

JOHN BRIGHT DEAD.

The Famous Commover of England Passes Peacefully Away.

DEEP AND UNIVERSAL SORROW.

Queen Victoria Affectionately Greets a Sister Sovereign.

LIBERTY OF THE PRESS IN GERMANY

LONDON, March 27.—Mr. John Bright died at 8:30 o'clock this morning. His end was peaceful and painless.

Queen Victoria affectionately greets a sister sovereign. The death of the famous commover of England has attracted attention from all other subjects.

Accustomed as everybody has been to the idea of his death, it created a profound shock among Gladstonians, and even the Irish members share the general sadness.

Mr. Bright represented the Central division of Birmingham in the House. The district has never been polled on the Home Rule issue.

Though he had taken part in the Reform agitation of 1831-32, Mr. Bright first distinguished himself in political life by becoming, in 1839, one of the earliest members of the Anti-Corn-Law League.

John Bright was born at Greenbank, near Rochdale, November 13, 1811. Having received the rudiments of an English education, he entered his father's business and became a member of the firm of John Bright & Brothers, cotton spinners and manufacturers, of Rochdale.

Though he had taken part in the Reform agitation of 1831-32, Mr. Bright first distinguished himself in political life by becoming, in 1839, one of the earliest members of the Anti-Corn-Law League.

When the Liberals returned to power in May, 1880, Mr. Bright was reappointed Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.

On July 17, 1882, he announced in the House of Commons that he had resigned the office, and retired from public life because of ill health.

Two Colored Murderers Hanged. NASHVILLE, March 27.—At Lebanon to-day Jim Turner and Mack Francis, colored, were hanged for the murder of Lee Martin last August.

AN ACTIVE SEAMAN.

Mr. Bright's activity in Parliament and on the platform was varied and continuous. In the House of Commons he proposed to apply the remedy of free trade in land to the state of things which produced the Irish famine.

B. & B.

THE BRIGHTEST STORE IN TOWN. Thursday, March 28. We would like every lady of the two cities to see our latest importation of Paris Robes.

We believe there is such a selection (several hundreds in number) that even the varied tastes purchasers may have will be satisfied.

We offer to-day an entirely new line of evening dress fabrics. Until you see them you will have but an incomplete idea of what beautiful things have come out.

The first is the Cream Nuance Suiting, with the rich combination colored border. Some of the prettiest effects we have seen are shown in these deep borders, and they all harmonize in shade with the goods.

The other new thing is the Cream Mouslin. Too much cannot be said in praise of these elegant new fabrics.

In connection with our thorough lines of Robes and Novelty Dress Patterns we have what everybody this season is demanding, Buttons and Buckles for Trimming, in appropriate shadings and designs.

The directorio costumes are being trimmed in large buttons, and some of the most novel and handsome goods, in large and small designs, have come out to meet the new requirement. One is the Eiffel button, showing the great tower of the Paris Exposition, with a Yankee at the base looking up.

There are others just as unique. All imported goods. Prices for the large buttons, 25c to $6 per dozen, and for the small, 25c to $1 75. The Buckles and Clasps, especially for Blouse Waists, come in oxidized silver, antique and other novel effects.

Speaking of buttons reminds us that this is the season for making up wash-goods dresses, and that we have an immense stock of pearl buttons.

Among them, and perhaps the most popular, are the lines of self shank ball pearl 25c, 30c, 35c and 40c. Others, including the 22 line, come from 12 1/2c up.

Some elegant offerings in the Black Goods Department that should have a brief mention. 24-inch Mexican Grenadine, 75c and $1.

24-inch Iron Frame Grenadine, 75c and $1. 24-inch Silk Grenadine, 85c to $1 25.

27-inch Crepe deChene, $1 25 and $1 50. 48-inch Crepe deChene, $3 75 and $4 75.

Boggs & Buhl, 115, 117, 119, 121 Federal Street, Allegheny.

THE BRIGHTEST STORE IN TOWN.

GUSKY'S MEN'S CLOTHING! The best of the best, the finest of the fine, everything as near perfection as human skill can make.

Quality, fit, make and the abnormally low prices are their recommendation. We've been famed for years for our superb styles and high quality goods and we intend to make this season further and still greater inroads with the business done by high-priced merchant tailors.

We'll convince gentlemen that it is pure folly for them to pay outrageously high prices for their clothing when they can get here goods better in every way from anywhere from one-third to one-half less money.

Forty large tables piled high with long pant Suits and Spring Overcoats, to say nothing of large quantities of fine Pants and Coats. Suits in all the latest styles, and you have choice from an almost endless variety of the newest and handsomest materials.

Our buyers, who were the earliest in the market, scoured every Clothing center for the best, while other dealers were asleep, and the consequence was that they scooped in the finest of the fine, leaving later buyers to take what our buyers left. Depend on it there is no room for improvement in our goods and our prices will, as usual, be the lowest possible.
