

RED CROSS IN ANNUAL MEETING

Rev. Carolus Elected Chairman; 1951 Fund Drive Reported $361 Short

Rev. Harry C. Carolus was elected chairman of the Bellefonte chapter of the American Red Cross at the annual reorganization meeting at the chapter's headquarters on Thursday night.

Other officers elected were: Harold Hamill, first vice-chairman; Fred Warner, second vice-chairman; secretary, Mrs. M. W. Schreffler; treasurer, Stanley Kuhlman.

Directors elected were: Mrs. W. H. McDowell, Howard; Mrs. Schreffler, Pleasant Gap; and Mr. Hamill, Alan Katz and E. Keith Anderson, all of Bellefonte. They were named for three years.

Mrs. Von B. Johnson of Snow Shoe, was named a director to fill the unexpired one-year term of Mrs. Harvey Smith, who resigned.

G. S. Bassinger, chairman of the campaign committee, reported that approximately $4,400 has been received. The goal was $4,761.

Mr. Bassinger said that some districts have not made complete reports.

Mrs. James B. Craig, Sr., Junior Red Cross chairman, reported that the junior chapter will furnish and maintain a room in the Centre County Hospital. This will be done from funds solicited in the annual Junior Red Cross campaign.

Mr. Hamill, first aid chairman, reported that six first aid classes are being held at present. He said that 16 men and one woman took an instructors' course at State College in February.

Others who reported were Mr. Carolus, home service; Mrs. W. J. Emerick, production chairman; Philip H. Johnston, disaster chairman; Mrs. Michael Mianulli, clothing committee chairman; Mrs. Harry McElwain, blood program chairman.

Mrs. Emerick was appointed delegate to the National Red Cross convention at New York City in June.

Mrs. John W. Brown, executive secretary, gave the chapter's financial report.

Bellefonte Lions Show Rehearsals Are In Progress

Rehearsals began last week for the Modern Minstrel of 1951 which the Bellefonte Lions Club will give at the high school auditorium May 15, 16 and 17.

Josef Smiley, of Lewistown, successful director of many stage productions is producing and directing the show.

Mr. Smiley said that a "great wealth" of talent reported to the two rehearsals held so far. He said the show would be one of the best he ever staged.

Soloists are being chosen and Mr. Smiley has already done considerable work with a girl's chorus. A large number of members of the Lions Club will appear in the singing chorus.

There will be three "blackout" skits throughout the show; also 25 musical numbers, and dialogue for the end men.

The show is for the benefit of the Lions blind fund, and other projects for community betterment.
