CANAAN

International Sunday School Lesson for April 29, 1951
Memory Selection: "Be strong and of good courage: be not affrighted, neither be thou dismayed: for Jehovah thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.—Joshua 1: 9.
Lesson Text: Joshua 14: 6-13; Judges 2: 7-10; 21: 25
Following the death of Moses, Joshua was selected leader of the children of Israel. The Book of Joshua opens with Jehovah instructing Joshua to lead his people against the populous and well-organized inhabitants of Canaan, the Promised Land. The Book of Joshua is largely an account of military campaigns, the division of the land between the various tribes and, finally, Joshua's ante-mortem exhortation to his people that they follow Jehovah and obey his commands. Joshua was born in Egypt, during the servitude of his people, was a member of the tribe of Ephraim, twelfth in descent from Joseph. He attained prominence among the Israelites during the forty years of wandering in the Wilderness, having led them to victory against the Amalekites at Rephidim. He was Moses' assistant in close fellowship with that great leader. When the twelve spies were sent into Canaan, only Joshua and Caleb had faith and vision enough to urge the people of Israel to attempt the conquest of Canaan then. After the addition forty years of wandering, brought on because the Israelites refused to accept the report of Joshua and Caleb, and the five years of conquest to possess the land of Canaan, Caleb, now 85 years old, makes a request of Joshua for the land which God and Moses had promised him. To reinforce his request, he recalls the promise that God had made through Moses to Joshua and to him that day forty-five years before, that the land on which he stood should be his inheritance and his children's forever; he reviews the evidence of God's continued favor upon him as witnessed by his advanced age but very vigorous body, even strong enough for a war of conquest to defeat the inhabitants of the land promised him—the strongest and fiercest in the land. He believed that God, who had been with him all through the years, would not forsake him now, but would help him. When Caleb finished his speech, Joshua blessed him. He, too, remembered the experiences recounted by Caleb and recalled the promises made to them by Moses, and he immediately designated Hebron as Caleb's inheritance. Thus, we see that God's best gifts come to those who trust and work and wait. Several outstanding characteristics of Caleb's are well worth considering. He was courageous, daring to speak the truth although he was in the minority, remaining resolute in time of defeat, awaiting his opportunity, and courageous enough to attempt a seemingly impossible task in his old age. Another quality which Caleb possessed to an extreme degree was loyalty. He was loyal to his people; he was loyal to his superiors, Moses and Joshua; but, best of all, he was loyal to his God, faithfully following him throughout his long life. In fact, Caleb credited his longevity to the fact that he had "wholly followed the Lord." This is not surprising, for, as Joseph Parker declares: "The religious man ought to be strong. The religious man is bound for the heaven of God, for immortality. Herein I would not hesitate to preach the religion of Jesus Christ in which may be termed its spiritually sanitary aspects. Christianity keeps the soul clean, pure and healthy." Or, as Alexander Mc-Laren says, "Christianity, with its self-restraint, and its exhortations to all, and especially to the young, to be chaste and temperate and to subdue the animal passions, has a direct tendency to conserve physical vigor; and Christianity, by the inspiration that it imparts, the stimulus that it gives and the hopes that it permits us to cherish, has a direct tendency to keep alive in old age all the best of the characteristics of youth. One of the greatest and most blessed of the characteristics of youth is the consciousness that the most of life lies before us; and, to a Christian man, in any stage of his earthly life, that consciousness is possible."

Woodycrest 4-H Club Names Officers

The Woodycrest 4-H Club held its second meeting for the year on April 13 in the social room of the E. U. B. Church, for the purpose of electing officers. Those elected were as follows: Robert Meek, president; Jane Reigh, secretary-treasurer; Robert Rudy, song leader; Dick Walker, game leader, and Stanley Rudy, news reporter. Thirty members attended the meeting and discussed the year's projects, which are tomatoes, flowers, gardens, rabbits and chickens. The next meeting will be Apr 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the social room of the E. U. B. Church. All we have to do, it seems, is to rearm the Chinese Nationalists and we won't have to wait long before the Chinese Reds have the arms. Those who trust and work and wait. Several outstanding characteristics of Caleb's are well worth considering. He was courageous, daring to speak the truth although he was in the minority, remaining resolute in time of defeat, awaiting his opportunity, and courageous enough to attempt a seemingly impossible task in his old age. Another quality which Caleb possessed to an extreme degree was loyalty. He was loyal to his people; he was loyal to his superiors, Moses and Joshua; but, best of all, he was loyal to his God, faithfully following him throughout his long life. In fact, Caleb credited his longevity to the fact that he had "wholly followed the Lord." This is not surprising, for, as Joseph Parker declares: "The religious man ought to be strong. The religious man is bound for the heaven of God, for immortality. Herein I would not hesitate to preach the religion of Jesus Christ in which may be termed its spiritually sanitary aspects. Christianity keeps the soul clean, pure and healthy." Or, as Alexander Mc-Laren says, "Christianity, with its self-restraint, and its exhortations to all, and especially to the young, to be chaste and temperate and to subdue the animal passions, has a direct tendency to conserve physical vigor; and Christianity, by the inspiration that it imparts, the stimulus that it gives and the hopes that it permits us to cherish, has a direct tendency to keep alive in old age all the best of the characteristics of youth. One of the greatest and most blessed of the characteristics of youth is the consciousness that the most of life lies before us; and, to a Christian man, in any stage of his earthly life, that consciousness is possible."

BIRTHS

Daughter Born
Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miles, of Julian RD, announce the birth of their ninth child, fifth daughter, Sharon Sue, in the Phillipsburg State Hospital, Apr. 13.
Son For Kellys
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kelly of Port Matilda, are the parents of a son born in the Benson Sanatorium, Phillipsburg, April 15. The infant weighed 10 pounds, 5 ounces.
Announce Birth
L. and Mrs. Donald L. Pierce of Port Knox, Ky., announce the birth of their second child, first son, Apr. 13. Leslie Allen weighed 8 pounds, 3 ounces. L. Pierce is the son of Russell Pierce of Maryland. Mrs. Pierce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Peters, of Stormstown.
Third Child Born
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Korman, of Half Moon Terrace, Bellefonte, are the parents of a son weighing 6 pounds, 7 ounces, born in the Centre County Hospital in Bellefonte, April 18. Mrs. Korman is the former Dorothy Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reese of Wingate. Mr. Korman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Shope of Bellefonte.
Twins Born
Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Shope of Burnside street, Bellefonte, are the parents of twin daughters born at the Centre County Hospital in Bellefonte, April 18. Mrs. Shope is the former Dorothy Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reese of Wingate. Mr. Shope is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Shope of Bellefonte.
Parents of Son
Mr. and Mrs. Philip Haag of Denver, Colo., are the parents of their first child, a son, Gary Michael, weighing 6 pounds, 7 ounces, born in Denver, April 8. Mrs. Haag is the former Hulda Chilcoat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chilcoat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chilcoat of Pleasant Gap. Mr. Haag is a native of Denver.
Parents of Daughter
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Curtin Jr., of Curtin, are the parents of a daughter, Eliza McEwen, born in the Centre County Hospital, Apr. 21. The infant weighed 9 pounds and is the third child, second daughter. Mrs. Curtin is the former Elizabeth Ann O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. O'Brien, Bellefonte. Mr. Curtin is a son of Mrs. H. L. Curtin Sr., Bellefonte.

J. M. KEICHLINE INSURANCE AGENCY
One of the Oldest Agencies in Centre County
EDW. L. KEICHLINE
Temple Court Phone 2521

To every woman under 5-feet-5!
Packard, as you already know, has provided generously for today's giants...
(Examples: Seats as wide as the car is high. Enough headroom for a 6-footer wearing a cowboy hat. Largest trunk of any sedan on the road.)
Now, let's see a few typical examples of what Packard has done for the not-so-tall folks, in America's newest new car...
Wonderful new outlook: Packard's new kind of low-level hood gives you real "close-up safety vision"... lets you see both front fenders, for safer passing, dent-free parking. New one-piece windshield (nearly five feet wide) and narrower corner pillars give you a clear panoramic view.
Tops in handling ease, too—because Packard (and Packard alone) gives you Ultramatic Drive... with a combination of smoothness, quietness, flexibility, and positive control no other drive can match. And steering ease? Here's a car that actually handles, in traffic, with as little effort as it takes to turn a door knob in your home! Come drive it!
It's more than a car—it's a PACKARD ASK THE MAN WHO OWNS ONE
C. F. HIPPLE & SON
Bishop St., Bellefonte, Pa.