

A VERY CUTE SCHEME To Have the Street Railway Measure Considered by a Full House.

ROAD LAWS ARE TO BE REVISED. The Veterans Employment Bill Declared Unconstitutional.

NO OLIVE BRANCH FOR SAMUEL LOSCH

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—Mr. Magee left Harrisburg today for Pittsburgh. He was a serene countenance and an unclouded smile. Next week he will return, and then the dogs of war will be let loose.

This morning Mr. Talbot, of Chester county, offered a resolution that when the House adjourned to-morrow it be to meet on Tuesday evening. There were no objections to the offering of the resolution, and it went through as though its pathway had been greased. The Quays men esteemed it a victory.

Mr. Magee's resolution to place Senate bill No. 70 on the House calendar will be offered, if the programme is carried out to-morrow. Under the rules it will have to go over to an legislative day. This would bring it before the House Monday. Adjournment on Tuesday would, under the rules, throw it over until Friday.

LOSCH IS ANGRY.

His Pet Bill Defeated Because He Assumed Too Much.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—Sam Losch, of Schuylkill county, ex-Chief Clerk of the House, who came here to oppose the new county bill, is very angry. He expected to defeat the bill, and claims to have had the promise of State Chairman Andrews that the latter would keep his hands off the bill. However, turned in and pulled the bill through, with just one vote to spare. In justification he later explained to Mr. Losch that he had to do it because there was so much talk that he was running for Governor.

AN UNCONSTITUTIONAL MEASURE.

The Veterans' Employment Bill Will Have to Be Amended.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—The bill providing that preference be given soldiers, sailors and marines of the late war in public employment, was withdrawn from the Governor today by the concurrent resolution introduced in the House by Mr. Stewart. It had been learned that the Governor raised the objection that the section of the bill which provided for the discharge of a veteran without a hearing was an unconstitutional interference with the right of a public officer, and the Governor and the friends of the measure in the Legislature thought it best to withdraw it to amend it so as to make it objectionable.

MOSEY FOR HOME CHARITIES.

Big Appropriations Passed by the Legislature for Allegheny County Institutions.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—Among the appropriations bills passed by the House today were the following: One thousand dollars to the Home of Aged and Colored Women, in Pittsburgh; Pittsburgh Free Dispensary; $4,000 to the Allegheny County Association for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and Aged Persons; $4,000 to the Home for Colored Children, Allegheny; $6,000 to the West Penn Hospital, Pittsburgh.

To Revise the Road Laws.

HARRISBURG, March 28.—Representative Folger, of Westmoreland, will to-morrow introduce a resolution authorizing the Governor to appoint a committee to revise and consolidate the laws relating to roads and highways. It will provide that the commission shall consist of three members, five representatives, who shall sit during the first and second sessions of the next session of the Legislature by bill or otherwise.

The Soldiers' Orphans' Bill Passed.

HARRISBURG, March 28.—The soldiers' orphans' bill passed the House this afternoon, in spite of Mr. Wherry's objection that there was nothing in the measure to prevent the introduction of more children into the schools. Messrs. Stewart, Billingsley, Walk and Kaufman held that the objection was met by existing legislation.

Caring for the Orphans.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—The House Committee on Appropriations to-night decided to report in favor of appropriating $50,000 for maintenance and education of soldiers' orphans for the two years ending June 30, 1897, with a proviso that none of the money should be applied to the care of children of soldiers who are not now in the orphan schools.

Hon. Henry Hall III.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—Hon. Henry Hall, Chairman of the House Judiciary General Committee, was taken seriously ill this afternoon and for two days in a dangerous condition. The labor of the session has been very exacting. Mr. Hall's malady is palpitation of the heart, brought on by overwork.

Will Be Reconsidered.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—Mr. Fletcher's electric light company charter bill was brought up again today by Messrs. Brooks and Ritter, of Philadelphia, who moved the reconsideration of the vote by which it was defeated. This was done in the furtherance of the measure, which was then postponed for the present.

A Cautious Retrospect.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—At the session of the House this afternoon, Mr. Council, of Allegheny, offered a resolution which was adopted, to-wit: That the memorial presented to Governor Beaver at Washington, as a cowardly act.

Addressed by John Norris.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—The memorial bill was considered in the Judiciary General Committee this evening. John Norris addressed the committee.

CAMERON NO LONGER.

The Doctor of Pennsylvania's Senior Senator Led to the Altar—End of a Case of Love at First Sight—A Tour to Europe.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) HARRISBURG, March 28.—The marriage of Miss Margaret Cameron, the fourth daughter of Senator Cameron, in this city to-day, with John William Clark, of Newark, N. J., was a brilliant society event. A conspicuous figure in the assembly was the stately and vivacious General Cameron, the bride's grandfather, who celebrated the twentieth anniversary of his birth on the 18th inst. Governor Beaver, none the worst for the thrilling experience he had at Washington yesterday, also celebrated his presence to the wedding feast. Senator and Mrs. Cameron and the father and mother of the groom, and many relatives and guests of the groom, witnessed the marriage of the young couple.

At high noon the orchestra began the opening strains of Chopin's Wedding March, and soon after Senator Cameron appeared, with the bride leaning on his arm, preparatory to giving her in marriage. After the groom had placed a ring on the finger of the bride, and the officiating clergyman had pronounced them man and wife, the orchestra struck up the Mendelssohn March, and the relatives and other guests extended their congratulations. The reception continued for two hours, during which time hundreds of friends called on the couple.

This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Clark accompanied by a number of their friends, left in a special car for Newport, where they will spend the summer. They are expected to return to Harrisburg in the latter part of the season. The reception continued for two hours, during which time hundreds of friends called on the couple.
