If a tyro had dropped into the rooms of the Iron City Microscopical Society last evening and had gazed upon the drawings that ornamented the walls, he would certainly have thought that some artist suffering from a severe attack of delirium tremens had succeeded in portraying a few of his zoological visions; on every side were queer, fantastic drawings that seemingly could have emanated from nothing but a bad attack of the "snakes."

IN A HOSPITAL.

What Has Been Done in a Year for the Benefit of Suffering Mankind—The Homeopathic Pathoprophylaxis and Sanitarium.

During the year ending April 1 there were treated at the Homeopathic Hospital 1,369 persons. Of these 317 paid in whole or in part, while 1,052 paid nothing.

In the free dispensary connected with the hospital, 24,170 prescriptions were issued; 1,297 surgical operations and 225 surgical dressings performed. The training school has been a success. Six members of the school have graduated.

Receipts for the year from all sources amounting to $33,875 and expenses $20,000. Several means are now before the committee for the future support of the hospital. A beginning has already been made. The first $10,000 has been secured. It is estimated that the hospital will be self-sustaining in a few years.

Such, however, was not the case, the drawings were illustrations used by Prof. W. J. Jackman, of the High School, in his lecture on the "Earth Worm." On tables nearby were microscopes showing other details of structure not shown by the drawings. The lecture was technical, but in many points was interesting to one unversed in science.

Said the Professor, after describing the structure, physiological action, etc., of the worm.

"While repulsive in appearance and apparently loathsome to the touch, it is of unusual interest to the student, as its habits are so easily studied, and its scene of operations so accessible. It is of infinite value to the farmer, as it constantly passing it through its body; it is estimated that, on an average, the soil thus worked over in one year by each worm is 22 of an inch, and that a bed of time has thus been worked below the surface in the course of a few years.

Mr. Darnell, who was present, said that he had found this out by a series of experiments extending over a period of 27 years, probably the longest experiment of the kind ever made.

"A peculiar habit of the earth worm is that of filling up its burrows in the ground with leaf-mould, and it is this fact that 60 per cent of the stems are placed leaf end in the ground, seemingly indicating intelligence on the part of the worm. In my garden last fall I carried a few worms into the house, and they fell to the ground, they disappeared. Upon investigation I found that the leaves had been carried into the ground by the worms. In this way they certainly aid us by fertilizing the soil."

By a similar plan stones, and even ruins of buildings, disappear into the ground. It is a fact, however, that the present scale, with slight modifications, will be offered.
