UMPIRE DECKER LOSES HIS LAWSUIT

Judge Magee had a case before him in the Criminal Court yesterday that was as odd a one as has been in the court for a long time. It was the surety of the peace case of Peter Keitz against Miss Christine Hornberger, both of the Southside.

Mr. Keitz is a married man, and claims that Miss Hornberger follows him on the street and calls at his house at night, annoying him constantly.

When Miss Hornburger was called on for her side of the case, she burst out with a volume of assertions that astonished the whole courtroom. She said that she was 34 years of age, and knew Keitz for 18 years, and that she has been under a magnetic spell put upon her by him, all that time. She is completely subject to his will, and he takes possession of her when he pleases. She can't help herself, and only wants released from his power. After he has put his spell on her she feels as if her whole spine had been taken from her, and suffers terribly. She plunged into an explanation of magnetism, mesmerism, psychology, hipnotism, etc., etc., and begged the Judge to release her from Keitz's thrall. She said she wouldn't believe him on oath, that he would say or do anything, and she wanted the Court to stop his work. She would not listen to any remarks that it was a hallucination she was laboring under, but said she was as sane as anyone, but they did not understand her.

John Robb, attorney for Mr. Keitz, said there was only one thing to do, and that was to send the woman to jail to cure her. He recited a case of his own that occurred some years ago, when a man followed him about for weeks. He did not know him, but the man attempted to shoot him in court one day and was arrested. Judge White sent him to jail, and after he was released he never troubled him again.

Judge Magee was in a quandary, but after a short dialogue, in which the woman did most of the talking, he said he would try her for a week, and if she did not let Keitz alone he would commit her to jail.

Clerk Long, as the woman was leaving the courtroom, presented her with a buck-eye which, he told her, would as long as she kept it in her pocket prevent Keitz from exercising his influence over her. She waved him away, and with a smile, said she was sane enough and to keep the charm for himself; he needed it. Mr. Long's little ruse was greeted with laughter by those in the court.

The woman was poorly dressed, but was withal of comely appearance. She is well educated and intelligent on all but the idea connected with Keitz. The witnesses examined said that that was the only point on which she was not sane.

DOWN GOES DECKER,

So Far as His Suit Against the National League is Concerned.

Judge Stagle yesterday filed opinions in the case of Umpire Decker against the National League of Baseball Clubs for salary, on the demurrer, filed by the defendant, to the plaintiff's statement, and also on the motion to set aside the service of the writ in the suit. The principal point in the demurrer and motion was that the suit was improperly brought, as the League was not a regular corporation, and the question was raised, "What is the League?" The Judge, in his opinion on the motion to set aside service of the writ, said: "If the defendant is a corporation the service in the case is properly made on the President and one of the directors. It is not named as such in the writ or statement. This would perhaps be good grounds for demurrer, but cannot be taken advantage of upon the motion to set aside the service."

On the demurrer His Honor says: "The statement in the case set out at length a correspondence with N. E. Young, one of the defendants, by which the contract upon which suit is brought is alleged to have been made. It is not necessary in passing upon the demurrer to construe this contract, or determine what may be the liability created by it. This might depend upon the character of the organization which he professed to represent and the extent of his power to bind it.

"The grounds of demurrer are all well taken, if it is intended to charge the persons named as co-partners under the name of the National League of Baseball Clubs it should be so stated. It is not pretended that Rodgers and Day took any part in making the contract, and, unless they are partners with Young, his action would not bind them.

"The claim for damages is in the nature of a tort, and can only be recovered in trespass. The demurrer is therefore sustained."

The Judge also granted the request giving the defendants 15 days in which to answer or demur.

ELECTIONS FAIL TO ELECT.

Bethel and Baldwin Townships Trot Out Cases to Prove It.

A contest for the position of Justice of the Peace of Bethel township was commenced in the Quarter Sessions Court yesterday. The candidates for the position at the last election were Wm. Woods and Thomas Roach, and the latter was declared elected by a majority of 13 votes over Woods. A petition was filed yesterday by Woods in which he asks that the election of Roach be declared null and void. He states that Roach, while a candidate for the position of Justice of the Peace, was also inspector of said elections, which was illegal, as he could not be a candidate and at the same time act as inspector.

In the contested election of Nicholas Hogue as Justice of the Peace of Baldwin township, Hogue yesterday filed his answer to the allegations of F. O. Wolf, the contestant. Hogue states that there were to be two vacancies to be filed, and Wolf and Thomas McGovern were the candidates to succeed Wolf, and that Hogue was a candidate to succeed himself, having been appointed by the Governor to fill a vacancy until the next election, caused by failure on his own part to file an acceptance within 30 days after his election at the general election in February, 1888. Wolf, he holds, was defeated by McGovern, his opponent, while he was elected. He asserts that at any rate he received a majority over Wolf, 30 of whose votes were illegal. He wants the court to order the examination of the tally sheets, ballot boxes and registry of voters.

Lines From Legal Quarters.

JOHN D. MCKENNAN was yesterday appointed master in the case of William F. Knox against the Monongahela Navigation Company.

JAMES MORROW and J. P. Hull were yesterday appointed appraisers of the effects of H. Adler & Co., who have assigned to J. H. Lytle.

JOHN M. TIERNAN yesterday filed a bill in equity against Michael Tiernan and others, heirs of Michael Tiernan, deceased, asking for a partition of the estate.

A PETITION was filed yesterday by the Bankers and Bank Clerks' Association asking leave to amend their charter to make the death benefits $1,000 instead of $500.

PAUL SHEPARDSON was yesterday found guilty of embezzling $400 belonging to Typographical Union No. 7, and was recommended to the mercy of the Court. He will be sentenced on Monday.

THE jury in the case of the half dozen newsboys who were on trial for the larceny of some goods from Watts' store, on Wood street, went out at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and were not in when court adjourned in the afternoon.

IN the suit of Jeff Stapley against Mrs. Maggie M. Schaner, an action on a note for $1,000, a verdict was rendered, yesterday, for the defendant. Mrs. Schaner's defense was that she had never given the note and that it was a forgery.

A PETITION was filed in the Quarter Sessions Court yesterday by the Burgess and Town Council of Beltzhoover borough, asking for the appointment of James Hollis and John Cochran as auditors of the borough in place of W. B. F. Brown and George Sellers, who were elected at the last election but resigned.

A MOTION for a new trial was made yesterday in the treasure trove suit of Warren against Ulrich, in which a verdict had been rendered for Warren, giving him the money found on Ulrich's premises. A motion for a new trial was also made in the Clarion county case of J. R. Foster against W. P. Calmer and T. S. Wilson, on alleged forged notes.

AN argument was made before Judge Magee yesterday asking for a new trial in the equity case of James M. Verner vs B. H. Scott and wife for damages to a farm. The case was tried last week and a verdict for $2,400 granted. It is now claimed that the verdict submitted was not the one agreed on by the jury, but through a misapprehension of words, the verdict was made to read $2,400 instead of $1,400. A decision will be rendered next week.

A DECREE in divorce was yesterday granted to Mrs. Agnes K. Scott, from her husband, John K. Scott. The suit was the outgrowth of the quarrel between Scott and Dr. Bingaman. Decrees in divorce were also granted in the cases of Belle E. Dailey against Joseph A. Dailey; Sarah A. Brown against William D. Brown; Lena Daum against John Daum, and George W. Winn against Mary J. Winn. Judge Slagle refused, for lack of proof, to grant a divorce in the case of Jessie E. Bruce against Charles Bruce, in which cruel and barbarous treatment was alleged.

IN the habeas corpus proceedings of Daniel McGrath against his wife, Rosella McGrath, to bring into court their infant child, Laura May, an order was made yesterday, returning the child to its mother. It was decreed, however, that on every Lord's Day the child be taken to the father's residence on Forty-third street and left with him from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M., at which hour she is to be returned to her mother. The proceedings were instituted by McGrath to enable him to get a chance to see the child.

LAYER ICE CREAM CAKE.

Two cups granulated sugar, three-fourths cup butter, beat to a light cream, then add 1 cup corn starch, which has been stirred into 1 cup tepid sweet milk; beat this all together, adding 1 teaspoonful extract vanilla. Stir into this the well beaten whites of 7 eggs and 2 heaping cups of flour, having thoroughly mixed through the dry flour 1½ measures "BANNER" Baking Powder. Bake in 3 layers.

ICING—Take 2½ cups granulated sugar, half cup water; boil 3 minutes; when cool add the whites of 3 eggs slightly beaten, and 1 tablespoonful extract vanilla.

The "Banner" Powder is made from the highest test (99 per cent) pure cream tartar. It does not contain alum, ammonia or bone dust; therefore it stands at the head of the list for perfect purity. Many families have used the "Banner" Powder for 25 years.

The "Banner Recipe Book" is replete with valuable household information for baking tea biscuit, rolls, muffins and all kinds of fancy cakes; instructions for roasting meats, fish and fowl; for preparing French and moyannaise dressings and making all kinds of desserts. Every lady should have one of these books.

Order a pound can with the Banner Recipe Book from your grocer. If he cannot supply the book, send your address to B. B. Powder Co., P. O. Box 245, Pittsburg, Pa., and we will mail it free.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

—A religious enthusiast at Bridgewater, Adair county, Iowa, has been preaching and fasting for forty days and nights, and closed his term of fasting Tuesday night with a big supper. He has created much interest and excitement at the place named.

—A convention of nailers, representing Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey, was held in Harrisburg, Friday night. The general sentiment was that the present scale of wages is not too high, and the delegates resolved to assist their brother nailers, who at this time are resisting a reduction.

—Judge Daniels fined Chauncey Kerr, Hugh J. Conuell and Lawrence Quinn $25 each yesterday morning, for making a demonstration in court when Thomas B. Kerr, the alleged New York boodler, was acquitted. The offenders were the brother, brother-in-law and bookkeeper of Kerr, respectively.

—J. E. Powell, a temperance lecturer from Missouri, died at Kentucky Junction yesterday of delirium tremens. He came here about two weeks ago to lecture, but got drunk. Papers on his person show that he was once editor of the Philadelphia Star, and that he resigned the assistant cashiership of the Kansas City Savings Bank to go on the road as a temperance lecturer.

—Edgar Swan, of Lynn, paying teller of the National City Bank, of Lynn, Mass., was before Commissioner Hallett yesterday forenoon, at Boston, on complaint of Bank Examiner Gatchell, charged with being a defaulter to a very large amount. The total amount is reported to be $68,595. Of this, however, Mr. Swan has restored to the bank 80 shares of Thomson-Houston stock; 50 shares of the same pledged with an equity of about $3,200; 50 shares of Chicago, Kansas and Western Railroad about $3,000, and additional sums bringing the amount restored up to $33,450. Swan is 35 years old, and has hitherto bore a good character. He has a wife and two children, and has lived beyond his income in the endeavor to support them in style.

—The Chinese Ambassador at Washington has been notified of the disturbance that occurred in Milwaukee early in the week. He has sent word through Chow Tai, the representative of the Six Companies, that the Chinese Government will insist upon full indemnification for any damage that may have been done to the property of Chinamen during the disturbances. The Ambassador says that when, in certain Chinese cities, the American residents were attacked and their buildings burned, the Chinese Government erected new buildings and made complete restitution. Braced up by this backing from the Flowery Kingdom, the different Chinamen who sustained damage will present their claims to the city, and in case they are not paid will begin suit.
