GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Manager Phillips made an important statement vesterday regarding White's coming to this city. During a conversation, the manager said:

"We have made up our minds to deal with the men we have, and the club has now no pros-pects of getting White."

The statement ought to go a long way toward settling this very much hackneyed question. The local officials have finally come to the con clusion that the "Deacon" has all along been meaning what he has said on the matter On every occasion be has distinctly stated that he meant to play in Buffalo, or nowhere, this season, and evidently he means to keep his

It is understood that the local club has offered both him and White every reasonable inducement to come, but they are apparently determined to stick to Buffalo. Of course they will not be allowed to play during the season except Pittsburg gives them permission, and that is not likely to be the case.

The local club, however, is not steeped in White. Doubtless both are good men, but There is plenty of good material to make up an excellent infield, even though the two players in question refuse to play here. ther Conway and Maul arrived from Philadelphia vesterday. All the local enthusiasts ere eager to see the new pitcher, and he is one of those young fellows who will bear a look. Conway really looked in excellent condition, and his appearance gave undeniable

A CABEFUL TRAINING. He is very enthusiastic about the prospect of the team, and is confident that it will stand well up if all goes well. He stated that Dunlap will be here to-morrow, and so will Cole-man. The former says Conway is in first-class trim, and has no anxiety about his ankle. Maul also looks well, but there is considerable uncertainty as to whether or not he will be re-uncertainty as to whether or not he will be retained on the team.

All the players now in the city will be required to do some active work at Recreation Park to-day if the weather is fine. There will be plenty of batting and nitching, and the new catchers will be put "through the mill." So far the players, generally speaking, have high opinions of "Chuck" Lauer.

To-day or to-morrow Manager Philips will select the battery for Saturday's game between his team and the East End Athletics, Mr. Phillips has no idea who he will put in the box and behind the bat. It may be that two pitch-and behind the bat. It may be that two pitchers and two catchers will be tried. It is also likely that Lauer will be one of the catchers. If the weather is fine the game will be an in-teresting one. NEW YORK, March 26.-Walter Graves and Joe Glidden, two South Brooklyn heavy-weights, fought seven rounds at a resort not far from Prospect Park early this morning. They each weighed 175 pounds, but Graves, who is a six-footer, overtopped his opponent by four inches. It is worthy of note that a well-known Democratic politician handled Graves, while Glidden, and the politicians had backed their men respectively for $50. Twelve spectators were present. London rules governed, and the men fought with bare knuckies, so that all the hampionship requirements were carried out accept that the contest was on a board floor.

except that the contest was on a board floor. The referee gave his name as "William Jones, or anything you like."

In the first round there was plenty of slugging, and when John Graves finally threw Glidden both were bleeding from the face. After that Glidden won every fall and had generally the best of it up to the last round. Some terrible punishment was inflicted by both men. Every time they went down Glidden gave his man the shoulder on the stomach or chest. In Every time they went down Glidden gave his man the shoulder on the stomach or chest. In the seventh round Glidden smashed Graves full on the jaw with his right, rushed his man and threw him with a bang to the bbards. "Tough Joe," as Glidden is known to his friends, was peaceful at last, for he landed on the back of his head and became unconscious. He remained so for two or three minutes after the call of time, and Graves got the decision. Several hundred dollars changed hands on the mill.

PREPARING A WELCOME.

Arrangements to Receive Spalding's Ball

Teams in Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, March 26.-The initiatory steps were taken here to-day for the reception tourists during their visit to this city on April 11. Messrs Beach and Rogers, of the Phila-delphia Baseball Club, will tender the reception. A programme is arranged which includes a drive through the city and a trip down the Delaware river to Gloucester, N. J., where a planked shad lunch will be "discussed."

The members of the Boston and Athletic clubs, who will play here on that date, will be invited to participate in the reception, although their game will prevent them accompanying the party down the river. The party will return from Gioucester early in the evening in time to attend a banquet to be given at the Hotel Bellevue in bonor of the "Around-theworld-party." The Chicago and All-American teams will play a game here on the following day. tion. A programme is arranged which includes

Will Retire From the Turf.

CHICAGO, March 26.-A dispatch from Los Angeles, Cal., says: Lucky Baldwin passed through the city last night on his way from his stock ranche at Santa Anita to San Francisco He told a reporter that this would be his last season on the turf. In June he will sell his season on the turi. In June he will sell his rearlings, and in future will devote his attention to breeding and selling his yearlings in New York City. He says his 2-year-olds now at the ranch are the best he ever owned, and give great promise for the future. Volante has recovered, and will train this year. The best of the 2-year-olds are Honduras, Cleo and San Diego.

Found it Rather Tame.

The baseball players opened their English tour on the Oval yesterday, when the result was in favor of the Chicago team, who scored seven innings to four got by the All-America men. Some interest was caused by the smartmen. Some interest was caused by the smart-ness of the Americaus in catching and throw-ing the ball; but beyond this the spectators found matters rather tame. The game is de-scribed by one who was there as but a compli-cated development of the old English boundary ball, or rounders, and it does not seem likely that it will become popular in England.—New-costle Chronicle (Eng).

New Entries and Weights.

LOUISVILLE, KY., March 26.-President Clark, of the Louisville Jockey Club, has ansounced that he will reopen the Kentucky handicap, receive new entries, and assign new nanucap, receive new entries, and assign new entries and assign new weights. He takes this course because, in making up his list of entries and weights. Secretary Bruce accidentally omitted Egmont, Macbeth II., Sherwood and Poteen. The error was not discovered until Mr. Hankins wrote to protest against the leaving out of Egmont and Poteen without authority.

Down to Work.

Work has been commenced on the new club-house of the Herron Hill Gun Club at Brufeet and will be handsomely finished. The club has secured a lease for several years. The opening shoot will take place some time next month and will be a big affair.

alding's Players Arrive in Dublin-Willinmson Will Stny Bekind.

IBY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.) DUBLIN, March 26. - [Copyright.] - The American baseball teams left Belfast at 7 o'clock this morning and arrived in Dublin at 11. The ride was most pleasant, the weather be ing exceedingly bright and the beautiful rolling landscape made an agreeable impression on the players of Irish parentage, who had anticipated a visit to Erin as the most delightfu feature of the tour. At the depot they were met by United States Consul McGaskill, Mr Frederick Gallaher, editor of Sport, and a number of well-known Irish and American citizens and conducted to Morrison's Rotal

After lunch they were tendered a reception at the Mansion House, being received by Private Secretary John B, Hall in the absence of the Lord Mayor. After being conducted about the various departments they indulged in a drink to the health of "Ould Ireland." The players spent the rest of the day in sightseeing, and quite a number took trips to the neighboring country to visit the homes of their relatives. In the evening they attended the Gaiety Theater, and saw the comedy, "Arabian Nights," with a full and fashionable house. Word was received from Williamson, the Chicago shortstop, from London to-night, saying that his injury would prevent him from leaving with the party on Thursday, and that of alleged slanderous words uttered by Corrigan at a meeting of the directors of the Chicago Fair and Trotting Breeders' Association held yesterday.

The directors held a meeting February 20 last, at which it was voted to lease the track to Townsley. Winters & Wilson for four years at a rental of $50,000 for the term. The meeting yesterday was called to approve the securities on the lease. It is alleged that Corrigan desired to secure the lease himself, and that, in antagonizing the leasing of the track to the complainants, gave utterance to the slanderous language complained of.

n Cribbage Match. Owing to a misunderstanding, James Beard-shaw failed to meet the party who wants to play him a match at cribbage. Mr. Beardshaw, however, visited this office about 9 o'clock and left a forfeit of $20 as a guarantee that he will be at THE DISPATCH office this evening at 7 o'clock prepared to make a match. He hopes that the gentleman who wants to play him will be here at the hour named.

During a conversation, Mr. Beardshaw said:
"The contest can either be six-card or five-card with Wisse war overset the leaf of the card. crib. When my opponent deals he can deal me six cards or five cards, just as he chooses, and I'll do the same. This is fair." It is likely that a match will be made this evening, as there were two gentlemen here last evening prepared to tackle Mr. Beardshaw.

A DESPERATE BATTLE.

Mike Murphy and Joe Donohue Knock Each Other Helpless. NEW YORK, March 26 -At 2:30 vesterday morning a terrific prize fight took place in a boathouse on the Hackensett river, between Joe Donohue, of Preakness, Passaic county, N J., and Mike Murray, of Clifton, S. I. The battle was for $100 a side and was a desparate one. For II rounds the men battered parate one. For II rounds the men battered and bruised each other fearfully. When time was called in the twelfth round Donohue was blind in the left eye and could scarcely see out of the right. In the thirteenth and last round their condition was pitiable. They could not stand alone, and when time was called they had to be carried to their corners. The fight was decided a draw by the referee, and the gate receipts were divided. gate receipts were divided.

Nikirk Puts Up a Forfeit and Talks Very Plain.

Ed Nikirk left the following challenge, accompanied by a $25 forfeit, at this office last As several of E. C. McClelland's friends are talking about his being able to beat me in a short race, I make the following offer: I will run McClelland a race of one and one-half miles for $250 a side. I now put up a forfeit of $25 with THE DISPATCH to show that I mean business. snort race, I make the following offer: I will run McClelland a race of one and one-half miles for $250 a side. The race to take place on any reasonable out-door track five weeks after signing articles. I now put up a forfeit of $25 with THE DISPATCH to show that I mean business, If the McClelland party desire a race they can cover the deposit and arrange for the signing of articles. This ought to stop all further use-less talk.

Clarkson is Captain.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 Boston, March 28.-Pitcher John Clarkson has secured the coveted plum in the Boston baseball nine, and for a brief term he will lord it over his $10,000 colleague and the lesser lights it over his $10,000 colleague and the lesser lights in the team. The delay in appointing a captain shows that the directors have not given up hopes of securing Johnny Ward, notwithstanding they are supposed to refrain from doing business with the tourist until the Washington-New York deal is declared off. Ward is anxious to come to this city, and makes no bones of saying the pennant is sure to fly from the South End grounds next fall.

Gumbert Signs.

Ad. Gumbert, the local pitcher, has finally signed with the Chicago club for $2,500 for the season. This is the limit, and means that Gumbert is ranked as a first-class man. Prothonoand entertainment of the Spalding baseball atry Bradley has advised Gumbert to accept the terms, assuring him that his position will be open for him if he desires to quit ball play-ing. Nothing is definitely known regarding Tener's intentions. It is thought by many peo-ple that he will not play ball professionally this season.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. WASHINGTON, March 26 .- The opinion of the shrewdest of the hundreds of politicians who crowd the hotels is that there is almost no chance for a quarrel now between Quay and Wanamaker, though things looked decidedly ruffled yesterday. The situation is just this: Mr. Wanamaker favors Mr. Field for postmaster at Phila-delphia, and has told him so. Senators Quay and Cameron favor Mr. Leeds and have told him so, and also formally indorsed him. The way is open for the appointment of either of these gentlemen or of anyone else, and there is almost no doubt that the difference will be settled without a rupture of the friendly relations of the Postmaster General and the Pennsylvania Senators. Indorsements of both Leeds and Field are pouring in from Philadelphia, by mail and telegraph, to both Mr. Harrison and Mr. Wanamaker. Protests against the appointment of either are also numerons. As a rule the politicians, the men who do the work of the campaigns, are opposed to Mr. Field.

JUMBO'S SKELETON TAKES A REST.

the New York Museum.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, March 26 .- One of Barnum's big vans, drawn by four white horses, rattled up to the doors of the Museum of Natural History, a few evenings ago, and un loaded the skeleton of that redoubtable old elephant, Jumbo. It was Mr. Barnum's body was intact, but his legs, his head and his tail came in seperate pieces. The whole, it is thought, will weigh about a ton. This afternoon Taxidermist Jenness Richardson SENATOR SHERMAN GOING TO EUROPE. was busily engaged in setting Jumbo upon a pedestal. The bones, which were black with dirt when received, have been cleaned, and in about two weeks Jumbo's skeleton. exclusive of the tusks, which, together with the skin, were given to Tuits College, will be ready for exhibition. It will stand in the center of the bird room in the second

The skeleton of another elephant is expected to arrive soon. It is said to be that of Sampson, who was burned to death in a fire at Bridgeport, about two years ago. This skeleton was donated to the museum by Mr. M. Terrell, Fourth division, Atlanta, Ga, vice R. M. Turner, resigned; George W. Pepper, Ninth Division, Cleveland, O., Prof. Ward's Natural Science establishment, at Rochester. It will be placed be side Jumbo's, and will make the big elephant larger by contract.

There are many surprises in store for the public when the new museum building shall be completed. The present structure is overcrowded, and many interesting col-lections are stored sway for lack of room to exhibit them. Among these is Mr. Norris K. Jessup's collection of building stones. said to be the finest in the country, and new building will be completed in from one to two years.

A MISSING AMATEUR BANKER. Money Lenders.

CHEYENNE, WYO., March 26 .- Fifteen months ago James Grant arrived at Fort

He was prepossessing, rect in everything that he had said. Mr. business reverses. He was prepossessing, intelligent and well educated and was soon promoted to a corporalship. Gaining the the confidence of Joseph Roseburg, a private soldier, who had saved several thousand dollars by long service, he induced him to form a partnership to loan money to the soldiers from pay day to pay day at 10 per cent per month. Business prospered and the next step was to borrow money, paying 5 per cent per month interest.

Everything moved serenely, interest was paid promptly, all obligations were met, and a general banking business of large dimentions was being done, many officers loaning noney or having pay warrants discounted. Saturday last when the soldiers were paid off Grant is said to have collected $2,000 of the loans of the previous month. With this and $3,000 or $4,000 more, all assets of the firm, he left the place on a horse belonging to one of the officers. At Lusk he brought citizen's clothes and left on the eastern train.
