WORSE THAN TEEMER.

Gaudaur's Sorry Show Against Champion O'Connor.

TWO RATTLING PRIZE FIGHTS.

Third Annual Dinner of the J. H. Porte Fishing Club.

SOME INTERESTING BASEBALL GOSSIP

The sporting public throughout the country will not be surprised to learn this morning that O'Connor won the boat race yesterday between himself and Gaudaur. The race was for the championship of America and an alleged stake of $1,000 a side. The contest, if such it can be called, was more of a burlesque than anything else, according to accounts. A special dispatch to this paper from Frisco gives the following account of the race:

"To-day's race, or fiasco, between William O'Connor, the champion, and Jake Gaudaur, was a laughable affair. The truth is it was no race at all, as Gaudaur only rowed about a quarter of a mile. The result was a foregone conclusion, however, and has been looked upon as such ever since the rowers came here. They came here and nothing else. The public soon became aware of this, and consequently no interest whatever has been taken in the race. It has generally been considered that O'Connor dare not, for the sake of his reputation and other important considerations, lose the race. This convinced everybody that it was only a hippodrome. As a result there was no betting on the affair worth mentioning.

"The water was lumpy to-day when the men rowed to the starting point, and the attendance was not large. Nobody seemed inclined to bet and there was no enthusiasm. At the word 'Go' O'Connor got best away and really made a good start considering the state of the water. On the other hand, Gaudaur started as if he was a beaten man before the word was given. He struck the water in a careless and unsteady way. O'Connor soon showed to the front and sent his shell ahead at a clipping pace. He soon began to leave Gaudaur behind, and the latter was so far in the rear when only a quarter of a mile had been covered that he retired from the race, claiming the water was too rough for him to row.

O'CONNOR'S GOOD TIME.

"O'Connor kept on rowing in excellent form, and it was evident he meant to cover the three miles in good time. He accomplished this when the rough state of the water is taken into account. He finished the entire distance in 19 minutes and 45 seconds. This excellent performance was the only redeeming feature in the affair. He certainly proved himself to be an extraordinary sculler, and good authorities think he is the best sculler who has ever been in this city.

"It is not improbable that a match will be made between Gaudaur and Peterson, as the latter's backers think he can defeat Gaudaur. O'Connor intends to proceed to Australia."

The above account cannot fail to prompt a general regret among all those interested in aquatics. Almost everybody must regret that such an excellent rower as O'Connor should have been connected with yesterday's affair at all. However, the fact remains that the champion and one who will likely hold his own against anybody. The easy way in which he left Gaudaur behind yesterday, and the excellent time he made under unfavorable circumstances, only tend to show that he is a better rower than either Teemer or Gaudaur; in fact it proves the correctness of his form when he defeated Teemer. O'Connor cannot well avoid going to Australia now, and if he goes Henry Searle will have to be the best sculler that ever sat in a boat to defeat him.

ABOUT ELMER SMITH.

Cincinnati Inclined to Trent the Pittsburger Somewhat Rigidly.

Elmer Smith still lingers outside the contract fold. He has shown no disposition to sign at liberal figures, and now it is the Cincinnati club's turn to repay him in kind. The club officers will pay no further attention to the Smoky City lad. Should he fail to sign before April 1 his salary will be $300 less than was offered him some weeks ago. For every day he remains outside the fold after that it will cost him $25, and if he is not with the team by April 15 his salary will be $1,200 for the season. This is the final decision of the Cincinnati club.

President Stern is confident that Manager Schmelz will unearth some phenomenon who will help the team in the exhibition games, if help is necessary. Manager Schmelz has been very fortunate in this regard. If the Enquirer readers remember, was in this way that Widner got his start. He was taken as a rank amateur by Manager Schmelz, and developed into a good player. Last year Manager Schmelz discovered young Weyhing. This year, with Long John Reilly's Springville phenomenon and young Yost, he will have material to select from. The Cincinnati club has not given up the idea of yet signing Hecker. They have never made a direct offer of any amount of money, but they stand in readiness to give as much as any other club in the Association.—Enquirer.

A PLEASANT EVENT.

The Third Annual Dinner of the J. H. Porte Fishing Club.

The third annual dinner of the J. H. Porte Fishing Club was held at the Monongahela House yesterday afternoon. It was really a grand affair, in fact it eclipsed all previous affairs of the kind. There were 31 guests present and the bill of fare was sumptuous enough for royalty. Among those present were James H. Porte, M. J. Lunn, Dr. Cotton, J. Sageman, J. W. Huge, G. H. Everson and others. The last named gentleman ably presided over the proceedings.

The excellent dinner was finished at 4:30 and then J. W. Hague then entertained the company with an interesting and instructive discourse on the Western and Northwestern hunting and fishing resorts. He illustrated his remarks with photographic pictures of various places that he has visited.

The club is, undoubtedly, one of the most harmonious in Western Pennsylvania. It is in excellent condition in all respects. The members have decided to camp in some part of Canada next summer. Mr. Porte will leave for Canada in a few days to select a camping place. The club will leave for camp on July 5.

What Blackburst Says.

Referring to the Glasscock case Attorney Blackburst says that there was no truth whatever in the statement that he was the attorney for the brotherhood, and he had no connection whatever with that organization. He said that he was, however, the attorney for Shortstop Glasscock, of the indianapolis club, and will go to Washington to-morrow to see President N. E. Young, of the League, and attempt to settle Glasscock's case with him, without an appeal to law. He thought that difficulties between clubs and their players should be settled between themselves, and that there should be no outside interference.

The Deacon at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, March 3.—"Deacon" White and family arrived yesterday from Detroit, and will reside here permanently. The "Deacon" does not say much about his intentions in regard to getting a release from Detroit, but says he will play with the Buffalo club or not play at all. When asked what he thought of the plan to send him to Pittsburg and Rowe to Boston, he replied that there was nothing in it, and that he had not the slightest intention to play in either of the cities.

They Will Fight.

CHICAGO, March 3.—"Parson" Davies left tonight for Boston, where he will conclude the final arrangements of the Ike Weir-Murphy fight. These celebrated feather-weights will positively come together between the 16th and 23d of the present month, within 40 miles of miles of Chicago, reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

A Lively Battle.

ASHLAND, WIS., March 3.—John Van Heisl, champion feather-weight of the Northwest, and Billy Welch fought 116 rounds, London prize ring rules, before a select crowd here today. The fight was given to Van Heisl. Welsh was fairly covered with blood and his right hand was broken.

Murphy Knocked Out.

CHICAGO, March 3.—Mike Murphy, of Duluth, was knocked out by Jack Cotton, of Chicago, in the eighth round of a hot fight near Riverside yesterday. The men are middleweights and were fighting for a purse of $600. About 300 people were present.

TO FIGHT JACKSON.

Patsey Cardiff Leaves for Frisco to Meet the Colored Man.

ST. PAUL, MINN., March 3.—Patsey Cardiff, accompanied by John Donaldson, his backer and trainer, started for San Francisco this morning. There was a big crowd of friends and sporting men at the Union depot to see them off and wish the Minneapolis boy success in his coming fight with Peter Jackson. Cardiff is in excellent health and spirits, and feels confident of defeating the colored champion. He now weighs 185 pounds, and will enter the ring at 180. They will avoid a long, continuous journey, and will make several stops along the route, when Cardiff and Donaldson will appear as exponents of the Delsartean art. While confident of winning the prize offered by the California Club, Cardiff has not underrated his opponent's abilities, and said:

"I am going out to California to make the fight of my life. I know I am going to meet a very clever and experienced boxer, but I will win just as sure as I will eat my breakfast tomorrow morning."

Donaldson took with him a considerable amount of Minneapolis money to wager on the result.

Sporting Notes.

A DISPATCH from New York states that John Kelly has signed to act as an Association umpire next season.

THE Cleveland club has done remarkably well in selling tickets. Up to March 1 the sales amounted to $8,500.

GIFFORD, who managed the Indianapolis, Syracuse and Columbus teams, is now an insurance agent at Columbus.

JIM HART has not yet agreed to manage the Des Moines club next season. He does not know whether or not he will do so.

J. A. HUGGINS, the champion rifle shot of this city, will leave the shooting gallery business next month. Rents are too high.

BALTIMORE will never make his mark as a pitcher, but the day is not far distant when he will be one of the best hitting outfielders in the profession.

THE Pittsburg club Carrolls sweetly for its big catcher to come and commence the Hanlon of Ed Morris' delivery, so as to be used to it before the season opens.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

IF the Pittsburg court should succeed in solving the momentous question, "What is the League?" thus defining its legal status, the Ball Players' Brotherhood will doubtless be under great obligations to it.—Sporting Life.

THE most economical players in the Association are Corkhill, Bill Gleason, Bushong, Somers, Nicol, Stovey, McPhee, Milligan and Comiskey. They are worth from $7,000 to $10,000. Nat Hudson and Bobbie Caruthers inherited small fortunes and are worth probably $55,000 each. Latham and Ramsay are notoriously improvident.
