Nine children have died within the last four days, and a number of others are down with the disease, which has appread rapidly in the lower end of the county. So violent has the disease become in St. Petersburg, that the schools have been closed, and the Council has passed an ordinance prohibiting the holding of any public meetings.

In nearly every case where the disease has been allowed to get a start, it has resulted fatally to the victim. At present the disease is confined almost entirely to children between the ages of 5 and 15 years.

Maholm, May 1, 1883, had its sequel to-day in a sensational di-vorce suit brought by the wife. Purify Your Blood

When spring approaches, it is very important that the blood should be purified, as at this sea son impurities which have been accumulating for months or even years, are liable to mani fest themselves and seriously affect the health. Hood's Sarsaparilia is undoubtedly the best blood purifier. It expels every taint, drives out scrofulous humors, and gives to the blood the quality and tone essential to good health.

"My daughter suffered terribly with sore eyes, caused by scrofula humor. We were obliged to keep her out of school for two years. We had medical attendance, but she failed to gain relief. At last, knowing that Hood's Saraparilla had cured my mother of rheumaand believing it must be good for the blood, I concluded to have my daughter try it and it has entirely cured her." THE LAW AS THE BARRIER.

An Alleged False Return of Election of Justice of the Peace-It is Met by a Prompt

Suit-Other Law Points. A contest in the election of J. S. Powers as a Justice of the Peace in Patton township was commenced yesterday. A petition was filed, in which the petitioners claim that the returns were false and that J. S. Powers was not elected. The three candidates were William N. Haymaker, J. S. Powers and

James C. McClintock.

The returns were as follows: Powers, 154:
Haymaker, 152; McClintock, 155. There were two to elect. The petitioners say that in the First district the vote of George Barckley was taken, and that he is not a resident of the township; also, that there were a number of DIMMEY'S CHANCE FOR LIFE.

The Convicted Murderer's Jury Drank Whisky, So He Profited by It.

Joseph Dimmey, who was convicted of mur-der in the first degree for the killing of Special Officer Miller, of Allegheny, has been granted a new trial. Judge Collier yesterday handed nation of the character of the ministers. The character of every member of the conference commenting on the testimony taken on the motion before the Commissioner. The only reason for a new trial filed in the case worthy of consideration, he said, was the one charging misconduct on the part of the jury. The act of the jury sending out a card that he would not be home, that night was irregular, but not sufficient to grant a new trial on.

As to the statement concerning the remark made by Juror Niemann about "niggers," which Mr. Niemann denied, the Court did not feel justified in saying that Mr. Niemann was guilty of wilful falsification.

The fact was clearly established, he continued, that at least six of the jurors obtained and drank whisky. It was claimed that none of the jurors were affected by the drinks but to determine what effect whisky would have on each juror would be a hopeless task, and it was held that the unauthorized use of intoxicating liquors by the jury is such misconduct as will vitiate their verdict, and this on the ground of public policy.

The discharge of George Horers one of the motion before the Commissioner. The only public policy.

The discharge of George Hoerr, one of the officers in charge of the jury, was recommended for procuring jurors whisky. Judge Siagle concurred in the opinion.

THEY CANNOT WITHDRAW IT.

A Voluntary Non-Suit, Once Entered, Must Hold as Binding. Judge Siagle yesterday handed down an opinion refusing to take off the voluntary non-suit in the case of the Riverside Glassworks against the Kittanning Insurance Company. Continuing, Judge Slagle said:

Continuing, Judge Slagle said:

"A compulsory non-suit is a judgment of the Court, and for a reasonable time within its control; but a voluntary non-suit, is the action of the plaintiff himself, by which he takes himself out of court, and the defendant with him. The Court would have no power to compel the defendant to return without his consent or new process. The motion of the plaintiff must therefore be refused."

This decision settles a much disputed point, as to whether a voluntary non-suit could be stricken off and a case taken up again.

The will was one wherein the property was left to the wife and child of the deceased, but a later will is presented, unsigned and undated, leaving the estate to an only son. The cross examination and the addresses by counsel were able and well made. At the conclusion Judge Etphinstone reserved his decision.

EMMA PERRY yesterday entered suit against the Northside Bridge Company, owning the the Northside Bridge Company, owning the bridge crossing the Allegheny river at Seventh street, for $50,000 damages. The damages, she claims, was caused to her property by the building of the bridge. She owns the houses on Duquesme way between Eighth street and Maddock's alley, and the grade of the street was raised so high, to build an approach to the bridge, that it has rendered her property almost inaccessible. To remedy the matter she would have to raise the buildings up to grade, which would cost almost as much as they are worth, or else the buildings would have to be torn down and rebuilt.

Josiah Barrett yesterday filed a bill in equity against the Duff Manufacturing Company, Limited, asking for a decree dissolving the company and the appointment of a receiver. Barrett is a partner in the association, which was formed for the manufacture of jack-screws, rolling mill housings, etc. He claims that Peter J. Urling, James B. Young and William W. Young have not paid the full amount of their subscriptions on the stock held by them, but are each indebted in the sum of $2,000. Beside its alleged fraudulent notes, he claims that the company is insolvent and is unable to pay its debts; that it is mismanaged, proper books are not kept, and no inventory of stock has been taken since he went into the company.
