GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY.

Despite all the glory that seemed to have fallen to the lot of President Spalding and his two teams, the indications are that there is trouble ahead of them. If all declarations are correct Mr. Spalding is to be reminded of the fact that he may be able to propose, but there are other magnets who claim to have a right to dispose. Whether the result may be there has been plenty of opinion on both sides of the question.

It is easy to understand that the clubs that demand their players from the Spalding country on both sides of the Atlantic. Mr. Spalding has no rule or anything like it to defend him, and any defense he may make or that may be made for him must be made in some other way.

One of the big surprises of the week was Mitchell's handling of the matter. The former wants to fight Smith 12 rounds for $2,000 a side. In the face of what Mitchell said in this country not long ago, this is somewhat of a surprise.

It is likely that a battle will be arranged between the two men. The former has a reputation for being a fighter and the latter has a reputation for being a fighter.
