Graybill of the high school faculty was accompanist. Before reviewing his book, "Rosanna of the Amish," Mr. Yoder talked on the life of the Amish. There are nine churches in the Kishacoquillas Valley of which the oldest is the Newkirk order. 99 per cent of the Amish boys join the church and 95 per cent join the church of their fathers. They are devotedly religious. The marriage vow is very sacred to them. There are no divorces. None of them are jailed for crime. They are entirely self sufficient and accept no help from the government. Social life is derived from attending public sales, funerals, visiting neighbors, and the unmarried boys and girls attend Sunday evening hymn singing. Services are held at a dwelling from 9 to 12 noon when lunch is served by the host. Mr. Yoder then reviewed the life of his mother, Rosanna, a McConigal from her birthplace in Scotia to her married life in Big Valley.

HOW TO BE AN ACE on Party-Line Telephones
You'll rate tops with your party-line neighbors if you'll follow these two brief suggestions for party-line courtesy:
1. When you start to make a call and find the line in use, hang up gently and give the other person a few minutes to finish his call.
2. When, while talking, you realize that your neighbor is waiting to make a call, hang up in a few minutes and free the line.
Little courtesies, yes... but they pay big returns in better service for everyone on the line.
