

PLEASANT GAP

The Paul Lego family, of Philadelphia, spent the weekend of May 14 with relatives here. Mrs. Edith Hile, who had been visiting them, returned home with them.

The Alex McKechnies of Berwick were guests over May 13th weekend at the Herman-McKechnie home.

Cal Wilhelm's granddaughter, Miss Connie Wellen, a student at State College, spent Sunday with the Melroys.

Mrs. Michael Mutch and infant daughter returned from the Centre County Hospital to their home in the Noll apartments. Both mother and Patricia Grace are getting on nicely. Mr. Mutch's parents were here Sunday to spend the day with them.

The Senior Choir of the Methodist Church motored to Montandon Pa., where Lynn Brooks is pastor and presented a program of Sacred Music. The Rev. Babcock, the Jacob Cornants and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brooks accompanied them. There were about 30 in the group. A dinner was served them by ladies of the church, after the concert.

Fourteen tables of cards, bridge, 500 and canasta were in play at the coed party held by the Women's Club in the Fire hall, Friday evening. The proceeds which are est-had planned to attend the races on that day but due to weather they had been postponed.

The Nevin Strubles took a drive Sunday to Lock Haven, Williamsport, Muncy, Montoursville, Lewisburg, etc., and report an enjoyable trip.

Miss Shirley Struble had the misfortune of falling off her bicycle a few days ago and received very bad brush burns on her face and leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie P. Davis, of Oil City, visited from Thursday until Tuesday with their son, James, and wife who live in one of the Shuey apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie were here from New Jersey for a weekend visit with their son, Conrad and wife, who also live in one of the Shuey apartments.

Nurses' Alumnae Meeting Held

The May meeting of the Nurses' Alumnae Association of the Centre County Hospital was held on Monday evening, May 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scandrol, E. Lamb street, Bellefonte, with president Grayce Tressler, R. N., presiding. Routine business was transacted and the following special reports were given: Membership, by Mrs. Mabel Fennin, R. N.; Re-districting, by Mrs. Mary Beezer, R. N., and Legislative, by Mrs. Tressler.

It was unanimously decided to postpone the "Homecoming" banquet for all graduates of the Centre County Hospital School of Nursing until the new hospital was more nearly finished. There will be no meetings of the Alumnae during June and July but the president announced a special meeting will be called about the middle of August to make arrangements for the annual meeting which is to be held in September.

Members present included Pearl Minnich, Betty Stevenson, Anna Johnson and Beatrice Seckinger, State College; Hazel McCoy and Elizabeth Curman, Pleasant Gap; Mabel Fennin, Mary Beezer, Helen Lambert, Mary Scandrol and Grayce Tressler, Bellefonte.

County Firemen See Test Films

Films describing fire tests on a variety of building materials were shown at the regular meeting of the Centre County Volunteer Firemen's Association in State College Sunday.

Alpha Fire Company served as host unit and fifty members were present.

The film, "Approved by Underwriters", showed building material being tortured by roaring flames, impact and cooling effect of hose stream, hose fire protection provided by fire doors, and scientists and engineers at work testing a variety of products in daily use in homes, schools and factories.

Harry Price Jr., state representative from Lewistown, was presented and spoke on a number of bills pending which effect volunteer firemen. Tribute was paid to Victor Auman of Centre Hall, vice president of the eastern district, who died last week.

Following the meeting, a lunch prepared by a committee of Alpha firemen, was served in the banquet room of the Elk's Lodge.

Drama Group Elects Officers

The Drama Section of the Bellefonte Woman's Club met at the Eutaw House recently for its annual May banquet.

A short business meeting followed the dinner and officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Clair DeLong, chairman; Mrs. Edward Pierce, co-chairman; Mrs. Willard Barnhart, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. James Miller, program; Mrs. Elwood Johnson, publicity; Mrs. Elwood Johnson, house; Mrs. Cary Sunday, cards; Mrs. Gertrude Poorman, gifts.

Mt. Nittany 4-H Club Elects Officers

Mt. Nittany 4-H Club met at the John Shempf home and elected officers and received 4-H record books. Ed Minnier, assistant 4-H Club leader from State College discussed 4-H work in Pennsylvania and showed movies.

Officers elected were: Virginia Neff, president, and Harold Harper, vice-president, of Boalsburg; Shirley Perryman, secretary; Barry Weaver, game leader; Glen McClintic, song leader, and John Shempf, news reporter, all of Centre Hall RD.

Potters Mills Plans Memorial Day Events

Memorial Day services in the Potters Mills area will be held on Wednesday, officials of the Smith-Sweetwood Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars of Potters Mills, and the Centre Hall American Legion, the sponsoring organizations, announced this week.

Services will be held at Tusseyville at 9:30 a.m. and Potters Mills at 1 p.m.

A parade to the Sprucetown Cemetery will be held at 2 p.m. they said.

Serve Spaghetti Dinners Today

A spaghetti dinner and supper is being served today (Thursday) in the American Legion Home on E. Howard Street, Bellefonte, by Group 7, Women of St. John's School Fund.

Adults and children will be served from noon to 2 p.m. and 5 to 8 p.m. Mrs. Budd Roan, chairman, announced. Proceeds will be for the new St. John's Parochial school of Bellefonte.
