Helen Corbin, Tuesday evening Catherine Shope conducted the devotional period, using as her theme, "The shepherd, the Sheep Fold and the Sheep", with scripture from the Book of John. Ann Ziegler, president, conducted the business meeting, at which time a financial report from Bertha Williams, treasurer, was accepted for the fiscal year, 1950-51; and plans were made to prepare a box of used clothing for Mather School, Beaufort, S.C. The clothing will be shipped in two weeks. Lila Smith, program leader, presented the program and used as her topic, "The Mission Fields at Managua, Nicaragua, with emphasis on the school, seminary and hospital," and the "Founding of Mather School by Mrs. Rachel Mather, widow of a Baptist minister of Boston, Mass." These topics were of particular interest since the White Cross requisition box and the missionary boxes of the Society were sent to these fields. Other members present included: Mary K. Pringle, Hazel Stiver, Edith Sones and Hannah R. Williams, and a guest, Cynthia Ziegler.

The Neighborhood Garden Club met at the home of Ann Ziegler Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Mary Pringle conducted the meeting in absence of the president and vice-president. Plans were completed for a picnic supper, with Boy Scout Troop 59 as guests, 6 p.m., June 6, in the Community Park. A report was made by Mary Pringle and Mae Ross on the progress of the project to clean and replant that park in which project the Scout Troop has been assisting the Club members each Monday evening. An invitation from the Half-Moon Garden Club to a swimming-boat picnic in the Hugh Wilson woods at 11 a.m., July 5, was presented and accepted. Plans for participation in the picnic will be completed at the next meeting to be held at the home of Roxy Knarr, June 28. One new member, Elizabeth Stine, was admitted to club membership. Program chairman, Mary Bower, presented a program on "Mother's Day," "Memorial Day," and "House-keeping." The hostess served refreshments to members present. Mary Pringle, Florence Williams, Hannah M. Williams, Mae Ross, Elizabeth Stine, Sarah Wiser, Ella Woodring, Roxy Knarr, Edith Lane, Mary Bower Grace Weaver, Irene Bennett and guest, Nina Spackman, were present.
