steady and closed a shade higher than yester-day. The activity and strength noted in onts yester-day was continued to-day on an enlarged scale, and an advance was recorded. The bulge was due entirely to the maneuvers of local opera-tors, who, after allowing a recession of 560%, soon after the opening, took hold and by vigor-ous bidding started the shorts into buying. A few outside buying orders were also received, and prices were bid up 360 for May and 360% for for June, with heavy trading. The bulge bronght ont a good many lines of long staff, the Milwaukee bull party being credited with sell-ing the largest quantity. A recession of 360 followed and the market closed steady at about yesterday's closing sales. Butchers don't want the heavy cattle. Beeves which weigh from 1,050 to 1,150 pounds, and in good condition, are in much better demand than those weighing 1,500 to 1,600. Light eights are active at 35c to 35c, and heavy are slow at 4c. markets the former are preferred by butchers. There were very few on hands this week that weighed as high as 1,400. A single carload of this class brought 4% c. The bulk of receipts was from Chicago. About 25 loads were from Ohio and Indiana. In the supplies were 12 loads of stockers and feeders, the range for which was 2% (8%) c. Of the stockers, there were not enough to go around. Buyers were plenty, and many more could have been sold than appeared. Bulls and calves were plenty and slow. It was hard to sell bulls weighing 1,400 pounds and upward, even at mean prices. Note fat bulls, 1,000 to 1,200 pounds, found ready sale at 2% (8%) c. The range of prices for veal calves was 460% c. Later the demand improved and prices advanced 20625c, but a reduction of 2% 6% was acceded to toward the close and the market ruled quiet. A fairly active speculative trade was re-ported in hard and the feeling was stronger. The market opened firm at 2% 6% advance, but soon weakened and prices receded slightly. 1 atter, the demand improved, and prices rallied 567% receded again 2% 6% c. closing steady. Short ribs were more active and strong, with an advance of 2% 6%.

Sheep and Lambs.

The run has been light, and as a consequence prices are 15 to 25c better than they were last cek. Said a leading dealer: "We have been getting such prices for choice wethers here this week that it has not justified to ship to New York. The outside price there yesterday was 85 30. I sold the same grade here the day before at $5.35." There has been no advance over last week's prices for common light lambs. It seems there is little or no demand for this

Hogs.

The run has been light, rather below the average. But five cars were received to-day. Some grades are a shade higher. The range is 5 to 5%c. At Chicago the price of tops this morn-ing was $4 90, a drop of 10c from yesterday's prices. There is no longer any perceptible difprices. There is no longer any perception on terence between the price of heavy and light hogs. From the opening of the season, Novem-ber I, up to the past week, heavy-weights were at a discount, owing to cheapness of lard. Now heavy hogs are back to their position of former seasons and command fully as good prices as lightmenits. lightweights.

Bulls and Bears Walting for the Next Turn

The bulls and the bears had a sort of love feast at the Oil Exchange yesterday. There was very little tossing up or pulling down. Business lacked vim all day. Both sides Business lacked vim all day. Both sides claimed to be in good shape for the n=xt turn of the wheel, and each was sanguine that the change would be in their favor. The market opened at 91%c, which was the lowest price of the day. From this it slowly advanced to 91%c. This was the highest point reached. The close was 91%c, the same as the opening. A broker said: "Although the situation is bullish, the lack of outside support will probably cause the market to sell lower before it gets on its feet again."

That they are inspired to 'bull' certain stocks is what a good many people are begin-ning to think. If stocks go up to a high figure on the strength of these reports and the prom-ised consolidations do not happen, then there is no responsible party to stand up for the rumors when a 'dump' comes. It may be that all electric stocks will prove highly valuable, though some of them are now capitalized at many times the money put into them; but some of the figures talked of are wild, considering how much of the life of the patents has already expired. ### Drygoods Market.

Drygeeds Market. NEW YORK, March Z.-There was a steady trade in drygoods to-day. A fair netive busi-ness was had by jobbers in all kinds of spring and summer goods including domestics, stocks of which are running low. Agents were hav-ing a fair demand for replenish-ments, but scarcely anything was doing for future delivery. There is a cheerful tone to the cotton goods market, the stability of which now seems assured. ### EDISON'S LATEST INVENTION.

A Machine for Separating Iron Ore of Which Great Things Are Expected.

READING, March 27 .- Many iron men and others continue to flock to a secluded section of Washington township, this county, where experiments are soon to be made with one of Edison's greatest and most recent inventions, known as the Edison Concentrator, the object of which is to con-centrate the real ore dug from a mine and get rid, by mechanical means, of all dirt and earthy matter that interferes with smelting. This machine has been successfully tested in Mr. Edison's laboratory. It is claimed that it will reduce immensely the cost of smelting and bring into use ores that cannot now be profitably worked. New York capitalists have purchased eight acres. of iron ore land, where the experiments will be made. They have been incorporated under the name of the Pennsylvania Con-centrating Company. Buildings and ma-chinery are now being put up at a cost of $35,000.

$35,000. The invention, it is believed, will work a revolution in the iron trade. The working of the ore concentrator is not to be a scoret, as supposed. The rock containing the ore, passing through the crusher broken to the size of an egg, is dumped into a large hopper. From here it drops down an incline within a tew inches of a powerful agnet. This will be so heavily charged as to draw the ore from its course into one channel, and the rock and other foreign elements contained in the ore are permitted to pass through another channel to the refuse

being arraigned for trial, and was remanded. —The impression has heretofore provailed that since the adoption of the inter-State Com-merce law all pooling between railroads has been abandoned. It transpires, however, that pooling is still practiced by the roads between Chicago and Omaha, covering all the freight traffic between these points. The arrangement was made between the general managers of the various roads immediately after the adoption of the inter-State law, and great precautions were taken to prevent the matter from leaking J. As old residents know and back files of Pitte-burg papers prove, is the oldest established and most prominent physician in the city, devoting special attention to all chronic diseases. From responsible NO FEE UNTIL CURED persons for many years a boss workman in the quarries at Rockport, was First Lieutenant of Company I, Fifth Maine Infantry. At the battle of Antietam, September 17, 1862, just as he raised his musket to fire, a rebel ball struck his left arm above the wrist, broke both NERVOUS and mental diseases, physical NERVOUS and mental diseases, physical ory, disordered sight, self-distruct, bashfulness, dizziness, sleeplessuesa, pimples, eruptions, m-poverished blood, failing powers, organic weak-ness dynamics constitution construction up. bones, and passing on, entered his left side Distances, are presented powers, organic weak-ness, dyspepsia, constipation, consumption, un-fitting the person for business society and mar-riage, permanently, safely and privately cured. BLOOD AND SKIN starces in all biotches, falling hair, bone pains, glandular swellings, dicerations of tongue, mouth, throat, ulcers, old sores, are cured for life, and blood poisons thoroughly eradicated from the system. URINARY, menta, weak back, gravel, ca-tarrhal discharges, inflasmation and other painful symptome receive searching treatment, prompt relief and real cures. Dr. Whittier's life-long, extensive experience insures scientific and reliable treatment on common-sense principles. Consultation free, Patients at a distance as carefully treated as if here. Office hours 9.A. M. to 8.F. M. Sundvy, 10 A. M. to 1 F. M. only. DR. WHITTIER, SO Penn avenue, Pittsburg, Pat. 1686-Deuw under his arm, went through his chest and under his arm, went through his chest and lodged beneath the skin under his right shoulder, whence it was easily removed by the surgeon. He keeps the ball to remind him of the olden time. He re-covered slowly, but was harassed by a distressing cough, as the ball had ploughed a track directly through his lungs. In about nine months after the injury he covered up a tracement of his woolen shirt had been much eaten and rounded in its stay of 27 years. The round nodule of lead must have been chipped from the ball by a sharp edge of the broken rib, and though it was then undoubtedly irregular in shape, it must have been slowly rounded and smoothed by the long process of agitation in his lungs. Mr. Dunlsp is better now than for years, and has probably at last recovered from the effects of the war.
