

Troop, 17, Girl Scouts Holds Court of Awards

A Court of Awards for Girl Scouts of Troop 17 was held in the Little House Friday with families and friends present.

Scouts who participated in the World Friendship Camp skit were: Doris Wittmer, Alice Baker, Nancy Hall, Karen Skawden, Louise Curtin, Joan Bird, Eddy Auman, Kay Rozelle, Valerie Billett, Patty Swartz, Linda Decker and Juniata Misely, aide.

Miss Skawden was awarded the week's campership.

Mrs. E. J. Hauer, former commissioner, awarded the merit badges. Mrs. Philip Gordon is the troop leader and Mrs. A. L. Rozelle is the assistant.

Mrs. Oscar Billett and Mrs. James Decker Jr., members of the troop committee, served refreshments.

They talk about doing away with price controls when the housewife is just beginning to wonder when they are going into effect.

Court House Fountain Is Knocked From Base

An ornamental fountain on the lawn of the court house was pushed over Friday morning. No real damage resulted since the fountain came apart in three sections and did not break. It was set up again by borough workmen.

Believed to be the work of pranksters, the time of the disturbance was set between 2 and 3 p.m. The fountains recently were repaired by Miss Mary McCulley.

Band Director To Open Store

Olin F. Butt, until recently director of the Bellefonte Junior American Legion Band, will open a music store in the basement of the Gazette building on N. Allegheny Street, Monday.

Mr. Butt plans to give lessons, repair instruments and sell merchandise in the music line.

Eight Countians Graduate From Teachers College

Eight Centre Countians received their degrees from the Lock Haven State Teachers College at the 74th annual commencement exercises on Monday.

They included: John I. Rimmey, Centre Hall; Lois E. Bailey, Port Matilda; Kermit Murray, Bellefonte; Mary Shive, Snow Shoe; Anna S. Wolfe, Blanchard; Dean Shade, Rebersburg; Earl Stover, Aaronsburg; and Barbara Young, Bellefonte.

The class of '73 was the smallest since World War II.

Dr. Richard T. Parsons, president of Lock Haven State Teachers College, conferred the degrees.

Dr. Charles Wepsic, an alumnus of the school, was guest speaker at the graduation program in the college auditorium.

Eighteen members of the class received degrees in health education; 32 completed the course in secondary education, and 22 selected the elementary field.

Baccalaureate services were held at 3:30 p.m. Sunday in the college auditorium. The Rev. LeRoy M. Kutz delivered the sermon to the graduating class. The annual Senior Breakfast was at the Fallon Hotel at 9:30 a.m. Monday morning.

Former Hublersburg Resident in Illinois

Joe Gramley, of Preepert, Ill., was a visitor at this office Tuesday afternoon. He reports that his sister Mrs. Ada Yocum, formerly of Hublersburg is now residing with him, and her many friends in this area will be glad to know that she is enjoying good health. Mr. Gramley said that the "old County" looks pretty good, he having left it in 1901.

Price controls are set at a maximum while what is left after taxes, leaves the housewife a minimum with which to do her shopping.
