Improved Demand. WHEAT BULLS IN LEAD AT LATEST

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH, FRIDAY, March 8, 1889. Country Produce-Jobbing Prices. There has been an active movement in but ter, eggs and cheese all the week. Produce men report a livelier trade to-day than for some weeks past, but there is still wide room for improvement before business becomes satisfac-tory. The trials and tribulations of oleomargarine dealers have stimulated butter trade. The advent of Lent has brought greater activity to cheese and eggs. In large lots the best eggs can be bought at 15c. No improvement can be reported in fruit and vegetable trade. Potatoes, onions and cabbage are as dull as ever, and, if possible, more so as the time for ever, and, if possible, more so as the time for new crop approaches. Choice apples and trop-cal fruit show signs of improvement, but there is nothing akin to a boom in either line. Groceries. In general grocery lines the strong factors are coffee and sugar. The firmness of package coffee shows that times were ripe for the late advance, and points to another rise before many days. Lake herring have dropped in the past week, owing to competition and cutting on the part of leading dealers. Prices at reduction are ruinous to all concerned, as the herring cannot be produced at present quotations without loss. Dealers in salted fish report a decided improvement in trade the past week, and greater activity than a year ago at this time.

along the line. Saturday must furnish favorable weather and unusually active demand in order to keep up a fair record for the week:

Oleo dealers at Diamond markets do not feel at all amiable toward the actions of Law and Order Society. Heavy fines have knocked out trade in this line, and as a result there is an active demand for unadulterated butter at advanced prices.

A countryman, who pays weekly visits to our markets, puts the changed situation in the following terms:

Two weeks ago in my region of country second grade butter was very slow at 15c, but for a few days past it has been active at 25c." There does not appear to be enough reliable butter to go around. A leading dealer in fish and dysters thus puts the situation of his trade. "Our business has improved the past week, and while there is no boom, trade is on a solid basis and we have done 25 per cent better than last week. Oyster trade had begun to slack up a little, but it has fully regained lost ground since Lent began, and will now hold up till the fast is over. He can easily tell when Lent artives without consuiting the calendar, or hear go around. A leading dealer in fish and oysters thus puts the situation of his trade. little, but it has fully regained lost ground since Lent began, and will now hold up till the fast is over. He can easily tell when Lent artives without consuiting the calendar, or hearing from ecclesiastical authorities."

Lenten Luxuries.

The first fresh red salmon and codfish of the season have been on the stalls this week. The former came from the Pacific coast. Outside of these two lines the trade is still confined to frozen fish. As the trade in fish and oysters has improved, the demand in staple meats shows a decline. Prices of the latter are the same as last fall, when steers were fully 2c per pound above present rates.

The game season is at an end. Young jack snipe, teal and mallard ducks will appear on the stalls next week.

Florists report everything in their line as very quiet since Ash Wednesday. Bottom at once dropped out of trade. Said a leading florist to-day: "We are now going through the experience we look for the first week or two of Lent. In a few days the non-believers in Lent. Who comprise a majority of our patrons, will come to the rescue of trade."

The first pansies of the season put in their appearance at the floral stands this week.

BOSTON—There has been a little more demand for choice domestic wool during the past week, and prices have been on a steadier hasis. Stocks are greatly reduced, and the few fine fleeces remaining are held above the present views of buyers. The sales for the week comprise 1,185,600 pounds of domestic and 375,000 pounds of foreign. Ohio fleeces sold at 31@34c, including X and XX: higher grades of XXX are held at 30@35c. Michigan X sold at 31c and a shade under, but the grade was rather heavy; fine lots are held at 31/2@32c. Territory and other unwashed fleeces sold to a great extent at previous prices, say 18@25c. A few lots of Kentucky and Indiana sold at 25@30c. Pulled wools have been in fair receipt, and have sold freely at slight concessions. Numerous small lots of scoured sold at various prices, from 25c to 62%c. Australian wool sold at 48@42c.

The highest price was $1%, shortly after the opening, and the lowest $90%. Some dealers predicted lower figures for to-day. "It looks bad," said one operator. It was stated that the February reduction would reach 1,000,000 barrels. There was a report in some quarters that Ohio Oil was to be equalized in value with the Pennsylvania product and made certificate oil. This is an old scheme revived, but the report is plausible for all that. It is certain that Ohio oil has become one of the principal bearish influences on the market.

N. foundation has been laid and the floor of the vault, composed of heavy blocks of chilled metal, is well under way. The vault will be the most expensive strong box in Pittsburg, costing $75,000. The highest priced vault in New York cost $350,000. While being much larger, it is admitted to be less secure than the Fidelity vault. When completed it is the intention of the patentees o give experts at lock-picking and safesmashing an opportunity to show their skill by placing a large sum of money in the vault and giving it to any one who can get it. The severest tests will be invited. According to a statement just made public, to less than 39 wells have been drilled for gas during the past year along the lake shore, be-tween Erie and Cleveland. None of them have been failures. The wells, although not very strong, produce a steady flow sufficient for local needs. A few of the numerous wells drilled at Painesville are not as strong as at first, but the majority of the 39 are considered stronger than when first struck. Not much has been heard of late of the gas well sunk in Newburg, Cleveland. A gas well sunk by W. M. Barton, at Wesleyville, Erle county, Pa., is one of the strongest gassers that has yet been struck on the lake shore. The last heavy yein was struck at a depth of 700 feet, after pene-trating 20 feet of black shale. It will be drilled 200 feet deeper if the present powerful pressure of gas can be controlled. "A good deal has been said about the large "A good deal has been said about the large number of mortgages that are being placed this season, and fears expressed that people were rushing recklessly into debt," remarked a real estate dealer yesterday. "Ordinarilythis fact would be a bad indication," he continued, "but the conditions under which they are being placed are peculiar. Very little of the money thus raised has been or will be used for specuthus raised has been or will be used for specurity thus raised has been or will be used for specurity the purposes. The most of it has been invested in real estate. This is the way it is done: Mr. Smith, we will say, owns a property valued at $5,000. He knows that there is a great demand for unimproved lots, and that their value is steadily enhancing. He sees a lot that he can purchase at a fair price say $1,000. He puts $1,000 and it is an anadome profit. Then he buys another lot and so on. I know of several such cases. Two or three of my acquaintances have become correspondingly wealthy by putsuing this course. They don't endanger their homes. The mortgages are not debts in the ordinary sense. Not only the original obligation is provided for, but there is a surplus to fall back to in case of need. In this riew of the case, which is the correct one so far as Pittsburg people are concerned, mortgages are not so great an evil as they are generally represented to be in case of need. Scraps of tinned fron have long been a water product, whose application, for any purpose worthy of the intrinsic value of the metals contained in them, has been an unsolved problem. It is true that scraps of this kind have been cast, but the hardness and granular structure render the metal fit only for use as weight, Now, however, they are coming into use for nails. Scraps of tin are cut by dues into rectangular bits, with a length of about t lative purposes. The most of it has been invested in real estate. This is the way it is times their width. These scraps are then fed from an automatic hopper between dies, when they are squeezed first to square form, like a well fitted for many purposes, being free from tendency to rust, also light, very rigid, and capable of being driven into the hardest wood without buckling.

SURPRISING RUMORS Circulated on Wall Street Exert a Bearish Influence on Stocks, but No Serious Losses Are Incurred-Railroad Bonds Without Material Change. NEW YORK, March 8.-The dullness in the stock market was more marked to-day than at any time in the present year, and the finctuations were strictly on a par with the business done, the final results of the day's transactions being entirely insignificant, except in a few isolated cases. The general temper of opera-tors was bullish, and in response to this feeling tric and Switch and Signal, both of which made | there was some improvement made in quotations until the prevailing duliness encouraged attacks upon a few stocks and so turned the course of the limited fluctuations. Of the news of the day that was favorable, the most influential were the declaration of the dividend upon Missouri Pacific of 1 per cent, the advices from the situation or prospects of the company. It closed at 38% bid and 38% asked. There was no special feature to the rest of the list, which was about steady and duil. Bids and offers by the railroads by Mr. Walker was almost a certainty, and the news from Paris that the Bank of France had come to the aid of the copper syndicate.

There was the usual batch of reports from Chicago in regard to the cutting of rates in the Northwest, but no other news of a character to affect prices unfavorably was received. In the early morning St. Paul was a marked feature, both for its animation and the rise in its price against the undoubted selling of a large block by London, and the behavior of the stock gave rise to considerable comment and the sasertion that there is a powerful pool operating in it, gained more believers. Mr. Armour was said to be a member of the pool, while some parties thought that the support given to the stock came from the backers. Tennessee Coal was also a strong feature at this time of the day, and reached higher figures than ever. Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis became specially strong, though being very dull attracted little attention. Manhattan continued its reaction from the high prices of last week and the other Gould stocks suffered somewhat in sympathy after the pressure was brought upon the list. The Coal stocks were the special point of attack, and Lackawanna and Reading in the afternoon yielded fractionally. The latter stock was especially hard pressed, but while it was forced down below 46 for the first time in many weeks the result of the raid was a loss of less than a point. early morning St. Paul was a marked feature. ally. The latter stock was especially hard pressed, but while it was forced down below 46 for the first time in many weeks the result of the raid was a less of less than a point.

The dullness was the principal feature at the opening and most stocks were but slightly changed from last evening's figures, Missouri Pacific being the only exception, with a gain of 2 per cent. Tennessee Coal was the strong feature, although St. Paul was very active and slowly advanced, and these two stocks monopolized the market during the forenoon, when the bears got to work toward noon. Manhattan was the first to give way and Tennessee Coal followed, losing a large portion of the early gain, but the pressure was transferred to the Coalers, and Lackawanna and Reading became the leaders, both in activity and weakness. The extreme decline outside of Manhattan, however, was only 1 per cent. In Rock Island, and the effort was given up toward delivery hour, when the market settled down to dullness and stagnation, and finally closed dull and steady at but slight changes in most of the list.

The dullness extended to the dealings in railroad bonds, and while as in shares there were a large number of issues traded in, the aggregate amount of business done was small, and no special animation was shown in any one issue. The sales reached $81,317,000. There was considerable irregularity in the market, but a firm tone prevailed in most parts of the list, and while the final changes in but few cases are for more than fractional amounts, advances are most numerous. The most conspicuous upward movements were Syracuse, Binghamton and New York firsts 4, to 183; Green Bay firsts 7, to 83; Illinois Central registered 3½'s 2½, to 92½; Mahoning Coal firsts 2 to 111; Lhattanooga seconus 2, to 118, and Utah Southern Extension 7's 2½, to 105.

Our little girl when but three weeks old broke out with eczema. We tried the prescription from several good doctors, but without any special benefit. We tried S. S., and by the time one bottle was gone, her head began to heal, and by the time she had taken six bottles she was completely cured. Now she has a full and heavy head of hair—a robust, healthy child. I feel it but my duty to make this statement.

Burdock Blood Bit-ters cured me of oft-recurring Sick Head-ache, from which I have suffered for years, often rendering labor impossible.

CHARLESTOWN, MASS,
I thank you for the great good BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS have done me. I was long subject to very severe Sick Headache. By using two bottles I was permanently cured.
