The Dispatch. ESTABLISHED FEBRUARY 8, 1880. Vol. 44, No. 27.—Number 4 at Pittsburgh Post-office, November 18, 1887, as second-class matter.

Average circulation of the daily edition of The Dispatch for six months ending March 1, 1889. 27,988 Copies per issue.

Copies per issue. Circulation of the Sunday edition of The Dispatch for February, 1889. 45,144 Copies per issue.

TERMS OF THE DISPATCH. POSTAGE FREE IN THE UNITED STATES. DAILY DISPATCH, ONE YEAR, $10.00. DAILY DISPATCH, SIX MONTHS, $6.00. DAILY DISPATCH, THREE MONTHS, $3.50. DAILY DISPATCH, ONE MONTH, $1.00.

THE NEW CABINET. The official announcement of the Cabinet and its confirmation yesterday, put an end to the three months' speculation and wire-pulling concerning the composition of that important body.

THE RIVER COAL PROBLEM. The interview on the condition of the river coal trade, published elsewhere, sets forth specifically the need of that interest for relief and predicts a shut-down for the operators.

A POSSIBLE STANDARD MOVE. The news, given elsewhere by a special correspondent of THE DISPATCH, that the Standard is not only buying the oil producing territory in the Ohio field but is quietly absorbing all of the Pennsylvania region it can get into its grip.

INDIVIDUAL LITIGATION. The complication of perjury, libel and assault and battery cases, which has grown out of the Law and Order prosecutions, has reached a degree which exhibits personal and vindictive prosecutions rather than an impartial desire to punish wrong-doing.

DEATHS OF A DAY. JOHN BAIRD. JOHN BAIRD, of the Buffalo Express, who was killed by a falling stone from a building under construction in Buffalo, N. Y., on Monday last.
