POTTERS MILLS

June 7, 1951.

Dear Readers:
It gives me extreme pleasure to be able to write to you folks again this summer. It's great to be back to report the happenings from this Pennsylvania hamlet which is Main Street, U. S. A.

The heart of America is not on Broadway in New York City or in Loop in Chicago. It's in the small American village where a boy can walk in his bare feet, wear a patch on the seat of his pants and no shirt on his back, carry a fishing pole over his shoulder, bait in his pocket, a dog at his side, his hair uncombed, face unwashed, and his chest expanded to show that he's proud of his home no matter how humble it may be.

I have seen the majestic cities, such as Philadelphia, New York, and Boston, and I have lived in the American village. But, they say "the home is where the heart is," so I can be writing from my heart when I present the news of my home town.

Six young people from this vicinity graduated from the Centre Hall-Potter High School on Monday, May 28, two of them with honors. We wish to extend congratulations to Janet Foust, Sara Barger (honour student), Phillip Neff, Roy Royer, Jr., Edwin Brown (honour student), and Delores Smith.

The theme of this year's graduation exercises was "Fifty Years in a Changing America, 1900-1950." It is certainly surprising how much our country has changed in the last half-century. If the change in the next 50 years is as great, Flash Gordon comic books will be current events and we'll all have a careful watch on our atomic tooth brushes.

The Potters Mills school eighth grade motored to Harrisburg and Hershey last Friday on a sight-seeing tour. They visited the capitol building in Harrisburg, toured the Hershey Chocolate factory and spent the remainder of the day at the Hershey Amusement Park. A fine time was had by all. Those making the trip were: Renna Decker, Mary Decker, Joan Meeker, Joan Smith, Don Brown, Larry Brown, Joanne Stoner, Bobby Wyland, John Shope, Elwood Confer, Don Muthersbaugh, Miss Mayer and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wagner. The trip was sponsored by Miss Mayer and Mrs. Wagner, teachers in the school.

Speaking of Teachers at the Potters Mills School reminds me of Mr. Oscar Bierly, a former teacher at our school. If I am not mistaken, Mr. Bierly began his teaching career at Potters Mills in 1937 and ended it there some five or six years later. Unquestionably he was a fine instructor, conscientious worker, and a very good friend to all who knew him. After leaving this community he was employed at the Sylvania plant in Mill Hill, later being transferred to a plant in West Virginia. Mr. Bierly is now head of a plant in Oklahoma. I am certain he would enjoy hearing from any of you who knew him, as he was always interested in the latest happenings of our community. In case you wish to write his address is 725 W. Dewey Street, Shawnee, Oklahoma.

All of us wish to extend a most cordial welcome to the Rev. William Usher, new minister at the Sorocuton Methodist Church. The Rev. Usher delivered his first sermon, "The Church of Foundation," last Sunday.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Faust were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flecher and son, Norman, of Lewistown; Merle Copenhaver, of Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Mary Miller and Miss Roxanne Brisbon, of Centre Hall.

A very nice parade was held here on Memorial Day and the exercises at the cemetery were well attended. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wyland, of Williamsburg; Mrs. Clayton Hughes, of Spruce Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lucas and daughter, Martha, of Bellefonte, were weekend visitors at the Theodore Wyland home.

The other day in Carson's Store a few of us got into an interesting conversation dealing with "mistakes." Did you ever stop to think of some of the silly mistakes you have made or ones that you have seen someone else make? Some of them are dillies, aren't they? Take for example the lady who hid money from her husband and then couldn't find it herself, the man who couldn't find the glasses he had on his forehead, or the woman who put salt in her coffee and poured sugar on the eggs. To go on, think of the person who wrapped a Christmas box beautifully and left the gift out, the man who looked the door and left the key inside, the lady who forgot and put her sheets in the washer with the colored clothes, or the man who sent trousers to the cleaners with bills in the pocket. I burned a five dollar bill last week—I hadn't intended to pay it any way so it didn't matter. But, returning to the subject, isn't it terrible how many silly mistakes a person can make just because he doesn't stop to think? But then wouldn't life be dull if no one made mistakes? There would be some people thrown out of work because they earn a living by the mistakes of others.

Possibly, we'll all have to refer to that famous line of Pope's—"To err is human, to forgive divine." We wish to say "Welcome home" to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reed who returned to our community last Wednesday. They moved from Potters Mills two years ago this fall. They are now living in the center apartment of the Blauser house at the lower end of town, which was recently vacated by the Lewis family.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stricker is recovering nicely from a bruise which she sustained recently in a fall at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Jordan.

Well, I guess I had better close shop until next week as my new supply has reached its elastic limit. Due to insufficient time this week I was unable to make my complete round, so no doubt I'll see you the next time, on June 11, if I fail you then, just call 174-R-11 and one of my numerous secretaries will take your news. My news slogan is "If you haven't any news, please make some."

"Johnny" Wyland, Respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Elleberger motored to Springfield, Mass., last week to attend the directors' meeting of Eastern States Co-op. In their absence Miss Sara Walker kept the home fires burning. Two miles of the highway west from town is having stone applied this week. Grover C. Corl Jr. is driving a new sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Luse, of Centre Hall, are proud parents of a baby girl born last week in the Centre County Hospital—it's No. 2. Now Jimmy has a sister, Betsy. Mrs. Luse is the former Miss Esther Corl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Corl.

Mrs. Carey Shoemaker has returned from the Phillipsburg State Hospital to her home and is recuperating very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Irvin, of Harrisburg, were visitors last week at the Eugene Irvin home. Mrs. Irvin remained for a ten-day visit with her friends and former neighbors.

Those from Ferguson township included among this year's graduating class from State College high school are: Shirley Ann Ariz, Willard Campbell, Jean Bickle, Joyce Barto, Janice Brown, Wilbur Dodd, Jr., Anne Dreihelb, Daniel Fellows, Catherine Foster, Jack Elder, Betty Gibboney, Joan Henninger, Kenneth Harpster, Edna Hines, Kenneth Henry, Rita Koch, Joanne Musser, Fred Randolph, Phyllis Ripka, Janet Seckinger, Allen Schultz, Elaine Stephens, Russell Walker, Bill Walker, Mary Wasson and Shirley Williams.

American Youth
The idea that American youth are too valuable to fight their country's battles may be worth something politically but, if put into effect, it will mean the end of the United States.

RUNVILLE

NEW HOLLAND'S GREAT NEW "77" BALER IS BREAKING ALL SALES RECORDS. IT'S THE ONLY ONE-MAN BALER WITH A CAPACITY OF UP TO 10 TONS AN HOUR!

In view of today's uncertain conditions can you afford to wait until next year to decide how you'll handle your hay? Farmers faced with the high cost and scarcity of labor are mechanizing faster than at any other time in history. And that's why it'll pay you right now to take a good look at your present baler equipment.

Can it be operated by one man—or does it require two, three or four to get in the hay? Have you a baler that'll handle up to 10 tons an hour—or only half as much? Compare New Holland's high capacity "77" twine baler with any other on the market. No other baler has a record of leading leadership to compare with New Holland's—more than 10 years' experience as America's pioneer and leading manufacturer of automatic pick-up balers!
