CATHEDRAL'S BEAUTY

May be Restored Within the Grant Street Edifice This Spring.

AN IMPROVEMENT TO COST $15,000

In Contemplation by the Bishop and His Fellow Clergymen.

ARTISTIC FRESCOING FOR AN INTERIOR

A restoration for the interior of St. Paul's Cathedral is contemplated. For some time past the Bishop, and the head clergyman at the Grant street Episcopal residence, Rev. Father Wall, have been figuring upon the cost of a complete renovation of the big church. It was conceded to be a costly enterprise and the heavy indebtedness hanging over the congregation has been the stumbling block all along.

It was recognized that the Cathedral's interior was badly in need of some overhauling. It is now so dirty as to be almost unsightly. The effects of finer workmanship on the walls and ceilings are nearly all lost on account of the dust and soot that has settled upon the architraves and sculptured corner-pieces. Because of this gradual disappearance of white a gloomy appearance fills the whole of the noble edifice. The walls and ceilings once more of pure white would throw much of the daylight into the pews.

The proposed improvement is the frescoing of the walls and ceiling. It would cost about $15,000. Of course if that expense is gone to the very best frescoing will be demanded, and artists from the East would be engaged on the work. The latest designs from the cathedrals of Europe would be copied. The last cleaning the walls and ceiling got was in 1877, and then it was only kalsomining.

It was learned at the Episcopal residence yesterday afternoon that the frescoing will be commenced this spring and finished by the middle of the summer. It will be a task of considerable difficulty and risk owing to the extreme loftiness of the ceilings. Scaffolding would have to be erected with the greatest care, an immense amount of lumber would be necessary, and the grand dome which rises over 100 feet above the floor of the inner sanctuary will almost baffle the skill of engineers to touch and work upon its ceiling.

At first it was thought it would be necessary to hold church services down in the basement while the work is in progress, but architects have assured the priests that the scaffolding would not interfere with the holding of services in the regular auditorium.

A DRUNKEN YOUNG WITNESS.

Judge Ewing Takes Occasion to Bring One Featherless Goose Up With a Very Sharp Turn—Other Court News.

A verdict for $318 25 for the plaintiff was rendered yesterday in the case of John H. Shoenberger against Charles Kline. The suit was for the price of sand which, it was charged, Kline had taken from Shoenberger's sand bank,above what he had paid to be allowed to take.

During the trial one of the witnesses was severely scored by Judge Ewing for being under the influence of liquor. It was noticed in the morning that the man was intoxicated, and he was not allowed to leave the courtroom all day. At the noon recess he was placed in the charge of a tipstaff, who prevented him from going out. When he was placed in the witness box he was so mixed up that he could not testify.

Judge Ewing observing his condition at once sentenced him 24 hours to jail for contempt of court. At the adjournment of court several of the young man's friends begged the Judge to be lenient with him. It was shown that he did not have a drink since court opened, and the man himself said he had not had drink that day, though he had had several the day before Judge Ewing finally annulled the sentence,and, after giving him a severe lecture on his offense, allowed him to go.

A COLORED MAN'S INDIGNATION

Takes the Form of a $5,000 Suit for Being Refused a Seat at an Opern.

C. H. Bell, colored, yesterday entered suit against R. M. Gulick & Co., managers of the Bijou Theater, for $5,000 damages, for being refused a seat under a $1 50 reserved seat ticket for "Il Trovatore," performed by the new American Opera Company on December 21, 1888.

Lines From Legal Quarters.

JOSEPH BAYLESS yesterday sued R. L. Kent for $3,000, for slander.

THE Mechanics' National Bank of Pittsburg, yesterday sued the Grand Lake Coal Company for $3,358 62, on a promissory note.

THE case of C. W. Goldstrom against Forward township for a team injured by a bad road, is on trial before Judge Collier.

THE case of Joseph Langdon against Chartiers township, for injuries resulting from a bad board walk, is on trial before Judge Stowe.

A. A. MILLIGAN, a wholesale dealer in beer, yesterday, to prevent alleged fraud and conversion, obtained an attachment against the goods of Thomas E. Wells on a debt for $660 for beer delivered.

APPEALS were taken yesterday in the cases of Matthias Weiss, Ed Skees, J. Miller, D. W. Baird, Charles F. George, John Goettman and Samuel M. Miller, who were prosecuted before Alderman Carlisle for selling oleomargarine, and whose cases were heard last Friday.

THE suit of Joseph Schneider and Philip Doll against Jacob Bauscher, a hill baker, were tried and yielded verdicts for $10 each, before Judge Stowe yesterday. Bauscher observed Schneider and Doll distributing Bakers' Union boycott circulars against him and arrested them himself, taking them before an Alderman. They were released and entered suits.

A STRANGE case was placed on trial before Judge Ewing yesterday. It is that of Mrs. Elizabeth Kerr against George Elbourne for damages for the death of her husband, who became intoxicated at Elbourne's, fought with a fellow named Nickline, and was killed about one year ago, all of which, Mrs. Kerr alleges, was due to selling Kerr liquor both before and after his intoxication.

THE case of Perry Bailey, of the Porter Detective Agency, charged by Jennie Davis with criminal assault, was finished in the Criminal Court yesterday and the jury is out. During the progress of the trial yesterday, while a brother of the defendant was on the stand making some serious statements about the character of the prosecutrix, she threw up both hands and fell over in a faint. She was removed to the judges' chamber and the trial proceeded.

THE grand jury yesterday indicted Mary Barrington, Rosanna Flood and Elizabeth Hart for selling liquor without license; Henry Baker for selling liquor in a local option district; August Haff, Philip Keller and Catherine McFarland for selling liquor in a prohibitory district; Mary Gallagher and Carrie Rudolph for selling and furnishing liquor on Sunday and selling liquor without a license; Henry Rupp and Gottlieb Gilgen for embezzlement. Ignored: Joseph D. Franks, Jennie Morgan, Annie McIntyre, James McGrogan and Herman Schuckman, selling liquor without license; Gothart Koch, Christine Koch, selling liquor without license and selling and furnishing liquor on Sunday; George Hoagley, J. W. Hyer, furnishing liquor to minors; George Taylor, selling liquor in a local option district; Carrie Rudolph, keeping a disorderly house.

THE INDIANA OPERATORS.

They Think They Will be Able to Reduce Wages.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 19.—The coal operators continued their meeting at Terre Haute until a late hour last night, when an adjournment was taken. They will present a solid front to the miners on the scale question and will demand a reduction from last year's scale, which expires on the 1st. How much reduction they will ask they refuse to make public at present, as they expect to hold a conference with the miners in the near future.

At this conference no particular organization of miners will be recognized, but a conference with miners in general is courted. The operators are hopeful that a scale can be adjusted which will suit all parties. The coming conference will probably be held at Brazil.

MRS. DR. CROSSLEY,

One of the Consulting Physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute at 22 Ninth street.

Mr. James Critchlow, residing on Carnegie street, this city, has for 15 years undergone terrible suffering from his stomach. At times it would give him such pain that he could only live on lime water and milk. He had great distress and bloating after eating, with belching of gas. His liver also gave him much pain, and his tongue had a yellow coating. He had a pressure and pain over the eyes. He lost all ambition and kept getting worse until he was unable to do any work. One doctor said he had cancer of the stomach. After trying 11 doctors all to no purpose, he began treatment with the physicians of the Catarrh and Dyspepsia Institute, and although 67 years old, he now works every day and feels well and hearty. He says: "That I am cured of the above conditions I hereby sign my name.

"JAMES CRITCHLOW."

The above lady physician can be consulted by ladies suffering from diseases peculiar to their sex. The medicines used are positively curative, and are so prepared as to allow the patient to use the treatment herself. They treat successfully catarrh, rheumatism, dyspepsia, bronichitis, asthma, blood, kidney and female diseases.

Office hours, 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., and 6 to 8 P. M. Sundays, 12 to 4 P. M. Consultation free to all. Treatment also by correspondence.

A VALUABLE EXPERIENCE.

One of the Most Worthy Men of the State Gives the Public the Benefit of Some Truths Drawn From His Long Life.

I was passing along a street in Brooklyn recently when I saw a venerable and benevolent looking old gentleman assisting a younger and feeble man along the street. The scene was such an unusual one, that I volunteered my help to the elderly man, and learned that he was the well-known doctor T. S. Wilcox, and that he was helping the younger man, who was a consumptive, to an Institution of which he had charge. I accompanied them, assisting as best I could, and asked the elderly gentleman some questions touching his past history and his rich experiences of life. He replied that he thought he could put the matter more clearly in writing, and at my request gave me the following statement:

"I have been in the general practice of medicine for fifty years, being now over seventy years of age, and have charge of the Sanitarian Hospital, located at No. 105 Lawrence street, Brooklyn, N. Y. During my lifetime of practice I have found that more than one-third of all deaths arise from consumption of the lungs or some lung trouble. For a century doctors have tried to reach and overcome this disease, but have never succeeded. Few people who have lung trouble know it; few people realize their danger until it is too late. After a thorough trial of all known remedies, I have settled down to the use of pure stimulants for all lung difficulties, and I find nothing so pure or valuable as Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. One of the superior advantages possessed only by this whiskey, is its tonic power. It not only checks the waste of lung tissue but it tones and builds up the system wonderfully. In the Sanitarian and in my general practice, I use it constantly and I have never known it to fail me."

I was greatly impressed by the sincerity and truth of Dr. Wilcox, and believe his statement can be made of great value to all.

Boys' and Children's Clothing.

Such Clothing as we have for them this spring is not to be seen elsewhere: Such style, variety and quality. The best we can say is that our suits wear better, and that you'll save money in buying them.

Our Clothing is all-wool, and the colors are fast. It is such Clothing as stands either sort of thunder-gust—that of the skies or that of the shops.

Why shouldn't it, when it is handsome in the designs, superior in the making, and getting better and better known every day, for its good quality and fair prices?

Whether its our goods or our prices, or both—trade is increasing.

Boys' and Children's Clothing

Our formal Opening of new Spring Styles cannot help but attract the attention of all thinking people. If it is worth something to buy your Boys' Clothing at a store that sells none but thoroughly reliable goods, made according to the latest prevailing fashions, and sold at prices that are within the reach of all, then Kaufmanns' should be your place to buy. As for variety, we have no rivals in the field; our present showing aggregates no less than 322 different styles of Kilt Suits, 975 styles of Short Pant Suits and about 500 styles of Long Pant Suits.

Men's Suits and Spring Overcoats

Our stock is calculated to supply every want and requirement, every taste and purse. Some of the materials of which our Men's Suits are made: Cassimeres, Cheviots, Wide Wales, Corkscrews, Worsteds, while our Spring Overcoats are cut of such fashionable woolens as English Broad Wales, light weight Meltons, Covert Cloths, Venetians, Scotch Cheviots, etc., and in these materials we show all the latest shades, colors and patterns. We have set out to capture the Men's Clothing trade of Pittsburg this spring, and, if the offering of superior inducements will do it, our success is certain.

FINE CUSTOM TAILORING

Garments "made to order" is a specialty with us. There is not another Clothing house in this country that turns out as much custom work. This is a fact well known to the trade. It is equally well known that we import and buy direct from the leading manufacturers and in turn supply many of the merchant tailors with cloths. As jobbers we buy at much lower figures than are obtained by the exclusive tailors of Pittsburg. This advantage, combined with the fact that we carry about three times the assortment of fabrics and patterns that can be found in any other local house, accounts for the popularity of our Merchant Tailoring Department with fine dressers. The lowest prices—the best workmanship—and the largest stock are the three factors responsible for our supremacy.

Ladies' Wraps, Jackets, Jerseys

Our Cloak Department enjoys the distinction of supplying the most aristocratic and fashionable Ladies of Pittsburg with new spring garments. Our importations from Berlin and Paris of choice styles of beaded Wraps, beaded Shoulder Capes, tailor-made Jackets and Jerseys have caught on, and the tide of trade continues to flow to our popular Cloak Departments. Some special bargains will be offered this week.

NO END OF FUN AND AMUSEMENT.

FREE TO THE BOYS FREE

Kaufmanns', with their characteristic liberality toward their little friends, the Boys, and their proverbial enterprise to always "get up" something new, will this week give a
