GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Victory has finally perched itself on the banner of the local team. They made something like mincement of the Kansas City aggregation yesterday and played in a way that indicated they have been fooling in the previous games. Smith made a catch of a hot liner, and the players generally hit the ball hard.

It was 9:50 P. M. when they stepped into the fing and were introduced by Helike, who said: "Gentlemen, this is Mr. Cal. McCarthy, the present champion, and this is Mat. McCarthy, the present champion, and this is Mat. McCarthy, the coming champion—that is my idea." The Philiadelphia bey proved nothing more or less than a chopping blook. In the first round the betting was 1:10 to $40 on Cal., and to show his friends that he was all there he scored a dozen clean lefthand jabs on his opponent's jaw and face without a return. During the second, third and fourth rounds it looked only a matter of time before the little Jersey man would knock Mat out. The latter was bleeding and swollen on the face and neck, and one good blow up to this time and the betting was 1:10 to 1 against him. The fifth round was thought to be the last, but Holske's man proved himself to be very game. He was sent down four times in rapid succession and each time he barely got up within the ten seconds.

In the sixth and last round Cal met him full on the neck with a desperate left and right double-handed blow and he went down. Just as the time was up he was on his feet, staggering all over the ring. The Jerseyman went at him again and would have sent him to dreamland had not Jack Frazer held up the sponge that his man was through and thereferee then awarded the battle to Cal.

THEIR PROSPECTS GOOD.

Horace Phillips sat and grinned as if he still had many more big surprises up his sleeves. The playing of the Alleghenies to-day really was a contrast to that of yesterday. They did not seem to be the same team. Undoubtedly they let themselves out to-day probably to let Watkins and the Cowboys see what they could do if they so desired. The local team never had the faintest gleam of victory and the visitors just pounced on poor McCarty like a pack of wolves let loose on a harmless lamb.

The contest, though onesided, was interesting. The heavy hitting kept things lively. Big Jake Beckley, Kuehne and Burns all s banged the ball about at a lively rate. The home players struggled on pluckily, but they were at the mercy of the Leaguers. McCarty and Gunson were the battery for the Cowboys, and Staley and Lauer for Alleghenies. McCarty was batted out of the field, sending the balls in for 15 hits, with a total of 19 bases. In the fourth inning he was struck for five singles. The errors were few, there being but three on each side. Ten hits were made off Staley, one for two, one for three bags and the others single. Both fields played closely, and it was hard hitting that won out. The only notable feature of the game beyond the hitting was the catching of a hot liner fly by Smith in the short field and his throw to Beckley, snuffing out Long on the catch and Mc-Carty on the play. Charles Reynolds was umpire. The score was as follows:

The Pedestrians Rendy for the Race-Ap other Batch Arrives.

As the time for starting the big pedestrian contest approaches, the excitement in the event grows intense. A dozen or more of the intending contestants had their final "spins" yesterday on the London Theater track, and the building was crowded with enthusiastic spectators. Noremac made a long journey, being nearly four hours on the track. He spectators. Noremac made a long journey, being nearly four hours on the track. He pleased his friends greatly. three hours and so did Messier, the Colorado representative. Golden, Nolan and Day also ran in good form.

During the afternoon the following entries arrived: George Connors and Peter Hegelman, of New York; Tom Largan, of Cleveland; John Mackey, of Cincinnati, and Thomas Cox, of Parkersburg. Connors, who is looked upon as one of the first three at the finish, is a little wiry fellow, and looks just what he is—a tough customer to tackie in a long race. "Parson" Tilly, Matthew Horan, Harry Williams, G. W. Turner, Engledrum and Jack Adams will all arrive this morning. George Cartwright is also expected this morning, together with Hart Guerrero and others. The pedestrians will hold a meeting this afternoon to appoint gatekeepers, etc., to look after their interests. The track has been surveyed by Mr. S. Taylor, the civil engineer, and he has certified that it is 18 laps to the mile. About 50 score keepers have been engaged, including four official score keepers. Tickets for the start will be sold to the public at the London Theater this afternoon, as none will be sold until after midnight Sunday.

No Bets Paid Yet.

There has been considerable controversy regarding the bets made on the Smith-Mitchell glove contest, the backers of the latter claiming that they are winners. In answer to a cablegram by R. K. ners. In answer to a cablegram by R. K.

by George W. Atkinson: "No bets on the "Jem Smith was more dangerously injured than was at first expected. He is suffering terribly from the larceration of his foot.

Fever has set in, and he is delirious and still confined to his bed.

"Kilirain, the American champion, is being feted and receiving a royal reception in this metropolis, which his modest, quiet and gentlemanly bearing well deserves."

Nothing More to Concede. John Teemer, the sculler, was in the city yesterday, and during a conversation said: "I have not heard a word from St. John yet regarding my concessions to his terms. I am anxious to hear whether or not he is prepared to go on with the races which he said Gaudaur would row me. I don't know that there is anything more to concede to him. I have granted all that he has asked."

NOT A DRAW THIS TIME

Prize Fight That Was Fought to featherweight championship of America, $500 a side and a purse of $500, between Cal McCarthy, of Jersey, and Mat McCarthy, Ed Hoiske's Philadelphia unknown, took place to night at a resort not far from this city, on Long Island. Cal was declared the winner, after punishing the Philadelphia man's head and face almost to a man of Needland feet, in a recorder.

the Philadelphia man's head and face almost to a mass of bleeding flesh in six rounds. Sixty New York and Philadelphia sporting men were present at the rate of $15 per ticket. A well-known New Yorker acted as referee and stakeholder, while the umpires were Ed Cole for Mat McCarthy and Jack McMasters for Cal. The Philadelphia boy has a good reputation as a boxer, but never had any experience as a finish fighter. He is 22 years old, stands 5 feet 4½ inches tall, and was looked after by Ed Holske and Jack Frazer. Cal McCarthy is a wicked little punisher and has a record of never having been defeated. This was his twenty-sixth battle. His age is 21 years, and he stands 5 feet 2 inches in height.

THEIR PROSPECTS GOOD.

Preparations for the Opening of the Count Longue Season. The championship season of the County League will open on Saturday next, and the various clubs are making all the necessary preparations for the occasion. President Clark, of the league, during a conversation yesterday,

"Everything looks encouraging, and I think the opening day will be a good one all round if the weather is fine. There may be a little diffi-culty with the Riverside Grays and their culty with the Riverside Grays and their grounds at the start, because they play at Recreation Park. The schedule was arranged to keep clear of those grounds during the Saturdays that the Pittsburg club is at home during the National League championship season. The Pittsburgs, however, are at home on our opening day and on the following Saturday. However, I think, any difficulty that may occur will be easily settled."

The Emsworth club will play a game on its own grounds to-day against a picked nine gotten together by Pitcher Gray, of Allegheny. The picked nine will be made up mostly of the T. M. Marshalis.

The Riverside Grays will play their first game this afternoon at Recreation Park, their opponents being the W. J. Kuehnes. The game will start at 4 o'clock.

Spalding's Ball Players to be Welcomed to Pittsburg.

The Spalding baseball teams are to be tendered a reception here. After all arrangements have been made to meet them at the depot with a brass band. Carriages will be in waiting, and the players will be driven to the Hotel Anderson. There will also be a street parade, headed by the band and carriages containing representatives of the press and a few friends will join in the procession.

The reception, while not on as large a scale as the admirers of the players and the national game would wish, will at least prove that the efforts of the teams in trying to popularize the game in foreign lands, are appreciated here.

WAGES MADE UNIFORM.

The Frick Scale New Corresponds With That of the Other Operators. The reduction in wages at the H. C. Frick Coke Company's works, mentioned yesterday, was not a cut in wages in the region. For over a year this large coke concern has been paying 61/2 per cent more wages than were being paid at the other ovens in the region.

This scale expired December 31, and was renewed until April 1 with a provision, agreed to by all the employes, to the effect that unless the other operators paid the same scale or its equivalent the wages should be made uniform.

the Masonic Building. A great many people have visited the new Masonic Hall, on Fifth avenue. Occupy-ing the first three floors of the building, "The People's Store," of Campbell & Dick, has received the big share of this public attention. And no wonder! The establishment looks immense enough from the front of the building, but when you walk to the rear of the store you find yourself in an annex building, which belongs to Messrs. Campbell & Dick, and which is reared to the dizzy beight of nine floors.

Since moving into their new quarters the firm have had to employ double the number of clerks they had before the conflagration burned them out in August, 1887. This is an indication of the enlarged scale on which they are doing business. Passenger elevators carry customers to any floor of the building, for every floor contains something to buy. For instance, the carpet department is on the second floor. It is the finest exhibit room in the State.

The first floor holds the silks, dress goods, cloaks, suits, millinery, hosiery and gloves, ladies' underwear, gents' furnishings, trimmings, notions, etc. The basement is beautifully fitted up in the same style as the main room, and is light as day. Here are found linen goods, domestics, flannels, blankets and boys' clothing.

The whole establishment is lighted by electricity, the firm owning the engines and dynamos. Ladies' toilet and fitting rooms are tastefully furnished in the rear of the first floor. Even the "cash carriers" are something entirely new. They are little metallic money boxes supplied with a grip just like a cable car. ALL THE NEWS FROM NEARBY TOWNS

PRPECIAL THEEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 WAYNESBURG, April 5 .- The Commo wealth has about completed its evidence-in chief in the McCausland murder trial. The estimony offered this afternoon was very lamaging against the prisoner. Severa witnesses testified to having seen tracks of a bare footed man in the ravine where Mc-Causland's body was found. These tracks led down the ravine, and were found distinctly to lead from the point where the pocket books were found some distance below, deep impressions being made in the soft sand. Several witnesses testified to having seen Ben Clark while they were on their way to the scene of the murder, and that he was in his bare feet. A suspicious circumstance his bare feet. A suspicious circumstance was that while others were hastening to the scene, he was going away, and declined to go when asked by different witnesses. Miss Lydia Hughes testified to having heard a conversation between Ben Clark and his brother, in which the former said: "It was a good shot," and threw up his hands in a suspicious manner. Miss Hughes inquired if he had been where the man was killed, and he replied: "No; there is danger of getting into trouble over there."

there is danger of getting into trouble over there."

A. A. Griffith, of Fayette county, testified that on April 6, 1885, he came to the Clark neighborhood to employ a giri to do housework. When in a ravine near Ben Clark's home he overheard two men talking. One said: "It was a nice shot." Theother inquired how much they got by killing the man. The reply was: "We got enough to clear them, and more too." He then related that they had offered Zach Taylor some money to do the shooting, but Zach declined to do it, saying that he did not like to do it. George Clark then said he would do the shooting. The witness recognized one of these men as Ben Clark. When the two men discovered him they ran. Witness had formerly lived near the Clarks, and knew them.

Nos. 83, 85, 87 and 89 Fifth Avenue.

When with some soap a salesman bold Comes in your place to there unfold His samples, and proceeds to say:
"This equals, sir, in every way
The Ivory; 'tis made in fact By the same formula exact;
"Tis just as white, indeed the man Who makes this soap by perfect plan, Has made the Ivory o'er and o'er For Procter & Gamble heretofore. Besides, this soap brings to the till More profit than the Ivory will."

He means to use by such a game, Your reputation and good name A fraud or counterfeit to sell Of what is known and proven well. This means his soap will never go On its own merits fast or slow; And you, like him, the truth must toss, Clean overboard, or sell at loss. [land

It means still more, that throughout the The Ivory Soap's in great demand. For none chase with imitations frail

When you for your own soap create, Upon its worth demand as great As Ivory Soap this day can claim, I'll buy, should trade require the same; But have no time, I tell you true, To introduce your soap for you, And customers perhaps offend With goods I fear to recommend." Don't buy the soap that salesmen say:
"Is like the Ivony every way,"
For grocers can this tale unfold An article that has no sale.

And who for counterfeit will pay
The price of genuine goods to-day?
Then whence can the advantage flow
Or how can you "more profit" know?

The price of genuine goods to-day?

The price of genuine goods to-day?

Then whence can the advantage flow
Or low the soap that salesmen say.

"Is like the Ivoray every way,"
For grocers can this tale unfold
Of every hundred cakes they sold.
On seventy-five a loss they bore,
Or else it ne'er had left their store.

Reply to all who do intend

To use you thus to gain their end:

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'lvory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of uine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and Insist upon getting it. Copyright 1886, by Procter & Gamble.
