

WAC-WAF Program Called A Success

T Sgt. William S. Nagle, of the Bellefonte U. S. Army-Air Force Recruiting Station, reports that the WAC-WAF Procurement Program was a success. The program was conducted by 25 visiting Recruiting Sergeants on Saturday, May 5.

Sergeant Nagle stated that approximately ten Bellefonte young women have expressed a desire to enlist. It is planned to enlist the girls in a group with the guarantee that they will be shipped to the Basic Training Center and go through Basic Training as a group. Additional young women who are interested may call on Sergeant Nagle at the Recruiting Station, Bush Arcade Building, 220 1/2 West High Street, Bellefonte. An appointment can be arranged by calling Bellefonte 4110 and establishing a date and time for the local recruiter to call at the homes of interested applicants.

Never Have

"I wonder why there are so many more auto wrecks than railway accidents?"

"That's easy. Did you ever hear of the fireman hugging the engineer?"

No issue is ever settled correctly upon the basis of force.
