AMID GREAT EXCITEMENT. St. Louis Opinions About Pittsburgh's Ball Players.

LEAGUE UMPIRE BARNUM'S VIEWS. Ward Fully Explains Why He Won't Go to Washington.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

The big race has started, and what the result will be nobody can tell. Probably no contest in this city ever commenced under more favorable auspices.

A TESTING TIME. The first night and day is a trying time to me and to many others. That time seems to test every part of one's stomach and inside.

THE ST. LOUIS OPINION ABOUT PITTSBURGH'S BALL PLAYERS. A St. Louis correspondent of the Sporting Life thus writes of the Pittsburgh team:

THE CARPENTERS AND MASTER BUILDERS BATTING FOR THE MASTERY. St. Louis, April 7.—The Master Builders Association No. 2 held a meeting at Druids Hall last night, with President R. W. Morrison in the chair.

THE ST. LOUIS STRIKE. Resolved, by the master builders of St. Louis, with a view of removing a wrong impression that may have been made on the public mind, that we reaffirm the resolutions that we adopted on February 4, which are as follows:

THE PROGRESSIVE MINERS' COMMITTEE RESOLVES TO ACCEPT HIS RESIGNATION. A special from Columbus, O., says: John McBride, President of the National Association of Miners, has received full reports, and states that all of the miners are in favor of sustaining last year's scale, while some want the winter scale to extend to the summer period.

THE PUDDLERS STILL IDLE. The failure to connect a new Gas Line at the American Works. The puddlers at Jones & Laughlin's American Iron Works, numbering about 400 men, are still without work on account of the scarcity of natural gas in the mill.

THE BABIES AGONE. Columbus Wins Another Good Game From Springfield. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. COLUMBUS, O., April 7.—Columbus played the Springfield, Ill., team today. Twenty-five hundred people witnessed the game which was an excitingly close contest, and belonged to the visitors on the whole.

THE BRADDOCK BLES. BRADDOCK, April 7.—Manager Blair of the Bradco club, has arranged his line for the coming season. He will have granite gray suits, blue belts, stockings and gray caps, with blue trimmings.

CLARK WAS DEFEATED. STREUNVILLE, O., April 7.—Saturday night's wrestling match between Jesse Clark, of Pittsburg, and Fred Mathews, of Wellsville, for a prize of $100, was one of the best seen in that city.

SPEDDY TRAVELING. Schroeder Wins the 30-Hour Contest at Beaver Falls. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BEAVER FALLS, April 7.—The 30-hour walking match closed at 11 o'clock last night, Schroeder, of Rochester, a boy 18 years of age, taking the prize.

McNeillie to Carnes. NEW YORK, April 7.—Jack McNeillie, light-weight champion of America, left a deposit of $300 with R. K. Fox yesterday, and challenged Jim Carnes, of England, to a ten-round boxing match, Queensbury rules, before the Pellam, clubs whose members are not more than 18 years old. Address H. Reno, 338 Washington avenue, Birmingham, Ala.

WALTER HEWITT arrived at the Quilby House, Boston, last night and held a conference with Morrill and Wain. The former has been offered the management of the majority of the Senators. He wants $5,000 and Wise puts the offer at $2,000. Mr. Hewitt will see the men again to-day.

WARD FULLY EXPLAINS HIS REFUSAL TO BE A SENATOR. Henry Chadwick writes as follows about Ward's refusal to be a senator:

I went up to see John Ward last night at the Marlborough Hotel, where he is still staying with his charming wife, as happy as a king. I found him sitting ready to attend Dramatic Editor Wheeler's literary reception. Just evening, but John gave me time for an interesting talk with him about his baseball affairs, with which the general public seems to be deeply interested.

THE REASON WHY. "Well, John, I see that you have decided not to go to Washington, and I am glad to hear it. I think it is best for me to remain in New York," he continued, "the papers this evening give a very erroneous account of my reasons for not signing with Washington; especially in their reference to an alleged dislike for the city and its people, and my opinion of the strength of the team; in all these things I am wrong, and I shall explain to you as fully as I can, removing such impressions: For it is not on account of the city or the club's team that I refuse to go, but for more important reasons."
